New Disciples • Vital Congregations • Transformed World

Imagination - Have enough light to see the hope of God's call – Ephesians 1:18

Come, imagine with me new generations of disciples, vital congregations and a transformed world

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Look where our imagination is taking us!

At the 2016 Annual Conference Session of the United Methodist Church of Greater New Jersey we celebrated our ministry together with stories of transformation through our congregations, clergy and mission partners. We witnessed the hope of God in our missional work through initiatives like A Future With Hope and CAMP YDP. We shared how God's call is working through our youth at IGNITE. We imagined 100 new Hope Centers across our conference to bring the word of God to the people of God.

We celebrated our new resourcing that is moving our congregations and ministry forward, the Laity Academy, Team Vital, PaCE groups, Communities of Hope and coaching.

We also imagined a world without racism and passing legislation that allows us to move forward in our mission with strong diversified leadership.

In these pages you will find the people, congregations, and fruits of our ministry together. I hope you will review them carefully and refer to them often in your ministry. These pages hold the directory of our lay and clergy leaders which is key to our connectionalism. They outline bold new initiatives and thoughtful analysis of our progress and our challenges. They show diversity and our challenges with diversity.

Greater New Jersey is imagining, pursuing and growing transformational leaders, new disciples, vital congregations and a transformed world. Explore for yourself all God is doing through us in the following pages.

God is not finished with us. God has imagined great things for Greater New Jersey. I invite you to have the imagination to hear God's call for love, unity and healing. Pray that we can use God's light to focus us on our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ and grow vital congregations to transform the world.

Imagine what God has in store for us next.

Keep the faith!

GREATER NEW JERSEY'S STRATEGIC MINISTRY PLAN

VISION

We see a church like Jesus Christ—radical spirit and humble, teaching and healing, soul saving and soul tending, leader and servant, unbound and outbound for mercy and justice.

We also see a Wesleyan Church—personal holiness and social holiness, connectional and risk taking, thoughtful and inspirational, small groups and large vision, welcoming all and respectful of all.

MISSION

Recruit and develop transformational leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ and grow vital congregations to transform the world.

DISCIPLES are life-long learners and followers of Jesus Christ, leaving behind safety and complacency to serve like Christ to make new disciples, end poverty, be graceful with those at the margins, connect with people who are different from us and magnify God's presence in the world. This type of disciple is shaped, encouraged, sent and supported through vital congregations.

VITAL CONGREGATIONS are inwardly transformed and missionally outbound. Vital congregations are Spirit-filled, forward leaning communities of believers that grow over time, welcome all people (Galatians 3:28), make disciples of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:18-20) and serve like Christ through justice and mercy ministries (Micah 6:8 and Luke 4:17-21). Vital congregations engage and shape disciples in five ministries – worship, small groups, community mission, making new disciples and generous giving. Vital congregations transform the world.

A TRANSFORMED WORLD is a place where congregations, communities and people are working together to end poverty, eradicate racism, practice good stewardship of God's creation, seek peace and draw all people closer to God. This type of world is born through the Great Commandment, love God and your neighbor (Matthew 22). It begins with the church engaging its neighbors and working toward a peaceable kingdom as described throughout the scriptures. A transformed world, vital congregations and new disciples require transformational leaders.

TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERS assess the gifts and needs of the congregation and community, set a courageous vision and goals, and inspire and equip the congregation to make new disciples, grow worship, grow disciples' faith through small groups, engage the congregation in life changing mission and increase giving to mission and ministry (Ephesians 4:11- 12). Transformational leaders have high expectations of themselves and for their congregations.

LEADERSHIP EXPECTATIONS include (but are not limited to):

1. Connecting and relating well with church leadership and membership and community residents,
2. Developing leaders within the congregation,
3. Leading the congregation to deeper faith and service in the world,
4. Increasing vitality through inspiring worship and messages, attracting and making new disciples, and engaging disciples in small groups, community hands-on mission and generous giving,
5. Raising sufficient funds for community and world mission, ongoing congregational ministry, shared ministries and salary and benefits.

CONGREGATIONAL EXPECTATIONS include (but are not limited to):

1. Connecting with and welcoming all people in the community,
2. Engaging passionately and growing in the five markers of a vital congregations,
3. Creating an environment for risk-taking and innovation,
4. Supporting the growth and development of transformational leaders and radical disciples, and
5. Share generously including 100% of shared ministry and billables.

GNJ EXPECTATIONS – To achieve our vision and mission, GNJ is compelled to shift how it thinks and carries out its ministry. These shifts include:

1. From managing clergy and congregations to being in relationship with clergy and congregations.
2. From Conference programming to Conference resourcing leaders and local congregations.
3. From telling clergy and congregations what to do to supporting clergy and congregations to innovate and create how they will make disciples, grow vitality and transform the world in their context.

Therefore GNJ will focus on growing vital congregations and resourcing leaders and congregations.

GNJ RESOURCES congregations and transformational leaders that are ready and desire to become vital and more like Christ. Our primary resources are coaching, PaCE and Laity Pursuing Excellence groups, Team Vital and Communities of Hope. These resources come alongside and center leaders and congregations in their calling, help them assess their present gifts and challenges to set a vision, create a ministry action plan and provide support and technical assistance to achieve a God-sized vision. Fruitfulness, faithfulness and effectiveness will be evaluated each year.

GNJ EVALUATION includes three types of evaluations:

1. GNJ progress toward our vision, mission and developing vital congregations as well as its commitment to and quality of its resourcing leaders and congregations. This evaluation will be done in February and September and results will be reported to the annual conference session.
2. Congregational progress in the five areas of expectations and vitality will be evaluated every September and a report given and discussed at the charge conference.
3. Clergy leadership in the five areas of expectations will be evaluated in April. April is chosen so that it is not connected with salaries or appointments. The evaluation is a tool to help assess a pastor's progress and develop a plan for continued development.

GNJ GOALS

GNJ will grow from 14% to 41% vital congregations as it:

1. Increases the percentage of churches growing in worship attendance from 33% to 51%
2. Starts 90 new faith communities
3. Decreases the number of worshipers it takes to make a new profession of faith from 17 to 15
4. Increases the percentage of worshipers in small groups from 43% to 75%
5. Increases the number of young adults in small groups from 2820 to 3200
6. Increases our racial ethnic worshipers from 20% to 25%
7. Increases the percentage of worshipers engaged in mission from 8% to 40%
8. Increases local church dollars spent on mission 15% to 17%
9. Raises $12 million through a mission campaign.

We believe accomplishing these goals will bear fruitful outcomes that include transformational leadership, radical discipleship, vital congregations and a transformed world as described above.

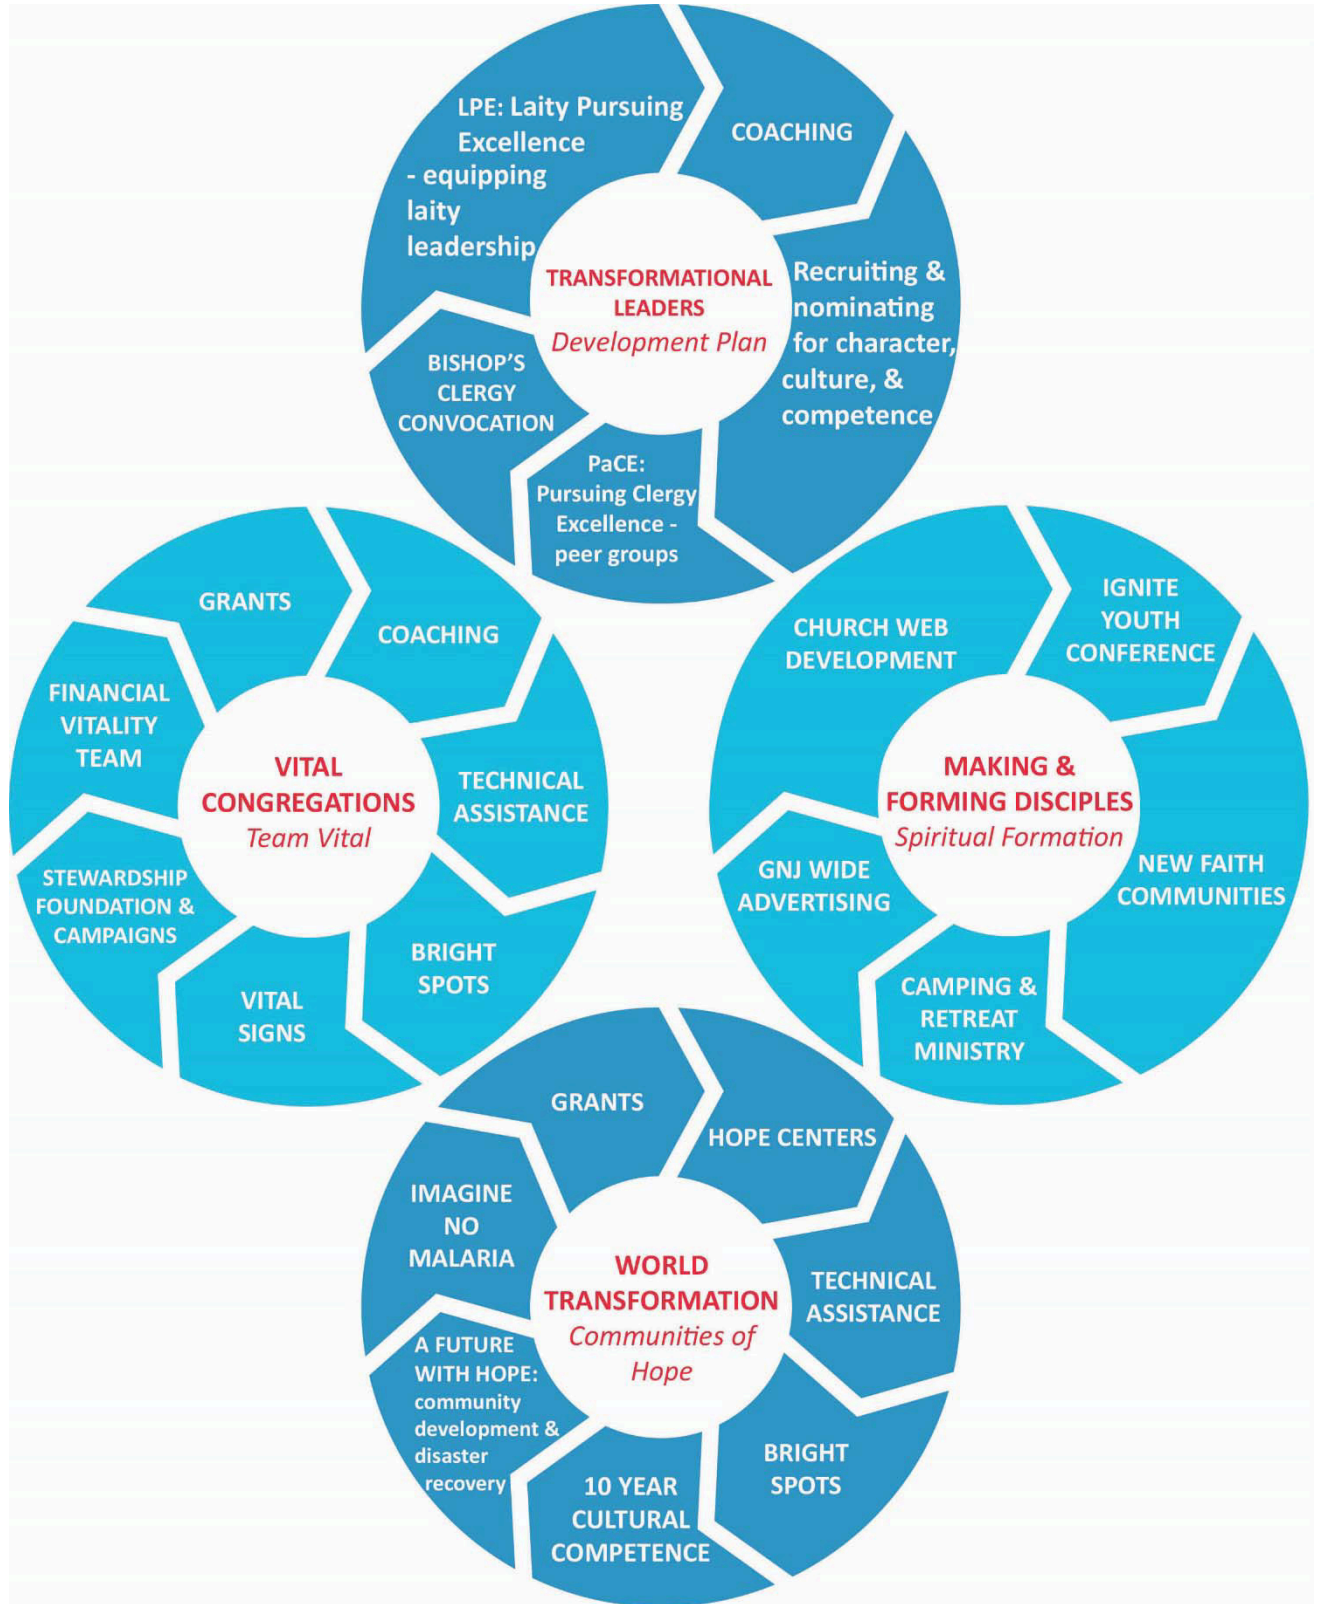

THE PATH TO VITALITY

The ministry of GNJ is to fulfill a spiritual mission that requires a journey toward health and vitality. As the staff and GNJ leadership prayerfully and faithfully travel the path to vitality, we see more transformational leaders, disciples of Jesus Christ and vital congregations transforming the world.

RESOURCES

GNJ TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERS: Character, Culture, Competency

We believe the church and the world needs transformational leaders. Leaders who form and inspire passionate disciples, grow vital congregations and transform the world. GNJ transformational leaders are lay and clergy believers who are Christ-centered and Holy Spirit led. They embody the character, possess the competency and fit culturally for the GNJ mission.

LAITY SESSION

Conference Lay Leader, Rosa Williams, opened the laity session with words of welcome. She then introduced Bishop Schol, who also offered a warm welcome and asked that everyone bring themselves fully to Conference by being open to God's leading and loving the person next to them.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Ms. Williams extended her welcome again and opened the meeting with a prayer. She expressed the hope that all were building relationships with their clergy and their community. She went on to inform the body of the events and accomplishments since last year's Annual Conference. She encouraged all laity to consider Lay Servanthood and Certified Lay Servant Ministry. Ms. Williams also spoke of the importance of taking the church outside the walls of church buildings and reaching out to the local community.

Ms. Williams shared the main point of the laity address given at General Conference, which stressed the importance of going out and making disciples of Jesus Christ -- not just sitting on the sidelines but stepping out of comfort zones. She reminded the body that they are called to be the church through acts of piety and mission, offering welcome to the stranger and the poor. She encouraged each person to listen for God's call on their lives and imagine what they could do.

Ms. Williams introduced the District Lay Leaders: Gail Robins (Cape Atlantic); Judy Dicecco (Capital); Michael Dziuba (Delaware Bay); Judy Colorado (Gateway North); Ellen Cusack (Gateway South); Marilyn Kinelski (Northern Shore); Palisades, Sam Noah (Palisades); Arthur Harrell (Raritan Valley); and Skylands, John Hartman (Skylands). Ms. Williams went on to mention the people who held positions on district groups.

Ms. Williams introduced the new Conference Director of Lay Servant ministry, George Lagos. Mr. Lagos told the body of his three goals in this position:

1. to get to know all the district leaders
2. to automate the system to make this ministry work better
3. to help improve pastor-laity relationships.

Ms. Williams introduced Harriett Jane Olson, General Director of the UMW. Ms. Olson spoke of how the UMW has been active in missions for almost one hundred and fifty years. She encouraged the body to look at the UMW's seven minute video on YouTube which celebrates these years of mission. She explained that new focuses are on climate issues and mass incarceration, especially the disproportionate number of people of color. UMW continues to keep issues concerning women, children and youth in the forefront. She encouraged everyone to attend the Cooperative School of Christian Mission (Mission U) this summer.

Ms. Williams welcomed the young people who were in the audience. She recognized Bethany Amey, one of the General Conference delegates and introduced Judy Colorado, another delegate, and asked her to share her experience from General Conference. She praised all the delegates from our Conference for their exemplary witness.

Ms. Colorado shared that her first impression of General Conference was the vast diversity of the global church that includes delegates from around the world speaking different languages, coming from different cultures and bringing different expectations. Her second impression was how the UMC is committed to be a witness in the world by works of justice, mercy and love to all people in their own context. She has come to realize that although the UMC has one mission, one faith and one God, we also have different theologies, voices and stances on the issues in our time. She prayed for God's spirit to guide us. She told how she has cried tears for our church to be united. She concluded with her hopes that the GNJ Annual Conference will continue to imagine a church that will move forward and that we continue to affirm our faith, traditions, and love for one another.

Ms. Williams congratulated Ms. Colorado for being elected onto the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church.

Ms. Williams showed slides from the Lay Ministries recognition celebration. She spoke on the Laity Academy and the new tracks it is offering.

A video on the mission project 'Stop Hunger Now' was shown. Ms. Williams encouraged everyone to volunteer for this mission project.

The laity session ended as Ellen Cusack gave the blessing for dinner.

ORDINATION AND COMMISSIONING SERVICE

The Ordination and Commissioning Service began with a Native American greeting given by Christy Pierce Maisonave of the Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape Tribe. The ordinands, clergy, and bishops then processed in to the hymns "Forward through the Ages" and "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name".

Rev. Hector Burgos introduced a video, "Imagine a World" and led the congregation in the Call to Worship. Bishop Schol introduced Bishop Ernest Lyght and Bishop Solito Toquero of the Philippines. Bishop Schol and Bishop Toquero led the greeting and opening prayer. Bishop Schol and Bishop Lyght led a reaffirmation of baptism. Conference Lay Leader, Rosa Williams and Board of Ordained Ministry Chair, Rev. Shawn Callender Hogan presented the candidates to be commissioned and ordained. Bishop Schol asked the candidates the appropriate questions.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Erika Yun read the scripture passage, Ephesians 1:17-19. Bishop Schol began his sermon by giving thanks to God for all who came this evening and for all that God is doing through the United Methodist Church. After offering a prayer, he stated he wanted to talk about a new voice, new dreams and new imagination. He asked the church to imagine with him and to look at all God has created. He called on the church to separate good from evil, noting that this takes imagination. He reminded the body that Ephesians tells us that while God provides us enough light to see the immediate future, what is assumed is that we stand in the darkness, noting that we wouldn't need more light if we were in the light. Bishop Schol named three things that get in the way of imagination: familiarity, security, and the light itself. He stated that when we become too familiar with our way of doing things, we stop listening to God for new possibilities. He spoke about security, stating that we feel comfortable with what is, or we try to make decisions that secure our future. Bishop Schol explained the third thing that stops imagination, the light itself. He challenged us to step into the darkness because we haven't seen all of God's light yet. He stated we like to keep one foot in the light and just tip our toe into the darkness. He encouraged us to abandoned security and trust God. Bishop Schol also said we need to stop asking the same old questions and ask the right new questions in the church. He concluded with asking those to be commissioned, the ordinands, and the whole body if we were willing to imagine with him a new possibility: a new church. "Are you ready to imagine a new church, a church which God is calling to step out of the light into the darkness? Won't you come and imagine with me?"

Bishop Schol introduced a video on A Future With Hope and explained that the offering taken during the service would benefit the Mission Fund Campaign which supports Imagine No Malaria Campaign and A Future With Hope.

The service moved into the time of commissioning and ordination. All the Bishops led the examination, prayers and laying on of hands for those being commissioned and ordained.

WORSHIP AND PRAISE

Morning ceremonies opened with worship music by conference musicians led by Director of Worship, Eric Drew. A poem "Imagine a Box" was read.

CONFERENCE CALLED TO ORDER

Bishop Schol called the body of the GNJ Annual Conference to order. He asked Eric Drew to introduce the members of the band, all from different churches throughout the conference. He then offered a prayer.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

SETTING THE BAR

Rev. David Wiley, Conference Secretary, made a motion for setting the Bar of Conference for voting and organization of Conference. The motion passed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. David Wiley made the necessary announcements.

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Bishop Schol began his address by leading the body in singing "Sanctuary," then offered a prayer. Bishop Schol asked the body if they have ever looked through a kaleidoscope, and explained how light works with a kaleidoscope. He defined imagination as having enough light to see God's unfolding story for the church in all of its hues and shapes, stating that the light is the light of Jesus Christ, illuminating our way to a future with hope. He went on to highlight three congregations in Greater New Jersey: Morristown UMC's new Hispanic service and two new congregations, one Egyptian and one Ghanaian.

Bishop Schol informed the body that through A Future With Hope Ministry, GNJ has worked with 441 families and teamed with 11,000 volunteers, repairing and building 240 homes. He explained that instead of disbanding A Future With Hope when Sandy recovery was complete, we will build on the organization's strengths to create Hope Centers to provide community development and human services in the name of Jesus Christ. He imagines at least five Hope Centers in every county, which will create more than 100 Hope Centers throughout GNJ.

Bishop Schol announced that our Shared Ministry receipts have increased, even as our budget has not, and again proposed to decrease the Shared Ministry budget.

Bishop Schol announced that the new Mission and Resource Center is open and that the five million dollar project is paid for and is already creating mission and ministry opportunities including a partnership with Drew University. He acknowledged the new resources happening throughout the Conference and the local churches.

Bishop Schol stated that he sees hope rising across the GNJ and that he imagines a God-sized vision and ministry in which hope springs eternal out of our congregations and into our communities. He said there are deep differences among us and these differences can be painful and unsettling, creating fear and talk of division. He recognizes that at the core is the fact that we have different understandings of how to interpret the Bible. Even so, he stated that he believes we can still serve God together. He stated that the movement of God has never depended on our agreement with one another but our willingness to unite to serve God.

Bishop Schol identified the following challenges:

1. While vitality is increasing, we are decreasing in worship attendance;
2. We imagine a greater and larger mission than we have capacity, people, systems and dollars.
3. There are more injustices that we need to address.
4. We are discontinuing churches, with a study showing that 20-30% of our congregations will close within the next 20 years.

The Bishop reviewed how we are doing based on the Conference Strategic Plan Goals. He informed the body that our goal was to increase the percentage of churches growing in worship attendance from 32 percent to 51percent. He informed us that today, 30 percent of our churches are growing. He informed the body that, towards our goal of 90 new faith communities, we have started 24. He stated that we have slipped on the goal to decrease the number of worshipers it takes to make new profession of faith as it now takes 18 instead of getting this number closer to 15. On the other hand, our goal to increase the percentage of worshipers in small groups has already exceeded the goal of 75 percent. He told the body that the number of young adults in small groups has also increased to 2900 and our increase of racial ethnic members has increased to 21 percent. We have already far exceeded the 40 percent goal of worshipers engaged in mission. He informed the body that we have exceeded our goal of increasing local church dollars spent on mission to 17 percent and we are now in the top 10 conferences in our denomination. He reminded the body that our goal was to raise 12 million dollars for through a Mission Fund campaign and informed us that we have raised 5.5 million dollars so far.

Bishop Schol concluded by stating that as United Methodists, God is giving us all the light we need to see hope, to see an engaged disciple, a vital congregation, and a transformed world. Like looking through a kaleidoscope, the disciples, the congregations and transformation will look different in different places, but he is convinced that in these places where transformation is happening there will be faithful GNJ laity and clergy leading the way.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Rev. Dave Wiley read the rules for balloting for the episcopal nominations.

Rev. Tom Lank, chair of the General and Jurisdictional Delegation, provided the background work completed by the Jurisdictional Delegates reviewing the qualities of bishops and core competencies required. He stated that having interviewed those nominated, the committee presented a “not yet” decision for endorsement of a candidate by the delegation at this time.

Bishop Schol introduced two candidates, Rev. Dr. Heasun Kim and Rev. Dr. Jisun Kwak who were nominated according to the process delineated in the conference Rules of Order. Rev. Kim and Rev. Kwak were given 3 minutes each to present themselves to the body of the conference.

Bishop Schol led the body through the first ballot. The tellers retired to count the ballots as the conference continued.

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

Bishop Schol, along with clergy and the families of conference members who died during the previous year, processed in “For All the Saints”. Bishop Schol introduced the Rev. Dr. Virginia Samuel Cetuk as preacher for this service. Dab Emegoakor, a youth member, read the scripture from Matthew 6:25-33.

Rev. Dr. Samuel Cetuk spoke to the scripture, life experience, hope and our primary relationship with God. She shared part of her personal journey of grief and stated that having faith made bearable that which was unbearable. She shared with the body of having lost her twin sister four years ago and, more recently, her brother, and how she is learning to walk into a new life. She went on to tell the body how her faith held her in relationship with God with a whisper she received saying “I will send you a comforter.” She encouraged those grieving to keep faith that God is with us each day and every lonely night. Dr. Samuel Cetuk talked about how she did not believe that time heals all wounds and how she found that by working through feelings intentionally, she progressed in her faith. She shared with the body a powerful image of a cross she has on her desk. It is simple but when turned around, on the back revealed hands clinging to the cross that evoked feelings that were daunting and humbling.

Rev. David Wiley invited the body to stand in honor of those whom they have known and come to remember as the names of the saints were read: He then read the Glory Roll:

A video about Respond, Inc., which is an organization in Camden, NJ, was shown. This ministry grew out of the Haddonfield UMC. Bishop Schol praised this ministry.

IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT RACISM

Bishop Schol opened the session with prayer. He then spoke about how he has been heard differently since he became Bishop, and how some people are not heard the same way because of their ethnicity. He admitted that he has received privilege just because he is white and a bishop. He then introduced the speaker, Dr. Robin DiAngelo, a professor at University of Washington, who has been working with different groups trying to explore and explain privilege.

Dr. DiAngelo began by talking about the issue of racism. She challenged the body to think about what it would mean to life if we gave more thought to this issue. She reminded the body that everyone has an opinion on the topic of racism and that we have a limited understanding of this issue. She went on to admit that she realizes that she goes through life as a white person with a white world perspective. This is very different than a person of color's perspective. White people often don't have an understanding of a person of color's perspective but people of color, from early on, know there are two different perspectives. She defined prejudice as being an internal prejudgment on a specific group. She defined discrimination as external actions based off of prejudice. She explained how this can be transformed into systematic oppression and group power. This is seen in different forms: sexism, racism, classism, etc. She used the issue of sexism to help understand racism by talking about how women got the right to vote. Dr. DiAngelo went on to define racism as one form of institutional oppression that works on multiple levels and results in an unequal distribution of privileges. She used the analogy of a bird cage to describe how, when looking myopically, we can't see racism but when we step back, we can see the bars that are keeping people oppressed. She also stated we have set up a binary system with racism being bad and non-racism being good, causing dominant white racial narratives. She stated that what has happened because of these narratives is that we have not gotten rid of racism but denied it. Because of this we can never rid ourselves of racism, no matter what we say or how we live. She questioned the hidden foundations of where we got our information from, suggesting it begins with the neighborhoods in which we grew up by calling them safe or good neighborhoods. She asked us: when was the first time you had a teacher of a different race than you? Then she informed the body about how most teachers are white, and schools are almost as segregated as back in the day of Brown verses Board of Ed. This is how and where institutional power begins. She went on to give examples of how so much in our lives imply that being white is ideal and gave many different statistics showing how systemic segregation is in our society, including our churches. She shared that unexamined whiteness often doesn't end up creating welcoming spaces for people of color. To encourage transformative growth, she encouraged the body to begin to challenge our own racial reality, begin to understand people of color's racial realities through authentic interaction rather than through the media or unequal relationships and to take action to address your internalized racism, the racism of other whites and our institutions. She then listed several questions on the screen and encouraged the body to divide into small groups and discuss them.

Bishop Schol called the body back together. He encouraged the body to fill out the forms that had been handed out as the GNJAC begins to put together a ten-year plan for greater cultural competency among clergy, laity and conference leadership in order to eliminate racism. He thanked Dr. Robin DiAngelo for her presentation.

VIDEO

Bishop Schol introduced a video on CUMAC/ECHO.

LAY LEADERSHIP REPORT

Bishop Schol invited Rosa Williams to give the Lay Leadership report. She began by celebrating the many ways the body is sharing the good news of Jesus Christ in our communities and beyond. Focusing on the key word 'imagine' she challenged the body to imagine a new type of church. She invited several young people to tell how the church is helping them imagine new ways of growth and ministry. Four young people. Andrew Ryoo, Rev. Lakesha Groover, Rev. Charles Perez and Joy Foley, gave testimonies of how their faith has given meaning and challenges to their lives and what ministries they have been called to lead.

RECOGNITIONS

Bishop Schol thanked and recognized the church leadership that will be rotating out of leadership at the end of the current quadrennial. He thanked; Jazelis Adorno-Burgos, Rev. Vicki Miller Brendler, John Bishop, Rev. Jessica Campbell, Rev. Jennifer Cho, Rev. Frank Fowler, Millie Grey, Rev. Shawn Callender Hogan, Dr. Barbara McFarquhar, Rev. Larry Oksten, Rev. William Wilson, Sr. and Rev. Paul Zorn. The body stood and gave thanks to all these leaders.

LEGISLATION

GNJ STRATEGIC MINISTRY PLAN MIDWAY AFFIRMATION

Rev. Vicki Miller Brendler presented the GNJ Strategic Ministry Plan Midway Affirmation Recommendation. She made a motion for its adoption. The motion passed.

PROPOSED SHARED MINISTRIES PLAN RECOMMENDATION

John Bishop reported to the body that things have never been better financially. He stated that for a number of years in a row now, we have had a clean audit; our collection rate is up 2%, a substantial increase; 70% of churches paid 100% of their shared giving, and 85% paid 100% of their billings. He talked about the new Conference Mission and Resource Center that is paid for, which should save us two million dollars in the long run. He also spoke about the process that went into redirecting administrative funds to be more financially effective.

Bishop Schol then introduced Bob Dietz to present the Proposed Shared Ministries Plan Recommendation. After he explained the changes in the budget, Mr. Dietz made a motion for its approval.

DECISION OF LAW

Creed Pogue asked for a decision of law, asking if the Maintenance to Mission Process, which will eliminate district offices, bring about major staff changes and cause significant shifts in patterns of funding is a prohibited and improper delegation of authority because it constitutes a restructuring of the Annual Conference without Annual Conference action. He asked if the Maintenance to Mission process is in violation of the Book of Discipline. He continued by citing what he considered to be similar examples by other conferences and stating some issues with their actions.

Discussion followed.

Bishop Schol explained that what the body is voting on with the proposed Shared Ministries Plan is a change in the categories of the balance of the 2016 budget, not a change in the bottom line, and the adoption of the 2017 budget. He also explained the shared services model of administration, and that what has been done in preparing for these changes and the adoption of the budget is within the purview of the CFA and the committees of the Annual Conference.

AMENDMENT

Creed Pogue made a motion for an amendment to decrease the Camps and Conferences 2016 projected budget amount by $115,000 and the projected 2017 budget by $115,000. The motion failed.

BIBLE STUDY

Scripture, Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7, was read by one of the Conference youth. Bishop Schol introduced and welcomed Trey Wince as the Bible study speaker for the morning. Bishop Schol then opened with prayer.

Mr. Wince began by giving a short synopsis of the Bible up until the time of Jeremiah and set the context of the people of God in exile and how Jeremiah was trying to find words to help heal God's people by giving them vision. He encouraged the body to hear this passage as one that challenges us to help our communities by claiming them as our own and to settle in as Jeremiah told God's people to do. He had a video played about Rev. Hannah Terry who moved into the community in which she was serving. Mr. Wince made a second point as to how to improve ministry within a community by "listening well" and hearing their stories. He went on to explain how only through story does change occur. To emphasize the importance of listening to people's stories, he played a video about Trenton by Marlin Hall. His third point was to imagine and improve ministry by "trying stuff." He encouraged everyone to talk about failures as measures of success. By doing this it shows that you're trying new things, are not afraid to fail and shows that you believe you have a future worth investing in. To emphasize this, he showed a video of Mari Barenkutzi, who lived in Burundi, and how she was inspired to build an orphanage, hospital, school, cinema and pool for the children and community.

VIDEO

Bishop Schol introduced a video about the IGNITE Youth Conference held in Wildwood each year.

SERVICE OF PASSAGE

The Service of Passage opened with the song "The Church's One Foundation". Rev. Dr. Gina Hendrickson came forward and introduced the retirees.

Bishop Schol thanked them for the 892 years of ministry between them and asked the body to thank them as well. He then led the Call to Worship. After a prayer of blessing for the retirees, Bishop Schol had the District Superintendents come forward and anoint the retirees.

Rev. Kyu Tae Pak called forward the newly ordained clergy and had them stand before the retirees.

Bishop Schol explained the biblical and historical symbolism of the passing of the mantle, reminding the body that for centuries the mantle has been passed to women and men who were gifted and called to make disciples and to build up the body of Christ. Retiree, Rev. Jungrea Chung came forward and passed the mantle to the newly ordained, Rev. John Randall.

The newly commissioned class was then called to join the group. The newly ordained explained to the newly commissioned that a portion of the mantle now falls on them. Newly ordained Rev. Randall passed the mantle to newly commissioned, Rev. JongIn Lee and those commissioned were anointed by those ordained.

Rev. Dr. Varlyna Wright called forward the newly appointed Local Pastors. The newly commissioned Rev. Lee passed the mantle to newly appointed Local Pastor, Rev. Teresita Matos-Post. Those commissioned anointed the Local Pastors.

Rosa Williams passed the mantle on to Choong-Hee Lee and Halina Mui as those who have been commissioned to the Office of Deaconess and Home Missioners.

Bishop Schol thanked and recognized all those in Extension Ministry, explaining what they do through our Conference on behalf of the church. He asked them to stand.

Bishop Schol recognized and gave thanks for District Superintendent Rev. Wayne Plumstead for his ministry and congratulated him on his retirement.

READING OF APPOINTMENTS

Bishop Schol announced the first two appointments. He introduced Rev. Gina Kim as the newly appointed District Superintendent of the Palisades District. He also explained that Rev. Rich Hendrickson was being appointed to a church within his wife's district so for Rev. Hendrickson, Bishop Schol would be his Superintendent.

Each District Superintendent came forward and read the names of the new appointments within their districts.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

ORDER OF THE DAY

District Superintendent, Rev. Manuel Sardiñas, introduced Bishop Joel Ajo Fernandez so he could give us the charge for our Conference. Bishop Fernandez began by thanking Bishop Schol for allowing him to represent the 2016 retiring class. Bishop Fernandez encouraged the body to go home to our churches and communities and imagine what God has imagined for each one of us. He charged us to go and make disciples for Christ, and to work passionately for the elimination of discriminatory practices within our church and our communities. He encouraged us to continue to do our best for the transformation of the world through acts of love and hospitality. He called us to show the love of Jesus with passion and compassion in all possible and impossible ways, because God has imagined that we can do more. He encouraged the body to go in the way God has imagined us in the name of Jesus, who is with us, abiding, empowering and guiding us to the end of the age.

Bishop Schol led the body in prayer.

VIDEO

Bishop Schol announced that this is the sixtieth anniversary of the ordination of women and asked all the women clergy to stand and be recognized. He then introduced a video celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of the ordination of women and the fortieth anniversary of the first women delegates to General Conference.

GENERAL CONFERENCE UPDATE

Bishop Schol invited the delegates from General Conference to give an update. A video was presented showcasing General Conference.

Rosa Williams and Rev. Varlyna Wright came forward and explained how General Conference was run. The resolutions GNJAC had sent to General Conference on human sexuality were discussed. Rosa Williams reported that the General Conference delegates had requested the Council of Bishops to do something to lead forward on the issue of human sexuality and other matters. The Council of Bishops came back the next day with a report. Their report stressed the importance of unity within the church and recommended that they would form a special commission with members named by the Council of Bishops to conduct a complete examination and possible revision of every paragraph in the Book of Discipline regarding human sexuality. The commission would be made up of persons from every region of the UMC as well as differing perspectives on the debate, call a special two or three day gathering before the 2020 General Conference to act on the recommendations of the special commission, continue to explore options to help the church live in grace with one another, including ways to avoid further complaints, trials and harm as we uphold the Discipline, and defer all votes on all petitions related to human sexuality until the proposed commission has done its work. The body voted 428 to 405 to approve the Council of Bishops' proposal. Rev. Wright told of a moment at General Conference when one of the youth asked for a moment of privilege and spoke on how the youth wanted the church to stay united, reminding the body that we have always been a church with deep theological differences.

Lynn Caterson came forward and informed the body that the Judicial Council had determined that the petitions that had been approved by legislative committees requiring mandatory minimum sentencing for certain clergy offenses were ruled unconstitutional. She went on to speak about how spirited the worship services were at General Conference and spoke about how the Imagine No Malaria campaign has been effective and how it will be expanded into the Abundant Health campaign. She told of how there was a service of repentance for the responsibility the Methodist-Episcopal church's involvement in the Sand Creek massacre of 1864. She continued to speak on all the celebrations that occurred at General Conference.

Rev. Tom Lank spoke of how the delegation took time to pray for peace on the Korean peninsula and how each delegation was given a peace cross. He then invited Rev. Kwak to come forward and place the cross on the altar and offer a prayer. Rev. Lank informed the body of some of the legislative highlights from General Conference, encouraging the body to see a complete listing on the UMC website. He ended by introducing all the delegates for both General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

VIDEO

Bishop Schol introduced a video on General Conference highlighting our delegates.

BALLOT COUNT

Bishop Schol informed the body that on the latest ballot, over 60% of the votes were for "Not Yet" so there would not be any other candidate endorsed by the GNJAC for the episcopacy. He thanked Rev. Heasun Kim for stepping forward and saying 'Here I am, Lord'.

She thanked Bishop Schol and the team for all they are doing.

Bishop Schol also recognized Fletcher Anderson, a teacher at a seminary in Cuba, and thanked him for all the work that he had done with and in Cuba.

LEGISLATION

PROPOSED SHARED MINISTRY PLAN

Bishop Schol reminded the body that we were continuing on from yesterday's legislation on the budget and that there had been one speech for and one against the budget and had discussed one amendment that had been defeated. He asked Rev. Hector Burgos to explain the process of the staffing and why the budget was revised. Rev. Burgos explained how the Connectional Table Executive Committee and the Extended Cabinet came to identify a need to do administration in a different way and the efforts that took place to put together a proposal. He went on to list all the ways they have proceeded, working with many committees and groups within the conference and keeping the Conference informed of the changes being proposed.

become the responsibility of the Conference. The CF&A and Trustees shall bring a report to next year's Annual Conference, with any action they may propose. Discussion and questions followed.

RECOMMENDATION: CHANGE RULE #55 IN GNJ RULES OF ORDER

Rev. Rev. Steve Bechtold spoke to the rationale of this recommendation explaining that over the past twenty to twenty-five years, 90% of the people serving as chairs of the four committees affected by this recommendation have white and when people of color have served they have often served as co-chairs. The purpose of the recommendation was to encourage diversity. Rosa Williams explained the process that occurs for the Nomination Committee. She affirmed that they use an open process, taking recommendations from all over the Conference. She stated that they always look for persons with the qualifications needed as well as diversity. She said the recommendation came out of the desire of the Nominations Committee to achieve greater diversity in its leadership and like any nominations, nominations can always come from the floor and that person would be welcomed into those organizations.

AMENDMENT

Rev. Jessica Brendler Naulty made a motion to amend the recommendation so that it would not take effect for the Board of Ordained Ministry until the 2020 quadrennial because of the timely work of that committee.

AMENDMENT

Erik Ostrow made a motion to amend Rev. Brendler Naulty's amendment asking that the postponement of the change in Rule #55 extend to all four boards that this recommendation affects.

POINT OF ORDER

Rev. Bobbie Rambach stated that the Discipline states those boards are self-organizing and asked why are we overruling the Book of Discipline.

Lynn Caterson explained that these are open nominations and that the Nominations Committee will present a slate of officers, the four boards and agencies will review it and could change it. It is not mandatory for the boards to accept the nominations from the Nominations Committee. Therefore, she feels we are not overruling the Discipline.

FINAL WORDS

Bishop Schol announced that our time together was at an end. He explained that any legislation not yet voted on would be referred to the appropriate bodies to be acted upon there, they would be. If not, the legislation would be brought to next year's Annual Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

John Bishop requested a ruling as a matter of law as to whether the recently enacted recommendation regarding the Change in Rule #55 in GNJ Rules of Order is in conformance with the church law:

"Since the Boards of Ordained Ministry (Para 635.1.c) (Para 2512.2), Pensions and Health Benefits as well as the Conference Council on Finance and Administration (Para 612.3) are authorized by the Discipline to elect their own officers, is Conference Rule 55.b., as enacted, lawful in that it allows nominations of officers by other than members of the respective bodies.

"Is the disenfranchisement of members of Boards of Ordained Ministry, Trustees, Pensions and Health Benefits and the Council on Finance and Administration lawful where, in Rule 55.b. all nominations of officers are to be made by the conference Nominations Committee?"

ADJOURNMENT:

Bishop Schol closed Annual Conference at 1:10 pm with a prayer.

c. Under no circumstances shall a person who is not duly elected as stated above be seated at sessions of the Annual Conference.

If no member objects, the division shall be made; but if there is objection, the Chair, not waiting for a second, shall put the division to a vote.

32) Tabling Related Motions – No motion that adheres to another motion or has another motion adhering to it can be laid on the table by itself. If they are laid on the table, such motions carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

33) Motions After Speaking on a Pending Question –

a. A member may make a motion after a speech, although strict parliamentary practice requires motion to be made and seconded before a speech is made so the Conference may determine if it wishes to hear the matter.

b. No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of the speech have the right to call for the previous question, to move for indefinite postponement, or to lay the motion on the table.

34) Previous Question – To move the previous question is to move that the vote now be taken on the motion or motions pending.

RULES OF ORDER

a. When moving a previous question, a member shall indicate to what such action applies if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If the member does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and if, in the judgment of the chair, two thirds (2/3) of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motion to which it applies.

b. It shall not be in order to move the previous question in cases involving character or Conference relations, or where the Rules otherwise expressly limit when it is in order to move the previous question.

35) Reconsideration of a Question – A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time during the prevailing session if offered by a member who voted with the majority. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is not debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

36) Suspension of Rules – The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Conference.

37) Motions and Resolutions are to be Written –

a. All motions, resolutions and reports shall be submitted in writing to the Secretary, properly signed by the movers thereof.

b. Motions made on the floor shall be written on forms provided by the Secretary.

38) When a Motion is in Possession of the Conference – When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and/or read before the Conference, or stated by the Chair it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference. But any motion may be withdrawn or altered by the mover with the consent of the Conference at any time before voting has commenced.

39) Amendments and Substitutions –

a. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order.

b. It is in order to move a substitute for the main motion. In such case, the Chair shall proceed to perfect the original motion. When the main motion has been perfected, the Chair shall state the question on the substitute. If the substitute is adopted, it shall replace the original main motion and become the main motion. The Chair will then state the question on the (new) main motion. The new main motion can be amended only by addition. If the substitute does not carry, the Chair shall state the question on the original main motion as it has been perfected.

40) Order of Amendments – When a main motion, report or resolution is under consideration, only one amendment and one amendment to that amendment are permissible. While there can be only one amendment of each degree pending at the same time, any number of amendments can be offered in succession. A substitute and one amendment to the substitute may be offered while amendments of the first and second degree are pending. The permissive order then is: 1) main motion, 2) amendment, 3) amendment to the amendment, 4) substitute, and 5) amendment to the substitute. The voting in this order is 3, 2, 5, 4, 1. If the substitute becomes the main motion, it shall be treated as such.

41) Appeal – An appeal from the decision of the Chair shall be taken without debate, provided that after the Chair shall have stated the reason for the decision, the appellant may give the grounds for the appeal. (§ 51)

42) The Question of Consideration – The question of consideration may be raised by any member upon the presentation of any matter that shall be deemed irrelevant, unprofitable or contentious, and shall be decided without debate by majority vote. This applies only to the main motion.

43) Method of Voting – Voting shall be by voice vote and/or show of hands, or by standing count (provided that in such a count those who cannot stand may vote by raising hands), or by ballot, at the discretion of the Presiding Officer, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. It shall be in order for any member to call for a vote by count on any question before the Conference, and, if the call be sustained by one-third (1/3) of the members present and voting, a vote shall be taken as called for.

44) Robert's Rules of Order, Supplemental Authority – In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the Conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of the latest revision of Robert's Rules of Order.

Conference Advance Specials 2016-17

It is resolved that the 2016 Session of the Greater New Jersey Conference designate the following ministries and institutions as Conference Advance Specials for the 2017 conference year (without restricting in anyway a local church's ability to support other mission work);

It is further resolved that the Executive Committee of the Connectional Table be authorized to make any additions and deletions to the Conference Advance Specials list based upon recommendations of the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

Amistad (meaning Friendship) is an ecumenical ministry in the greater Freehold area seeking to assist Hispanic children and their families through educational, nutritional and spiritual programs. They assist children from The Learning Center and Park Avenue schools. These are Spanish-origin students mostly from Mexican families. They provide volunteers, adults and students from area high schools, to help the children with their homework, reading and educational games. They also use the computers. Most students are kindergarten, first and second graders with a few from third and fourth grades. Before they start their homework they have a snack. There are also reading prizes. A Christmas party is held for the kids and their families with gifts for children. There are 52 children registered with 35 volunteers.

C.A.M.P. YDP (Community Association with a Ministry to People Youth Development Program) provides pre-school, after-school and summer programs for children aged 2 ½ - 13 and their families, mainly on the north side of Paterson. The program runs throughout the year. They are committed to work as a "partner" within the community. A stimulating and nurturing environment is provided. Total care is available as well when schools are not in session with transportation available to pick up children from certain schools.

Centenary Fund/Preachers Aid Fund supports retired clergy and spouses.

Christian Outreach Project provides no-cost home repairs to persons in need in the northwest area of our Conference. Participants are made up of high school youth and adult volunteers. In addition to home repairs, participants engage in morning devotionals, singing, worship services and recreational activities.

CUMAC/ECHO works to alleviate hunger and its root causes for those in need in Paterson, Passaic County and northern NJ. CUMAC has a pantry feeding 3,000+ monthly. The Depot warehouses over two million pounds of food annually for a network of about 40 partner feeding programs. This Community Food Coalition (CFC) distributes food while also screening clients for member pantries. They advocate at the local and state level on behalf of CFC clients. CUMAC also has a Community Closet that offers clothing & household items; Pathways to Work that imparts job skills and hands-on experience; Place of Promise that is a supportive housing program for chronically homeless individuals; and seasonal projects for school supplies, holiday gifts and other items for area children in need. All of the programs rely heavily on volunteers and financial support from the community.

C.U.M.I. Camden Urban Ministry Initiative, a cooperative After-School Program is a shared ministry amongst Camden churches. This partnering reaches families to ensure positive development of children. They provide a safe environment for youth activities, such as an after school program, summer day camps, youth Bible study, choir and a career training program. There are arts and cultural activities for all ages. The exchange of stories, wisdom, advice, and experience build a shared understanding of family and community. This church-based intergenerational community surrounds youth with caring Christian adults who encourage, support, and pray for them while also holding them accountable. C.U.M.I. is dedicated to the spiritual, emotional and social growth of Camden Youth.

First Friends of New Jersey and New York provides advocacy, research and social services to the detained and released detainees. First Friends provides a link to the outside world by providing toll free lines (English & Spanish) in five different detention facilities where more than 2000 individuals are detained and through visiting individuals in detention. The Pen-pal Program allows volunteers, who cannot visit to write to detainees.

The Neighborhood Center has served the Camden community since 1913. Today, they are a community center that provides a healthy and nutritious lunch six days a week, day care, an after school program, and an evening teen program. They focus on a two generation approach to lift families out of poverty. Their commitment is to provide a safe space for Academic achievement, Athletic accomplishment, and a flourishing Arts program. Their hope and vision for the next century of service is to create a "community living room."

The Pennington School is a college preparatory institution affiliated with the United Methodist Church which reflects the principles espoused by John Wesley and core values of honor, virtue, and humility. Students experience an environment where talents and values are forged for making a positive difference in the world. Half scholarships are available for students in grade 6 to 12.

GNJ Strategic Ministry Plan Midway Affirmation

Whereas the United Methodist of Greater New Jersey's strategic ministry plan is halfway toward its 2018 completion;

It is resolved that we thank God for our progress, celebrate the congregations and leadership for their work on the plan, and affirm its direction, strategy and resourcing as outlined below:

GNJ STRATEGIC MINISTRY PLAN

VISION - We see a church like Jesus Christ—radical spirit and humble, teaching and healing, soul saving and soul tending, leader and servant, unbound and outbound for mercy and justice.

We also see a Wesleyan Church—personal holiness and social holiness, connectional and risk taking, thoughtful and inspirational, small groups and large vision, welcoming all and respectful of all.

MISSION – Recruit and develop transformational leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ and grow vital congregations to transform the world.

DISCIPLES are life-long learners and followers of Jesus Christ, leaving behind safety and complacency to serve like Christ to make new disciples, end poverty, be graceful with those at the margins, connect with people who are different from us, and magnify God's presence in the world. This type of disciple is shaped, encouraged, sent and supported through vital congregations.

VITAL CONGREGATIONS are inwardly transformed and missionally outbound. Vital congregations are Spirit-filled, forward leaning communities of believers that grow over time, welcome all people (Galatians 3:28); make disciples of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:18-20); and serve like Christ through justice and mercy ministries (Micah 6:8 and Luke 4:17-21). Vital congregations engage and shape disciples in five key ministries – worship, small groups, community mission, making new disciples and generous giving. Vital congregations transform the world.

TRANSFORMED WORLD is a place where congregations, communities and people are working together to end poverty, eradicate racism, practice good stewardship of God's creation, seek peace, and draw all people closer to God. This type of world is born through the Great Commandment, love God and your neighbor (Matthew 22). It begins with the church engaging its neighbors and working toward a peaceable kingdom as described throughout the scriptures. A transformed world, vital congregations and new disciples require transformational leaders.

TRANSFORMATIONAL LEADERS assess the gifts and needs of the congregation and community, set a courageous vision and goals, and inspire and equip the congregation to make new disciples, grow worship, grow disciples' faith through small groups, engage the congregation in life changing mission, and increase giving to mission and ministry (Ephesians 4:11- 12). Transformational Leaders have high expectations of themselves and for their congregations.

LEADERSHIP EXPECTATIONS include but are not limited to:

- 1) Connect and relate well with church leadership and membership and community residents, 2) Develop leaders within the congregation, 3) Lead the congregation to deeper faith and service in the world, 4) Increase vitality through inspiring worship and relevant messages, attracting and making new disciples, and engaging disciples in small groups, community hands-on mission and generous giving, 5) Raise sufficient funds for community and world mission, ongoing congregational ministry, shared ministries, and salary and benefits.

CONGREGATIONAL EXPECTATIONS include but are not limited to:

- 1) Connect with and welcome all people in the community, 2) Engage passionately and grow in the five key ministries of a vital congregation, 3) Create an environment for risk taking and innovation, 4) Support the growth and development of transformational leaders and radical disciples, and 5) Share generously including 100% of shared ministry and billables.

GNJ EXPECTATIONS – To achieve our vision and mission, GNJ is compelled to shift how it thinks and carries out its ministry. These shifts include:

1. From managing clergy and congregations to being in relationship with clergy and congregations.
2. From Conference programming to Conference resourcing leaders and local congregations.
3. From telling clergy and congregations what to do to supporting clergy and congregations to innovate and create how they will make disciples, grow vitality and transform the world in their context.

Therefore GNJ will focus on recruiting and resourcing transformational leaders to make disciples and grow vital congregations to transform the world.

GNJ RESOURCES congregations and transformational leaders that are ready and desire to become vital and more like Christ. Our primary resources are coaching, PaCE and Laity Pursuing Excellence groups, Team Vital, and Communities of Hope. These resources come alongside and center leaders and congregations in their calling, help them assess their present gifts and challenges and set a vision, create a ministry action plan and provide support and technical assistance to achieve a God sized vision.

Fruitfulness, faithfulness and effectiveness will be evaluated each year.

GNJ EVALUATION includes three types of evaluations:

1. GNJ progress toward our vision, mission and developing vital congregations and its commitment to and quality of its resourcing leaders and congregations. This evaluation will be done in February and September and results will be reported to the annual conference session.
2. Congregational progress toward the five expectations will be evaluated every September and a report given and discussed at the charge conference.
3. Clergy's leadership in the areas of the five expectations will be conducted in April. This month is chosen so that it is not connected with salaries or appointments. The evaluation is a tool to help assess a pastor's progress and develop a plan for continued development.

GNJ GOALS

GNJ will grow from 14% to 41% vital congregations as it:

1. Increases the percentage of churches growing in worship attendance from 33% to 51%
2. Starts 90 new faith communities.
3. Decreases the number of worshipers it takes to make a new profession of faith from 17 to 15
4. Increases the percentage of worshipers in small groups from 43% to 75%
5. Increases the number of young adults in small groups from 2820 to 3200
6. Increases our racial ethnic worshipers from 20% to 25%
7. Increases the percentage of worshipers engaged in mission from 8% to 40%
8. Increases local church dollars spent on mission 15% to 17%
9. Raises $12 million through a mission campaign

We believe accomplishing these goals will bear fruitful outcomes that include transformational leadership, radical discipleship, vital congregations, and a transformed world as described above – all for the glory of God.

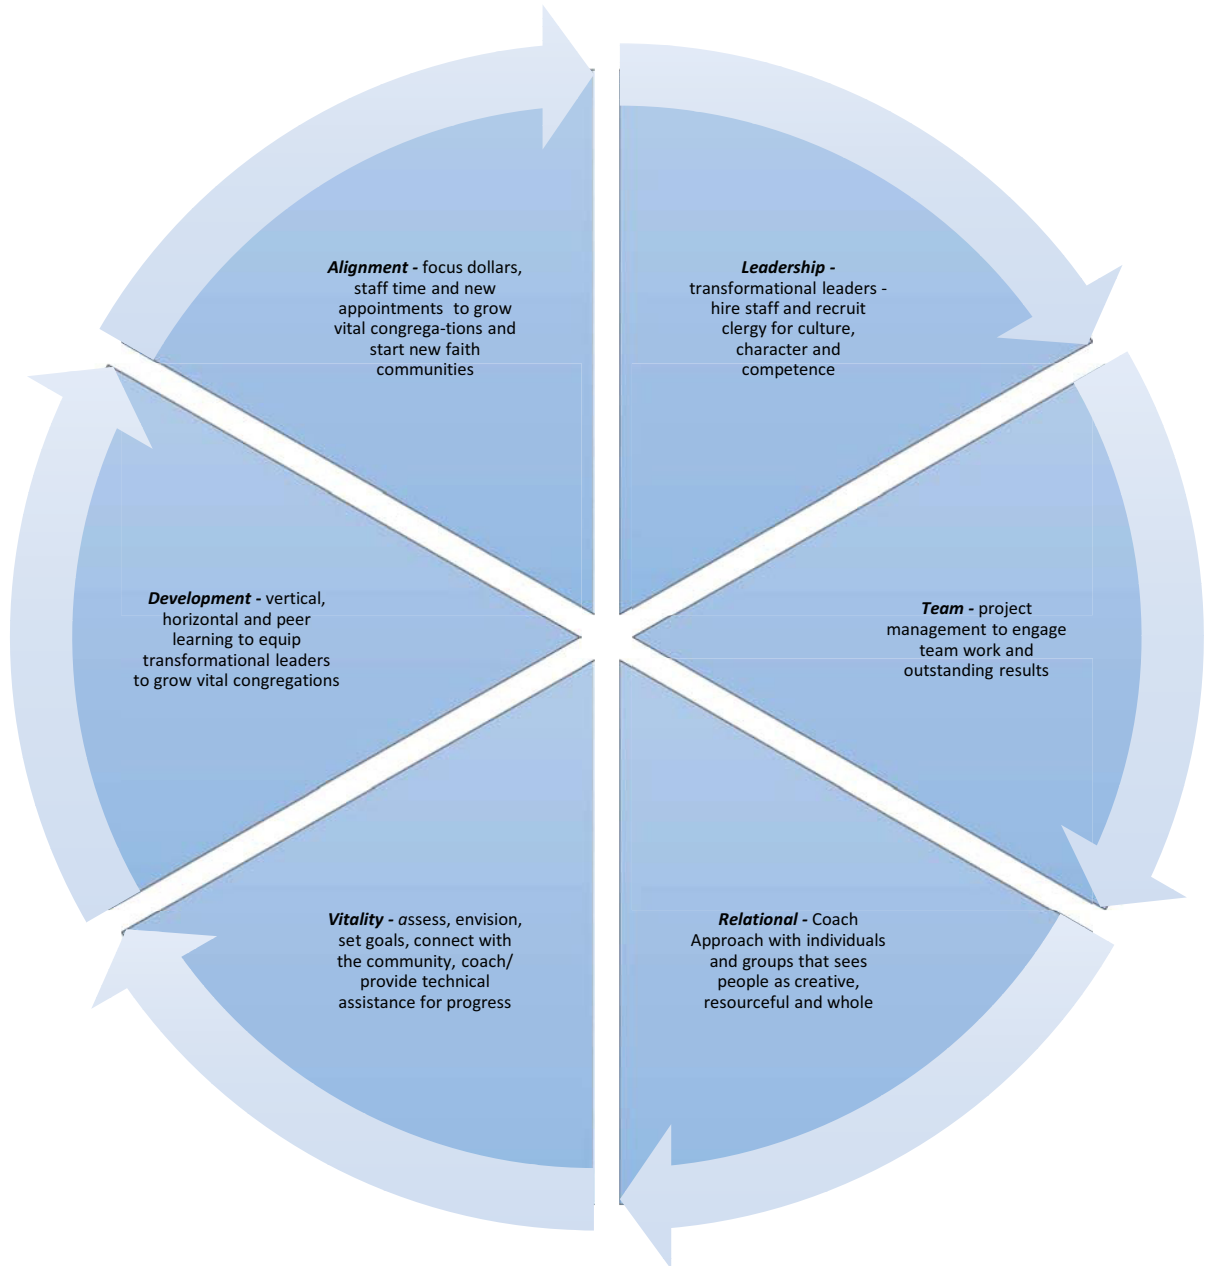

RECOMMENDATIONS

The United Methodist Church of Greater New Jersey

We recruit and develop transformational leaders to make disciples and grow vital congregations to transform the world

The Path to Vitality

*The ministry of GNJ is to fulfill its mission -
Our mission is a spiritual mission that requires a journey toward health and vitality.
As the staff and GNJ leadership prayerfully and faithfully travel the Path to Vitality, we see more transformational leaders, disciples of Jesus Christ, and vital congregations transforming the world.*

Asbury United Methodist Church, Warren County, Historic Site

Whereas Asbury United Methodist Church holds a unique place in the history of Northwestern New Jersey as an important preaching site for Bishop Asbury and early Methodist circuit riders.

Whereas Asbury Methodists were the first to organize a class meeting in 1792 in the area and second to build a church. Bishop Asbury made his first visit to the site in the same year. His last visit came in 1811.

Whereas Asbury United Methodist Church is the place where the first town in the United States of America was named for the Bishop. The name change, from Hall's Mills to Asbury, took place in 1796 on the occasion of Bishop Asbury laying the cornerstone of the first Methodist church built in Northwestern New Jersey ("West Jersey Circuit"). The one acre land for the church was purchased for 15 pounds. Bishop Asbury was present for the event. He would return many times to preach and minister to Asbury Methodists.

Whereas Asbury United Methodist Church's most historically significant member was Colonel William McCullough, a Methodist layperson who arrived in Hall's Mills in 1784, whose friendship with Bishop Asbury began with Asbury's first visit in 1786 and who became the driving force behind the town's name change to Asbury. McCullough's impact extended far from the Methodist Episcopal Church as a legislator, judge and business man in the development of Asbury's industrial economy, and to the creation of both the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church and the Flanders Methodist Episcopal Church in Flanders, NJ.

Whereas Asbury United Methodist Church is part of the National Parks Service national registered historic places called Asbury Historic District. The designation recognizes Asbury Church as one of the significant 19th century architectural gems that make up the district.

Rationale: Asbury United Methodist Church has a special place in Northwestern New Jersey's Methodist past. Whether it was the first town in the nation to be named after Bishop Asbury, recognition of its classic 19th century style church architecture or Asbury's Church's continued witness for 230 years, Asbury's unique contribution to both New Jersey Methodism and Warren and Hunterdon counties society in its immediate parish area places Asbury as a treasure amongst Greater New Jersey United Methodism.

Therefore be it resolved that as one of the most unique and influential larger circuits in early Northwestern New Jersey, Asbury be recognized by this body as a Greater New Jersey Annual Conference Historic Site.

Drew Theological School Historic Site

Whereas Drew Theological School has had a profound effect on the history of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference, United Methodism and the world Methodist movement and its alumni are trained in a leadership style that is spiritually transformative, rooted in social justice and nurtures healing ministries.

Whereas Drew Theological School became United Methodism's first solely post-baccalaureate seminary, the first such school created by General Conference, initially offered free tuition (due to a founding gift given by Daniel Drew and his continued financial support for the seminary until his financial demise) and collected one of the greatest theological libraries in the world.

Whereas Drew Theological School has always maintained strong organizational ties to the New Jersey Conferences, from its original embrace as the "Conference Seminary" of the Newark Annual Conference, from hosting a total of thirty-six Newark and Northern New Jersey Annual Conference sessions on its grounds between 1949 to 1998 and from seating the Resident Bishop of the New Jersey Episcopal Area on its Board of Trustees throughout the seminary's and later university's history.

Whereas Drew Theological School has provided a premier faculty to train future church leaders, which included those professors who would become known as The Great Five: Henry Anson Buttz, John Miley, George Richard Crooks, Samuel Foster Upham and James Strong, and also many other New Jersey Methodists, who would serve on the faculty with great distinction through the school's history. Buttz exemplified these New Jersey faculty connections, as he served as pastor of several small congregations within the Newark Annual Conference, and also the Morristown Methodist Church, before becoming a Drew professor and seminary president, who served the institution for over fifty years.

Whereas Drew Theological School has faithfully served the conference by preparing New Jersey Methodist students for lay and ordained ministry throughout its history. Three Methodist students from New Jersey (George Miller of Warrenville, Charles Coit Cokefair of Bloomfield and Grover Ruckman of New Providence) were members of the Theological School's first class in 1867.

Whereas notable New Jersey Drew graduates have included such ministers as William Warren Sweet (Class of 1906), Boston University president and historian; Elbert M. Conover (Class of 1913), Methodist Episcopal minister and the denomination's inspirational neo-gothic church architect; plus missionary Maud Keister Jensen (Classes of 1943, 1945 and 1978), who was the first woman ordained in the Methodist Church.

Whereas Drew Theological School also became the first seminary to accept women in a full Bachelor of Divinity Degree program in the fall of 1919, was the first seminary to create a faculty spot for a Christian sociologist following the adoption of the Social Creed by General Conference, and has graduated more Methodist bishops than any other United Methodist seminary.

Rationale: Drew Theological School's place in the history of New Jersey United Methodism cannot be overstated. From its inception Drew has trained Methodist leaders for our annual conference and those around the world. Because of its commitment to high quality faculty and dedication to the denomination's mission, Drew has led the way in making United Methodism strong in its diversity and committed to deep spirituality with social justice, which has made the seminary a light unto the nations by which New Jersey Methodists continue to directly benefit in its local churches, mission projects and surrounding communities. The unique role and place Drew Theological School in New Jersey Methodism is unquestioned.

It is further resolved that the Theological School at Drew University be recognized by the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference as one of its historic sites.

ADOPTED BY THE GREATER NEW JERSEY ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN SESSION ON MAY 23, 2016

Franklin-St. John United Methodist Church Historic Site

Whereas Franklin-St. John United Methodist Church has led the way in the spiritual well-being of Newark's Methodist African American community since 1869-1870, when it was known as St. John Methodist Episcopal Church.

Whereas St. John Methodist Episcopal Church started out as a mission in Newark sometime around 1869 or 1870 and by 1872 had become the first organized African American church under appointment in the Newark Annual Conference (St. John's did not transfer to the historic Delaware Annual Conference until 1893).

Whereas St. John Methodist Episcopal Church's first pastor, The Reverend John L. H. Sweres, became the first African American minister admitted to the Newark Annual Conference. Sweres transferred to the Newark Conference from the North-German Annual Conference, where he was admitted on trial in 1871, and he transferred to the historic Lexington Annual Conference in 1873.

Whereas St. John Methodist Episcopal Church quickly planted two other successful African American churches, St. John's in Orange (1879) and St. Mark's in Montclair (1881) and, together, St. John and its successive church plants in Orange and Montclair would make up three of the original five African American congregations in the Newark Annual Conference.

Rationale: Franklin-St. John United Methodist Church played an important role in breaking the color barrier in the former Newark Annual Conference. The Rev. Theodore Booth, Senior Pastor, and the Reverend Ruth Brown Higgins, Assistant Pastor, successfully navigated a, sometimes contentious, church merger between St John (and African American congregation) and Franklin Memorial (an Anglo congregation) in or about 1971. Many future African American Methodist leaders within the denomination would occupy St. John's pulpit. For 144 years, Franklin-St. John United Methodist Church stands as a testimony to United Methodism's witness for the people of Newark by serving its African American constituency with holy piety and social justice. The church, through its various pastors, has shaped African American United Methodist leadership to what it is to this day.

It is further resolved that Franklin-St. John United Methodist Church and the leadership it supplied be recognized by the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference as one of its historic sites.

Colonel William McCullough House, Warren County, Historic Site

Whereas McCullough House provided shelter for many illustrative early circuit riders such as Bishop Francis Asbury, Martin Boehm, Ezekiel Cooper and others, served as a venue for those circuit riders to preach in and hold quarterly meetings in the barn and was the place where Northwestern New Jersey Methodist laity met who helped create the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, the first church built solely by Methodists in Northwestern, New Jersey.

Whereas Colonel William McCullough (1759-1840) proved to be one of the most faithful and fruitful Methodist laypersons in Northern New Jersey. McCullough served in the Revolutionary War, where he became close friends with the Generals Washington and Lafayette. Later he served as a state legislator, county judge and owner of a number mills in the Asbury area. McCullough was converted by the preaching of Ezekiel Cooper at Schooley's Mountain in 1786. The Colonel would spend the next fifty-four years in dedicated service to the Methodist Episcopal Church in Northern New Jersey in both time and money. Bishop Asbury knew of McCullough's commitment to Methodism long before they would meet in person.

Whereas William McCullough was one of the original members of the first Methodist class meeting by whose house they would meet.

Whereas McCullough became the driving force to change the name of Hall's Mills to Asbury in order to honor his good friend and frequent guest.

Whereas the McCullough house, with its original kitchen and barn still standing, are the only known surviving structures where Bishop Asbury preached and taught in Northern New Jersey.

Rationale: The McCullough House stands as an enduring testament to the commitment and faith of one of Northern New Jersey's most influential laypersons – Colonel William McCullough. The structures on the property are one of the few places still in active use as a family home that can boast hosting prominent early Methodist circuit riders such as Bishop Asbury, Ezekiel Cooper and Martin Boehm. McCullough House became the fulcrum point for Methodism's success throughout Northwestern New Jersey. It is rare to be able to honor a dedicated lay person's dwelling whose influence and deeds did much for New Jersey Methodism and whose buildings remind us that we are direct heirs to the work of Colonel William McCullough for the Methodist cause during its formative years and well into the mid-19th century.

It is further resolved that the McCullough House and Barn be recognized as a Greater New Jersey Annual Conference Historic Site.

United Methodist Church of Morristown Historic Site

Whereas the Morristown United Methodist Church's has played a vital role in the spiritual well-being in Morristown and surrounding areas in Northern New Jersey, served a central role in the Newark Annual Conference and provided notable leadership in the fields of education and publishing within the larger American Methodist landscape.

Whereas Morristown Methodists were first visited by Bishop Francis Asbury and Henry Boehm in 1811 and by 1815, regular class meetings and preaching services were held in the Samuel Bonsell home, Morristown's most prominent layperson at that time.

Whereas Morristown Methodist Episcopal Church organized its first permanent society in 1825 and built the first church structure two years later. The church continued to grow and is remembered for two famous revivals in 1828 and 1836. Both of these revivals would last for many weeks making Methodism a mainstay in the bustling town.

Whereas Morristown Methodist Episcopal Church hosted the first session of the Newark Annual Conference in 1858, held subsequent sessions in 1871, 1892, 1907 and 1957, where church members housed all the delegates for each meeting.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Whereas Morristown church had pastors and laypersons in the congregation who became nationally recognized leaders of our denomination. These American Methodist leaders with ties to the Morristown church include, but are not limited to: George P. Eckman, Christian Advocate editor; George T. Cobb, mid-19th century United States Congressman; James M. Buckley, Christian Advocate Editor; Henry Anson Buttz, President of Drew Theological Seminary and eight time delegate to General Conference; Jesse Lyman Hulbert, Executive Secretary of the national Sunday School Department and editor of its publications.

Rationale Morristown United Methodist Church played an important role in the development and ministry of the former Newark Annual Conference. Further, its pastors and laypersons also helped to shape and guide the denomination in many important ways that are still felt today through their contributions to education and publishing within the larger American Methodist landscape.

It is further resolved that the role Morristown United Methodist Church in the history of Morris County, Northern New Jersey and national United Methodism throughout its storied ministry deserves to be recognized by the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference as one of its historic sites.

Shared Ministry Apportionment Formula

(Impact on the Conference Budget)

Whereas at the Annual Session of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference in 2010, a new formula for allocating the expenses of the Annual Conference was approved.

Whereas that formula was to be used beginning in 2011.

Whereas the formula would have made substantial changes in the amount billed to many individual local churches.

Whereas the Annual Conference wanted to moderate the effects of the change in local church's askings due to the formula change.

Whereas the Annual Conference authorized a system of caps on changes in local church Shared Ministry askings.

Whereas nearly all churches reached equilibrium with the new formula by the end of 2015.

Whereas Shared Ministry askings were calculated for 2016 in accord with the previously approved formula.

It is further resolved that in 2017 Shared Ministry askings shall be calculated in accord with the previously approved formula.

Rationale: Since 2016 askings were in accord with the previously approved formula, there is no reason to not do the same for 2017.

Pension Recommendations

It is resolved that the Past Service Annuity Rate for January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017 be set at $658 per approved service year prior to January 1, 1982.

It is resolved:

1. That effective January 1, 2017, the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference will continue to sponsor CRSP for full-time, three-quarter time, and one-half time clergy and continue to sponsor UMPIP for those clergy in one-quarter time appointments.
2. That contributions for January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017 for the Clergy Retirement Security Program for full-time and less-than-full-time (¼-time & ½-time) clergy, and for Conference sponsored UMPIP Plan for ¼-time clergy, be set at 12.5% of plan compensation.
3. That contributions for January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017 for the Comprehensive Protection Plan be set at 3% of plan compensation for full-time and ¾-time ordained clergy, and for Conference Sponsored UMLife Options for ½-time ordained clergy to be set based on an age-based premium. That local churches may sponsor ¼-time ordained clergy and ¾-time part-time local pastors in UMLife Options.
4. That the starting date for retirement payments for new retirees commences July 1, 2016, unless otherwise stated.
5. That grants approved in lieu of pension to Bernard Shropshire are continued through 2017.
 - a). That the following members of the former Southern Conference be grand-parented in terms of eligibility for conference-paid health benefits. Specifically, the following persons, upon becoming annuitants with at least 10 years of service, will be eligible for Conference-paid health benefits: Edward F. Conway, Ruth Propert Taenzer, Jae Jeong Shim, Mildred E. Bender, Charles H. Mayer, J. Evans Dodds, Eileen Murphy, Nicholas Connolly, Daniel Gueh, Renee L. McCleary, William R. Hess, Frances B. Ballinger and Charles D. Mitchell.
 - b). That Robert L. Webster and family be eligible for Conference-paid health benefits upon retirement and receiving an annuity.

RECOMMENDATIONS

6. That Rev. Patricia Bruger's actual years of appointment and service at CUMAC/ECHO, INC. from June 16, 1995 through retirement be fully credited for the purpose of calculation of service year credits to determine allocation of pro-rated health insurance premium payment responsibility upon retirement.

That the following clergy be grand-parented to five years "under appointment through the Conference immediately prior to retirement" to meet eligibility requirements for health benefits in retirement, rather than the seven years as approved at the 2011 annual conference meeting (Paragraph 3 under Eligibility, p. 365 of the 2011 Conference Journal). Specifically, the following persons, if, at the time of retirement, meet all other eligibility requirements for health insurance in retirement, shall be grand-parented under this provision: Rev. Vena Murphy, Rev. William Jacobsen, Rev. Christina Zito and Rev. Sherrie Dobbs Johnson.

That clergy participants in the Conference Health Insurance Plan who have expenses associated with the adoption of a child will be reimbursed up to $10,000 per child upon the presentation of the necessary documentation.

7. That the Greater NJ Annual Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

It is resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the period July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017, by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such clergyperson; and

That the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations there under, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

That clergy retiring before July 1, 2017 be reimbursed for one time moving expenses up to $5,000.00 incurred while moving from church-owned housing to personal housing. This reimbursement is limited to actual moving expenses, not to include moving company packing costs. The same benefits and restrictions shall also apply to a surviving spouse moving out of the parsonage upon the death of a pastor while in active service in the Annual Conference, and to those entering disabled relationships.

That the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits be authorized to make modifications to the current Insurance Plan as the health care market demands. In addition, modifications to the Plan that could reduce premium costs to local churches and Annual Conference are to be studied and enacted as the Board determines appropriate.

RECOMMENDATIONS

These changes might include increased participant deductibles, co-payments, greater use of generic medications, and other avenues of cost saving and sharing. Such changes will be subject to prior review of CFA and the Cabinet. That the Guidelines for Health Insurance Participation, below, be approved and upon approval printed in the 2016 Conference Journal and Yearbook.

PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS: 2016 HEALTH INSURANCE GUIDELINES

The mission of the Conference Health Insurance Plan (the Plan) is to provide primary health insurance coverage to full-time full, provisional, and associate ministerial members, and full-time local pastors of the Annual Conference and to eligible full-time lay employees.

The Plan provides secondary health insurance coverage for retirees who are receiving Medicare which requires both Medicare Parts A & B for coverage. For those who have retired early and are not yet eligible for Medicare, primary health insurance coverage is through the same plan as those in active ministry. The Plan is a non-vested current benefit for active and retired pastors and lay employees.

PREMIUM PAYMENT RESPONSIBILITY – PRE-ANNUITY RETIREES

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall establish rates of premiums for the participants, based upon the premiums charged by HealthFlex.

For those who have retired early and are not collecting an annuity, the retired enrollee is responsible for the full Active premium payment until they reach annuity age.

PREMIUM PAYMENT RESPONSIBILITY – ACTIVE

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall establish rates of premiums for the participants based upon the premiums charged by HealthFlex.

Unless it has already been stated above under Eligibility, the Conference shall pay the premiums for all enrolled active participants, lay or ministerial, from appropriate funds, except that:

- A. Each church shall pay the premium(s) or Waived Participation Fee(s) (which is equal to the blended premium) of each of its full-time appointed clergy (including clergy spouse and dependent children if enrolled) who are either a full, probationary or associate member of the Conference or a local pastor.
 - 1. The salary paying unit shall also be responsible for remitting premium for its lay employees who are enrolled in the Plan.
 - 2. Plan participants are to pay 2% of their cash salary to their own salary paying unit as their share of the premium the employer (church) pays on their behalf.

In the case of clergy couples the following will apply:

- a) Each spouse will contribute 1% of their salary to each salary paying unit that is paying health premium, regardless of percentage of health premium paid
- B. Each eligible enrollee, whose fees are not paid as provided above, shall pay his or her own premiums either directly or with employer participation. In every case, the individual enrollee is responsible for seeing that payment of his or her own premium is made if the party with PRIME responsibility fails to make the payment.

RECOMMENDATIONS

CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE AFTER CERTAIN EVENTS

- A. Voluntary and Involuntary Termination - If a person's participation in the Plan ceases due to voluntary or involuntary termination of Conference membership or employment or discharge or removal from the Annual Conference, Continuation Coverage for health insurance may be available through application to HealthFlex.
- B. Loss of Dependent Status - If a dependent's participation in the Plan ceases due to divorce or to attaining the limiting age, Continuation Coverage may be available through application to HealthFlex.
- C. Medical Leave - See #2 under Eligibility.
- D. Leave of Absence (§354 and §355) - Clergy placed on voluntary leave of absence (personal, family, or transitional) or involuntary leave of absence may continue in the Plan for a period of twelve months, provided they pay the premiums. Continuation Coverage for up to an additional 12 months may be available through application to HealthFlex. Leave of absence is not an appointment, causes a break in appointment years, and does not accrue annuity credit towards health benefits in retirement.
- E. Sabbatical Leave (§352) Clergy placed on sabbatical leave may continue in the Plan for a period of twelve months, provided they pay the premiums. Continuation coverage may be available through application to HealthFlex. Sabbatical leave is not a break in appointment years for the purposes of health benefits in retirement.
- F. Death - Surviving spouses of clergy members are subject to the same rules (see Eligibility Guidelines #1 and 3) as the clergy member. Surviving spouses of lay employees of the Conference and District offices are subject to the same rules (see Eligibility Guideline #4 c) as the lay employee.

ADMINISTRATION

All concerns, issues, requests, etc., relating to premiums, benefits, coverage (including voluntary termination of coverage, additions or deletions to policies) and benefits at retirement must be "in writing" from the Plan participant to be considered official. Such correspondence, concerns, or requests for changes in coverage must be sent to the Plan Administrator or his/her designated coordinator. Commitments or resolutions of issues must come in writing directly from the Plan Administrator or his/her designated coordinator.

The Benefits Officer and Administrator for the Conference Plan is the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services. The Benefits Officer shall be a member of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits without a vote. He/she shall be responsible for promptly enrolling all eligible persons, for collecting all amounts due from churches, agencies or individuals for participation in the Plan, for arranging for their prompt deposit in a Conference account, for checking all billings from the Insurance Carrier to certify their completeness and accuracy and for making proper remittances on schedule for the Plan; and such Officer shall delete from the Plan any enrollee whose premium is not paid by the end of the month for which the premium is due. Termination is effective the first day of the month for which no payment has been received.

Clergy Equitable Compensation

(Impact on the Conference Budget)

It is resolved that the Annual Conference adopt the following recommendation for minimum salary for persons under full-time appointment in the local church effective January 1, 2017:

- | | |
|--|----------|
| a) Elder and Deacon in Full Connection | $43,520 |
| b) Provisional & Associate Members (92%) | $40,038 |
| c) Full time Local Pastor (87%) | $37,862 |

Any changes in clergy minimum salaries related to a change of clergy status through ordination, commissioning or licensing in 2016 will become effective as of January 1, 2017.

There will be a $300 minimum increment in the base salary of each year of full-time service under appointment by the Greater NJ Annual Conference (or its predecessor conferences) up to 15 years. This applies to clergy (elder, provisional elder, provisional deacon, deacon in full connection, associate member, and local pastor) serving in full-time appointments. The years of service record for each clergy is based on the Service Record by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and it does not include part time appointments or a time of leave of absence.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The minimum equitable salary for $\frac{3}{4}$ time pastoral appointments shall be $\frac{3}{4}$ of the required minimum in the pastor's salary. And the minimum equitable salary for $\frac{1}{2}$ time pastoral appointments shall be $\frac{1}{2}$ of the required minimum. All appointments less than $\frac{1}{2}$ shall be considered $\frac{1}{4}$ time appointments for pension purposes and the salaries shall be determined by the district superintendent in consultation with the pastor and the local church.

Each pastor's salary above the minimum equitable salary is determined by the local church or by the charge in consultation with the district superintendent. Each Pastor (Staff) Parish Relations Committee takes into consideration the pastor's experience, education, leadership, health and dental insurance coverage, social security, and family needs.

All full-time pastors shall be provided with a parsonage or a housing/rental allowance as part of their compensation package.

All full-time pastors shall have an accountable reimbursement expense line item in the church budget to cover mileage for pastoral work, continuing education, and other professional ministerial expenses as allowed by the IRS. This reimbursable amount shall be at least $2,500. For the churches that are receiving Equitable Compensation support, their accountable reimbursement expense line should not exceed $2,500.

All full-time pastors shall be entitled to receive the following vacation per appointment year:

Minimum 4 weeks of vacation for the first 10 years of full-time service, after that it is 5 weeks.

Vacation time shall not be cumulative from year to year. Local churches may not consider time spent in leadership responsibilities in conference activities as vacation time. This includes Course of Study, Local Pastors Licensing School, Camps, Annual Conference-related Ministries, and other education and renewal as required by The Book of Discipline (§350.2).

Standards for Parsonages July 2016

(Impact on the Conference Budget)

It is resolved that the following recommendation be adopted as the parsonage standards for the GNJUMC effective July 2, 2016:

Responsible Group in the Local Church

The Book of Discipline does not mandate a parsonage committee however, it is strongly recommends that each local church charge conference form a parsonage committee. The committee will follow-up to assure timely resolution of parsonage problems affecting the health of the pastor or pastor's family. The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance. (§ 258.2 g (16) and ¶ 2532.4)

Standards for Parsonage (Existing Parsonages)

For existing parsonages, each local charge shall provide and maintain the following furnishings:

1. Living room and family room furniture.
2. Dining room furniture.
3. Kitchen, including stove, refrigerator with separate freezer compartment, exhaust fan, and dishwasher.
4. Laundry equipment – automatic washer and dryer.
5. Standard cable television connection or equivalent, high speed internet service, and one telephone line (cell or land line). Where possible consider bundling the services.
6. Floor coverings, solid services are preferred.
7. Window shades and blinds, or curtains and drapes, functioning.
8. One fire extinguisher in kitchen and one extinguisher outside of the furnace room. There shall be at least one extinguisher per floor level. All fire extinguishers should be in compliance with local code requirements for rental properties.
9. Smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in compliance with local code requirements for rental properties.
10. Closets or free standing storage units in each bedroom.
11. Drives and walks should be hard surfaced.
12. Minimally acceptable outside lighting.
13. Trash cans. In municipalities where garbage pickup is not part of the tax base and is billed to the parsonage, that local churches pay for this service.
14. Lawn mower and snow removal equipment (shovel or snow blower, appropriate to the need), or appropriate service, the cost of which will be determined by mutual agreement between the pastor and the Board of Trustees.

RECOMMENDATIONS

15. A study for the pastor in either the parsonage or church building. Office furnishing shall include a desk, desk chair, minimally acceptable shelving for the pastor's library, additional chairs, and a locking filing cabinet.
16. Furnishings for special rooms such as sun porch, den, etc., that may be different from one charge to another.
17. Parsonage electrical service shall conform to the current National Electrical Code.
18. Parking space for a minimum of one (1) car shall be provided.
19. Each charge shall decide if it will provide a security/alarm system.
20. Septic and sewer system shall be fully functional to meet the needs of parsonage family

Additional Suggestions

1. Electrical service to be inspected every five (5) years by a licensed electrician.
2. Roof inspection every five (5) years.
3. Energy Audit every five (5) years.

Standards for Parsonages (Purchasing or Building a New Parsonage)

All newly constructed or newly purchased parsonages shall be in full compliance with the dictates of the Book of Discipline. Consideration shall be made for those with handicapping conditions:

Provide on the ground-floor of a newly constructed parsonage: (1) one room that can be used as a bedroom by a person with a disability; (2) a fully accessible bathroom; and (3) fully accessible laundry facilities (¶2544.4d)

1. Option One

- a) The use of maintenance-free materials in building and in finishing and furnishing. These contribute to keeping maintenance costs lower.
- b) The following room requirements:
 - (a) Living Room/Family Room
 - (b) Dining Room
 - (c) Kitchen
 - (d) Study
 - (e) Baths (2)
 - (f) Bedrooms (3)
- c) A minimum electrical service of 200 amperes.
- d) A garage of a size to accommodate 2 cars, plus room for storage of lawn mowers, bicycles, tools, garden equipment, ladders, paint supplies, etc.
- e) Space to store large articles of furniture and equipment.
- f) The use of materials meeting the most energy efficient standards for insulation and windows.
- g) Careful consideration should be given in choosing the location of the parsonage. This consideration might include the distance from the church, accessibility from main streets of the community and the church, the neighborhood and its future, and the community itself and its future growth.

2. Option Two

- a) The standards of Option One would apply with consideration by the church of purchasing, leasing, renting a townhouse or condominium. This option would be negotiated by the district superintendent, the local charge and the pastor following consultation with the District Committee on Church Location and Building.
- b) The purpose of this option is to provide an alternative to the "traditional" church parsonage for ministry in special situations. Allowing for the wide variety of townhouse/condo choices, it is difficult to recommend a standard for such a setting.

Responsibility

1. Each pastor is responsible for:

- a) Furnishings for as many bedrooms as the family needs.
- b) Personal items such as television, vacuum cleaner, small appliances, dishes, glassware, flatware, cleaning tools, wastebaskets, and decorative accessories.
- c) The following regular maintenance:
 - (1) Floor maintenance
 - (2) Trash disposal and recycling
- d) It is expected that the pastor shall provide minimally acceptable tenant (renters) insurance.
- e) Restitution for any damage beyond normal wear and tear.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- f) Exiting pastor shall remove all personal items and furniture from the parsonage and property and leave in a “broom clean” state.

2. Each charge shall provide:

- a) Utilities – heat, electricity, gas/oil, water, sewage, and basic non-personal telephone services.
- b) Maintenance for all parsonage equipment.
- c) Basic furniture for all rooms except the bedrooms.
- d) Funds for the repair of the parsonage and its maintenance should be allocated and allowed to accumulate so that continuing care and major repairs can be made when needed.

Miscellaneous

1. We recommend that, in addition to the required written reports filed annually with the Annual Conference, there be a complete video inventory of all church-owned furnishings in the parsonage. The inventory shall be maintained and kept current.
2. It should be the responsibility of the Parsonage Committee to become acquainted with the parsonage and, after a new pastoral appointment, meet with the parsonage family to discuss the minimum acceptability of housing and furnishings, and to meet annually thereafter with the parsonage family.
3. During the transition of pastoral appointment – the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee Chair, the exiting pastor, the new pastor and the Board of Trustee Chair will walk through the parsonage together for inspection and planning. It is recommended to utilize the Church Conference Parsonage inspection report for this walk through.
4. The right of the pastor to own furniture and equipment cannot be challenged. However, if s/he does own furniture and goods that s/he wishes to use in the parsonage, and parsonage furniture has to be stored, s/he should make every effort to store it properly so it is in good condition and does not suffer damage from being stored. The site or method of storage for any church owned furniture shall be determined by mutual agreement between the pastor and the Board of Trustees.–The pastor assumes financial responsibility for the storage of any unused furniture.
5. The parsonage is the pastor’s for his/her tenure in that church or charge. S/he has therefore the responsibility to care for the furniture to protect it from damage by pets or children and, if it is damaged, to return it to a condition equal to that when s/he received it to use. If an item of furniture is damaged beyond repair, s/he is obligated to replace it.
6. In order to respect the privacy of clergy and his/her family, the church has responsibility to make an appointment and secure the approval of the pastor or an adult member of the household, prior to visiting the parsonage at any time.

Appeals

Appeals by the churches or pastors should be made to the district superintendent as the final authority to interpret and implement the foregoing standards.

Annual Conference Journal Digital Publication

(Impact on the Conference Budget)

Rationale: Greater New Jersey currently publishes the annual conference journal in CD format for all members of the conference and makes print copies available at a minimal cost upon request. This practice was an important step several years ago in adapting to changes in digital technology and cost saving, as the expense of printing was increasing and the use of computers was becoming more universal. As we continue to adapt to the use of emerging technology as a means of effective communication and reducing unnecessary costs, the production and mailing of CD's is no longer practical, or cost effective. Publishing the journal online through the newly redesigned conference website, while keeping the print option available, is both the most practical and cost effective method of making the journal available to the conference.

Whereas the annual conference currently publishes the conference journal in CD format, which is distributed to each member of the annual conference at a production cost of $4,500, a set up cost of $795 and a postage cost of $1,379.18,

Whereas each member of the annual conference currently receives a CD copy of the conference journal, whether they have the technology to use CD's, or not,

Whereas many new laptop computers and tablet devices do not have the capability to read CD's without an extra adaptor, making them quickly obsolete in favor of online content and other digital file formats,

Therefore, it is resolved that the Annual Conference Journal of the Greater New Jersey Conference of the United Methodist Church be available to all members in two formats:

- a. A hard copy printed journal will be produced and available to all members upon request. A minimum fee for production and mailing costs will be assessed to each hard copy journal request. The amount to be paid for the journal will be publicized in advance. Retirees will receive a print copy of the journal free of charge by request.
- b. An online version of the journal will be available on www.gnjumc.org and available for download and review.

It is further resolved that the conference journal will no longer be produced in CD format and mailed to each member, saving the annual conference $6,674.18 per year.

Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan, 2017

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to the General Board of Pension and Health benefits for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBPHB). This summary document is only a portion of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan. As such, it might not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the benefit obligations of the conference. You may request the full contents of the 2017 comprehensive benefit funding plan from your conference benefit office.

It is resolved that the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference adopts the 2017 comprehensive funding plan below: (Note: The funding plan was submitted to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBOPHB) on February 25, 2016 to fulfill Disciplinary requirements listed in ¶1506.6. It received a favorable opinion on March 4, 2016.

Following is the summary of the Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (CBFP) that received a favorable written opinion from GBPHB for the 2017 conference benefit obligations:

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre-82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982. CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2015 is $1.271 billion, while total plan assets are $1.407 billion, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 111%. The Greater New Jersey Conference portion of the liability is 1.9515% and the 2017 contribution is $2,031,675. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by Surplus Redirection from their Pre82 surplus. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three-quarter and/or half-time clergy. The Greater New Jersey Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2017.

Effective January 1, 2014 the CRSP-DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non-matching contribution. Clergy have the opportunity to earn up to an additional 1% CRSP-DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3%, which is unchanged from 2013. The 2017 CRSP-DC contribution is anticipated to be $460,200 and will be funded by CRSP DC Billings to Local Churches – representing year over year in how contributions are to be funded.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan overview:

RECOMMENDATIONS

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. Effective January 1, 2014, exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, into an IRA or another qualified plan, or it may be paid out as a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2015 is $3.122 billion, while total plan assets are $3.509 billion, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 112% and no required contribution for 2017. The Greater New Jersey Conference's % of the total liability is 1.8980%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.145 billion and the Greater New Jersey Conference's portion of that balance is $77,563,085 or 1.87% of the total.

PRE-1982 PLAN

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-1982 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-1982 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergy person retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors: 1) years of service with pension credit and 2) the Conference pension rate. Years of service with pension credit are approved by each Conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline. The pension rate, also called the Past Service Rate (PSR), is the dollar amount chosen by the Conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit. The pension rate may change from year to year. The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-1982 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-1982 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:

The 2017 PSR recommended to the Greater New Jersey Conference will be $658.00, representing a 1.86% increase from the 2016 rate. The conference expects future increases to be approximately 2.00%, which is based on the following rationale: Be consistent with Annual Cost of living increases.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 75% level.

Based on the final actuarial valuations from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as of January 1, 2015 for 2017, the portion of the Pre-1982 liability and assets attributable to the Greater New Jersey Conference and its related funded status are as follows:

Funding Plan Liability	$42,579,308

Current funding plan information:

The conference's expectation for 2017 is to offer the following benefits: Clergy eligible annuitants with 20 years service or laity 20 years employment receive 100% retiree healthcare benefits. Less than 20 years receive prorated benefits.

The funding obligation for 2017 is anticipated to be $3,146,000 with the following funding sources: Pre-82 Redirection, conf. & participant contributions.

Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated 12/31/2014, the following is the funded position of the post-retirement medical benefits:

1. Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) or net conference cost	Not Provided
2. Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) or net conference cost	$51,687,699

As a preview of the 2018 CBFP requirement, a new PRM Funding Contribution requirement will be mandatory for conferences requesting a full favorable CBFP opinion. This year the calculation for informational purposes only is as follows:

5. Unfunded APBO, [2. – 3.]	$33,891,569
6. Number of Annual Payments	15

These values are based on a 5.0% long term discount rate, a 5.0% long-term expected rate of return, and a current increase trend of 7.60% with an ultimate medical increase of 5.0%, beginning in 2020.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

Plan Overview:

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if the conference or salary-paying unit sponsors the plan and they are able to satisfy the eligibility requirements which include full-time appointment with plan compensation equal to or greater than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) or the Conference Average Compensation (CAC), whichever is less.

Current funding plan information:

The Greater New Jersey Conference has made the following elections: 95% of appointed clergy have mandatory participation under special arrangements, while 5% of appointed clergy have optional participation under special arrangements.

RECOMMENDATIONS

For 2017, the Greater New Jersey Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $749,300, which is anticipated to be funded by: Direct billings to Local Churches. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 2.50% per year as a result of: The conference has a strategic plan where the Bishop and Appointment Cabinet are transitioning Local Churches to become Vital Congregations. One step of that is to increase clergy salaries which in turn increase plan obligations.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

Plan Overview:

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:

Conference office lay employees working an average of 30 hours per week or more are eligible on day of hire for a plan sponsor funded pension contribution of 6% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The estimated contribution for the Greater New Jersey Conference is anticipated to be $68,900 and will be funded via Local Church Shared Ministry.

The Greater New Jersey Conference, as of January 1, 2017 is planning on sponsoring the UMPIP for clergy serving one quarter - time and are eligible for a pension contribution of 12% of salary. The estimated contribution for the Conference is anticipated to be $68,900 and will be funded via Direct billing to local Churches.

OTHER CONFERENCE BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) TYPE

Plan Overview: The Greater New Jersey Conference currently offers the following DC benefit(s): UNUM Life Options. The funding obligation for 2017 is anticipated to be $12,800 with the funding sources to be: Local Church Shared ministry. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 2.5% per year due to: Compensation increases.

CONCLUSION

The 2017 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and the above Summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Greater New Jersey Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Greater New Jersey Conference.

See 2017 Comprehensive Funding Plan in Appendix A.

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Have you ever looked into a kaleidoscope in a dimly lit room? Not very fascinating or inspiring. But then you hold it up to the light and the colors and shapes came alive. Imagination is having enough light to see God's unfolding story for the church in all of its hues and shapes. That light is the light of Jesus Christ, illuminating our way to a future with hope.

In 2013, together through our strategic ministry plan, we imagined a God-sized future for The United Methodist Church of Greater New Jersey and God has not disappointed us. This vision and strategic ministry plan are rooted and growing in our congregations. All across the conference, congregations are going deeper and further to develop worship, small groups, mission engagement, making new disciples and generous giving.

Morristown UMC is an example of who we are becoming in GNJ and how vital congregations are pursuing God's call. Morristown has a rich tradition that is exploring what God has next for them. This primarily Anglo congregation has a Korean pastor and is starting a Hispanic ministry. Together they have engaged in Team Vital, assessed their congregation and community, grown their small group ministry to 17 groups and launched a new Hispanic ministry on Pentecost Sunday.

Morristown UMC along with many other congregations are the reason Greater New Jersey moved from the middle of the pack in vitality to number four, and why we had the second highest increase in vitality among conferences in the United States. Come, imagine with me what more God wants to do through your congregation.

We imagined a God-sized goal of starting 90 new faith communities by 2018. Now that's imagination.

In the last 10 months we chartered a new Ghanaian congregation with more than 200 singing and dancing worshipers, and we engaged a new Egyptian faith community that now has more than 60 worshipers. It is our second GNJ Egyptian congregation.

Conference leaders also recently met with a group of young people that are preparing to launch Greenhouse, a new faith community that will be a second site of Calvary Korean Church. I imagine Greenhouse will be worshiping with more than 200 new disciples in the near future.

Since 2013, we have started 24 faith communities. Come, let us together imagine starting another 40-60 faith communities.

We imagined a God-sized ministry after Superstorm Sandy that would renew, repair and rebuild houses, communities and lives. We are renewing Frank and Mary Ellen Azack lives. Both have health concerns and found that after the storm their home could not be repaired and had to be torn down. They did not know where to turn.

When we learned of their plight, our A Future With Hope Ministry turned their frustration and pain into joy. When God is involved, weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes in the morning (Psalm 30:5), weeping may tarry during the storm, but joy comes when A Future With Hope shows up.

This week, we are setting a new home on their property. Joy showed up this morning for the Azack's.

Through our A Future With Hope Ministry, GNJ has now worked with 441 families, teamed up with 11,004 volunteers, and repaired or built 234 homes. Through A Future With Hope, we created one of the most robust and resilient organizations that is one of the last organizations on the ground working with families recovering from Sandy.

In 2013, I shared with you that United Methodists were one of the first on the scene after Superstorm Sandy, and we would be one of the last still working to repair, rebuild and renew homes, families, and communities.

As United Methodists, we cannot imagine people who need help going without help, people who need hope going without hope. When people hurt, GNJ United Methodists helps. Come, together let us imagine what God has next for us.

Today, I announce what's next for our A Future With Hope Ministry. We are preparing to resource and support you through Hope Centers. We anticipate that our Sandy relief and recovery ministry will come to an end in 2017. This has been a remarkable ministry, and we developed capacity and resources that are recognized in the region and across the nation.

Instead of disbanding this ministry and organization, we will retool and use our current capacity to create Hope Centers to provide training, strategic community planning, and develop affordable housing.

REPORTS

While A Future With Hope began through a tragedy, it has become a force for hope and renewal. While it began in Sandy-damaged communities, it will be an organization that will now work with churches that want to extend and deepen their mission in any community in GNJ.

I am excited about Hope Centers that will provide community development and human services in the name of Jesus Christ. It will work through our congregations and church sponsored community centers.

We are presently developing a joint venture with C.A.M.P. YDP, a community center started by a United Methodist pastor 60 years ago and is supported by GNJ and a number of our congregations. A new partnership will emerge in which GNJ, A Future With Hope, and Hope Centers will work together, so more mission and ministry is happening in the community. This is imagination, and I am grateful for the leaders of A Future With Hope and GNJ for shedding light on what God has next for us.

I can imagine at least five Hope Centers in every county which will create more than 100 Hope Centers throughout GNJ.

We have been imagining the congregation as the primary source of mission. We have focused GNJ resources on making disciples and growing vital congregations to transform the world. We said we will do everything we can to keep more dollars in the congregation. For three years in a row, we kept the Shared Ministry budget flat or decreased it.

The Council on Finance and Administration has proposed a 2017 budget that again decreases the Shared Ministries budget. By not increasing or even decreasing the shared ministry budget for four years, we saved the churches $1,407,000. Imagine that!

We developed and are implementing new resources for our leaders through coaching, PaCE groups, Team Vital, Communities of Hope, and The Laity Academy.

We implemented all of these resources and lowered the Shared Ministry budget while paying 100% General Church Apportionment for the ninth year in a row. Now that's imagination.

This type of imagination is saving our churches $1,407,000. Come, imagine with me how God will continue powerful and life changing ministry, keeping more of the financial resources in the congregation.

While we are speaking of money, which God uses to make disciples and grow vital congregations to transform the world, let's not forget what we are doing through our Mission Fund.

We have raised $5.5 million and with it, we have repaired 234 homes, cut deaths from malaria in half and supported community mission through our congregations. It is most astounding that The United Methodist Church, one of the first three partners in the fight against malaria, which now has more than 100 partners, has cut deaths by malaria in half.

Our efforts are saving nearly one million people a year, sometimes just through a bed net. Let's continue to work together and imagine cutting deaths from malaria in half again and again and again until people are no longer suffering and dying from malaria. With God's help and your gifts, we can do this.

We also imagine how to do things better to support our laity, clergy, and congregations. I already mentioned how coaching, PaCE groups, Team Vital, Communities of Hope and the Laity Academy are serving the mission.

We have strengthened our Foundation and assets under management will grow to more than $20 million this year.

We are also making our larger events like the Annual Conference session, IGNITE and Bishop's Clergy Convocation, a better experience. This year more than 90% of you had your Pre-Conference Journal one month before Annual Conference. IGNITE registrations started at the end of last year, and we expect to have more than 1,000 students attend IGNITE this year.

We are offering outstanding learning experiences like The Coach Approach to Ministry, Leading Through Conflict, and the clergy transition workshop. We have also seen our communications ministry create new resources and improve our existing resources. We are not the only ones to notice. The United Methodist Association of Communicators gave five awards to GNJ. These awards were for the advertisements we placed on NJ Transit buses during Lent last year that directed people to our local churches, and for the design of nametags for Annual Conference, which saved us money in production costs and is now being duplicated by other conferences across the country.

REPORTS

We are not imagining how to do things better for awards, but to do things with excellence for God. We want to further our mission to make disciples and grow vital congregations to transform the world. We believe excellence attracts excellence and we strive for excellence, because we serve a great God.

Six years ago we imagined a new conference center that would be a resource for GNJ mission and ministry. While the church is consolidating, while many conferences are cutting resources, while many within the church are saying we need to conserve, we heeded the words of Isaiah, who prophesied in a very difficult time. "Stretch out your tent," he told the people, "drive the stakes deeper, and lengthen the tent cords."

Our new Mission and Resource Center is a testimony that God is not done with us yet. God's imagination far exceeds what we see, and God is willing to light the way. The building came in slightly under budget, and the $5 million project is paid for. The 5 million dollar project is paid for!

The vision for this new facility is already creating mission and ministry opportunities. We have started a new partnership with Drew University, and this fall a seminary course will be taught at the Mission and Resource Center. Imagine with me the possibilities that we will open as we become a satellite campus for one of the premier theological schools.

I see hope rising across GNJ, and I imagine a God-sized vision and ministry in which hope springs eternal out of our congregations and into our communities. God is doing a new thing, an important thing among us. Come imagine what God has for us next.

While imagining what God has for us next, we cannot deny we have present and future challenges. We experience here at home and have witnessed at General Conference that there are deep differences among us.

It is painful, and it is unsettling. It creates fear and talk of division and even separation. It moves some to the edges and others to the center. I do not want to mislead you. This is serious. At the core, we have different understandings of how to interpret the Bible. Can we serve God together knowing there are sharp differences among us?

Yes!

The movement of God has never depended on our agreement with one another but our willingness to unite to serve God.

Do you think the family that sleeps under a United Methodist malaria bed net wonders what side of an issue we are on?

Do you think the Azack's, who we are building a new home for, care whether we are to the left of the right on an issue?

Do you think the children at C.A.M.P. YDP, who have a place to go to because we stepped into the breach, care about our vote on a particular issue?

I dare say no in each of these cases. When they saw and experienced the love of Jesus in us, all differences melted away.

Look at all God has done through us. Growing congregational vitality, repairing 234 homes, creating new faith communities, cutting deaths from malaria in half, building a new Mission and Resource Center, and reducing the shared ministry budget. This happens because God is at work through us in the midst of our differences.

It happened because the disciples of GNJ agreed to be hope for the hopeless, love for the loveless, relief for those in the midst of disaster and faith for those who doubt.

Did we first ask the hopeless, the loveless and those in the midst of disaster if they agreed with us? No! Our engagement with others only depended on our love for God and our love for one another.

History tells us we are stronger together than we are on our own. Imagination tells us we are better, more excellent for God when we imagine together.

In no way does this negate that on a few things we have sharp disagreements, but it is a witness that we are willing to allow God to work through us in the midst of differences. Our unity will not be uniformity but faithful commitment to God and scripture, allowing for difference.

REPORTS

I pledge to be a bishop of the whole church and for all the people. Our mission is too important to pick and choose who we serve. You are too valuable to God and to me to only select you because we share the same beliefs. Every time the church has split, the witness has weakened and the mission has suffered. Every time a congregation leaves the denomination, we all hurt and we all grieve.

In the last four years, three congregations contemplated or left the denomination. It is one of the most troubling experiences for me as a bishop. These are hard conversations and they are spiritual conversations bathed in prayer and discernment.

In all things, I seek to glorify God and seek reconciliation and oneness in Christ. These are prayerful and spiritual journeys.

In the midst of differences, our clergy also have a very difficult challenge in leading the church today. I want us all to pray for and support our pastors as they seek to serve God, the church and the community.

I also call our pastors to refrain from harsh judgment, leave that for God. Refrain from being certain, leave room for mystery and faith. Love your people even when they do not show love for you. There is nothing more Christ-like than to love when you are misunderstood.

I can imagine us becoming a church in which the world admires us not because we agree but because we love each other in the midst of our disagreements. Then we will have truly become like the variety of disciples Jesus gathered, like the peaceable kingdom Isaiah describes, like the Shalom community Jeremiah depicts, and like the kingdom of God that Jesus inspires us to become.

As we live the words of Isaiah, Jeremiah and Jesus, we have a greater possibility to tackle some of the deep challenges we are facing. The following are challenges that we will need to pray, imagine and work together to address.

While our vitality is increasing, we are decreasing in worship attendance. This may mean that we are going deeper, and it will be some time before we start to grow wider again.

We imagine a greater and larger mission than we have capacity, people, systems and dollars to do.

There are injustices that we must address. Last annual conference session we committed to learn about incarceration and how laws and attitudes have used privilege to disadvantage African Americans and Latinos particularly. We have held a joint criminal justice reform forum with Senator Cory Booker. The cabinet and others have studied the book, "The New Jim Crow" to broaden our understanding of these issues. I have sought to learn by traveling throughout the conference, meeting with prison personnel, inmates, judges, lawyers and police officers. We have offered PaCE groups about incarceration. There is still more for us to learn and do. This afternoon together we will reflect on these issues and white privilege.

The final challenge I would like to lift up is that we are discontinuing churches. At this Annual Conference session, we will close five churches. Last session we discontinued five churches. The study we commissioned to develop our strategic plan indicated that we will discontinue 20-30% of our congregations within the next 20 years.

In the midst of these challenges, let's talk about how we will imagine something different. Something different than closing churches. Something other than allowing injustice that rises out of privilege. Something more than declining worship. Let's talk about how to build our capacity to catch up to the big vision and mission we continue to imagine. Let's talk about how we build a church and community for all people.

We have already begun to imagine, pray and work together, and we see the results. In 2013 we imagined a new future through our strategic ministry plan and today while we have significant challenges, we are making progress on our plan and addressing our challenges. Let's review how we are doing to achieve our strategic plan goals. We said by the end of 2018 we wanted to accomplish nine goals:

1. Increase the percentage of churches growing in worship attendance from 32% to 51%. Today 30% of our churches are growing. This is a concern for the health and vitality of GNJ. We have important work to do together.
2. Start 90 new faith communities. We have started 24. This is a good start and with God's help, we can achieve this goal.
3. Decrease the number of worshipers it takes to make a new profession of faith from 17 to 15. We have slipped on this one and are at 18 worshipers to make one profession of faith.
4. Increase the percentage of worshipers in small groups from 43% to 75%. We have already exceeded this goal.
5. Increase the number of young adults in small groups from 2,800 to 3,200. Today we stand at almost 2,900. There is work for us to do.
6. Increase our racial ethnic members from 20% to 25%. We now stand at 21%. There is more work for us to do.

REPORTS

7. Increase the percentage of worshipers engaged in mission from 8% to 40%. We have already exceeded this goal.
8. Increase local church dollars spent on mission 15% to 17% of their budget. We exceeded this goal and are in the top 10 conferences in our denomination.
9. Raise $12 million through a mission campaign. We have raised $5.5 million which is a tremendous start and has exceeded many expectations.

On five of our nine goals, we have exceeded or made strong progress. With God's help and every congregation working to grow vitality, we will see growth in the other four by 2018.

We are also making progress on a strategy and action steps to develop greater cultural competence throughout GNJ, addressing injustices and recruiting more transformational leaders to grow vital congregations.

I imagine in the future, every time we discontinue a church somewhere, we will start a new Hope Center and also start a new faith community. Beginning two new ministries for every church we discontinue. While we may not be able to turn every congregation around, we will imagine new possibilities through Hope Centers and new faith communities.

We have imagined and made strong progress. We are experiencing renewal in our congregations and the lives of people. We have made progress on our goals, built a new Mission and Resource Center, repaired more than 230 Sandy-damaged homes, reduced deaths from malaria, reduced the shared ministry budget, welcomed a new Ghanaian Congregation and an Egyptian faith community, and became one of the most vital United Methodist Conferences.

GNJ in the midst of very challenging times is making progress because this is a movement of the Holy Spirit that has been bathed in prayer each step of the way. We are seeing and experiencing transformational leaders throughout GNJ, we have a clear plan and focus, there is greater trust throughout GNJ, and we are using our resources in alignment with our mission and strategic plan. Our future course is to continue the good work we are doing and strengthen our other areas of ministry.

When we do all of this, God sightings emerge from unsuspecting sources and in unsuspecting places. Doug Card is a councilperson in Highlands New Jersey; a town hit hard by Superstorm Sandy. He met a man in town this year who had no way to rebuild his home. The man needed a total rebuild and didn't have the resources. He had multiple sclerosis and struggled with health concerns. Doug told him about our A Future With Hope.

Today the man has a new modular home built by United Methodists.

Councilman Card told this story to Nicole Caldwell-Gross, Director of Mission for Greater New Jersey because she is leading the Community of Hope training with the Highlands church and community.

Highlands, under the leadership of Pastor Jill Hubbard Smith and seven laity, is one of our first Communities of Hope. They have been trained and have a plan for revitalizing their community. Their imagination and clear plan have attracted members of the town council, the president of the chamber of commerce, the chairs of the Garden Club, the recreation committee, the art society, and 100 other community leaders and residents to work with the congregation.

Councilman Card, who is not a United Methodist but we are working on him, said: "A Future With Hope and the Highland's Community of Hope, has no agenda but to help people. This group gets things done and is making a difference."

As United Methodists, God is giving us all the light we need to see hope, to see an engaged disciple, a vital congregation, and a transformed world.

Like looking through a kaleidoscope, the disciples, the congregations, and transformation will look different in different places. But this I am convinced of: in these places there will be faithful GNJ laity and clergy leading the way.

You are a courageous, imaginative people who are faithful and fruitful. Come, let's imagine together what God will do next. Thank you and God bless you and your ministry.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER'S REPORT

I would like to share with you some of the things and events that have happened since our last time here together. We know that God's Plan for the LAITY IS TO CARRY OUT HIS PLAN FOR HIS CHURCH THAT IS TO GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE WORLD. All of us are gifted by the Holy Spirit for Ministry-each one of us has a place in the body to use this gift in concert with others; as we become more equipped as life time learners we are empowered to do God's work more efficiently! We need the entire body, not just the clergy as we seek to become a more vital in our congregation and in this conference. The work of ministry is more than just preaching, teaching, giving, and helping, these things are extremely important, but we also need build relationships with our clergy and our community. I urge you to be more intentional about sharing your faith stories with other people, building relationships by sharing with other the good news of Christ, is bringing hope sometime in a very dark world.

Last September we started our year with the Laity Leadership Academy. The purpose of the Academy is to create a supportive culture in which laity throughout the conference will be engaged, equipped and empowered to be effective partners with our clergy to lead the church as Disciples of Christ. We offered four learning opportunities with the theme of Laity growing in faith and knowledge and called to serve. The Educational tracks were:

- Creating Small Groups
- Creating Inspiring Worship
- Creating Evangelism Ministry and
- Creating Social Media Ministry

We had about 170 persons who took advantage of these workshops and gave out 7 scholarships of $500 as a result of action plans developed to implement new ministries at their local church.

1. Bethany Brown Memorial UMC
2. Beverly UMC
3. Capital UMC
4. Dunellen UMC
5. Magnolia UMC
6. Seaville UMC
7. UMC of East Pennsauken

The opportunities for Lay Ministries are innumerable; start with the assessment of the needs of your church and your community and find out what ministries are in need. Take advantage of the Lay Servant ministry Training in your District. We have the advance course in the fall and the Basic course in the spring. Those Lay Servants who attended Lay servant classes for the first time this year, will be celebrating their achievement at the graduation on June 4, 2016 at the Mission and Resource Center.

The Laity Board also celebrates and appreciates all committed disciples who are called to become Certified Lay Ministers. We are aware of obstacles created by additional cost surrounding the Psychological Evaluation that may hamper a disciple journey. Those persons who would like to be more engaged in ministry in their district we will assist you. The Laity Board has obtained Funds for Five Scholarships to offset this cost. You may go online to seek out the application if you are a CLM who has completed the requirements and has going before DCOM in your journey and is ready to take the Psychological assessment.

In April 2016 about 150 people gathered in or new Mission and Resource Center for the Recognition of Lay Ministries. Twenty different awards were given to group or individuals. These awards were to recognize the different ministries that are being done by laity in the local church. Ministries such as; The Workers in Mission at the Broadway UMC in Salem, Angel Tree Ministry and Prison Ministry Programs done by several churches, Meals of Love at Beverly UMC as well as many pantry ministries to feed the hungry in our midst; And Casa De Esperanza at FUMC Tuckerton. And there were so many more and of course those special persons who are dedicated to ministry at your churches. This was a very special and proud moment for me and I do hope that those who were recognized will hang their banner proudly somewhere in their church. The Laity Board believes that the church that leaves the building in faith and action, serving their community is the church of Jesus Christ and that is what we are called to do! I would like you to imagine the unlimited and surprising ways God can use our congregations composed of people equipped and unleashed to do ministry anywhere and anytime. Imagine all of our churches with a clear robust mission, reinforced through preaching, teaching, mentoring, leadership training and witnessing, small groups and ministry teams. We have seen Laity and Clergy working together with fresh new energy with focus on mission and vital congregation, many of you are involved in team vital, engaged in discussion and planning ways to grow your church. We must continue to move forward our strategic plan to create healthier congregations that are effectively engaged in the mission field, so we must keep focused on the work ahead by equipping our local church leaders for mission and to serve in a way that develops new relationships that bring the Gospel to those in their own communities.

We will continue our Mission Project this year as we have done for the last four years-Stop Hunger Now- plan to pack 30,000 meals tomorrow afternoon at 3:30PM. May 22, 2016- Please plan in joining us as we do this meaningful work!

Last year we elected delegates to go to General Conference and many of us returned yesterday from Portland where the energy level was very high. Delegates were engaged in discussion that was sometimes difficult and very hard. The Laity Address at General conference urges the Laity to share Jesus with the World, reminding us that we have a responsibility of making Disciples of Jesus Christ in the world. Scott Johnson from the Upper New York Conference and other lay leaders said that the challenges facing the church are in part the result of the failure to live the discipleship we claim! That too many members are willing to sit on the sideline of ministry, due in large part because of the discomfort many people have in sharing their faith in Jesus. Sometime we serve in way that are convenient to us, stating that Discipleship is not just about helping out when we have time or energy, but it is about offering Christ and we must be willing to step out of our comfort zone. The laity in the local church must offer opportunities for congregations to commit to serving Christ. We are called to be the church that helps persons finds a sense of purpose in life as a disciple by learning what it means to live out our beliefs through acts of piety and mercy, sharing our Faith and engaging in service. This address encouraged Laity to love, love is what brings about transformation of the world and laity is encouraged to be a part of the church that hears the cries of God's people and brings God's presence into the world and play a role in bringing the love and mercy of Christ to everyone!

We are told that we must go and welcome the stranger into our church. We must go and welcome and the poor in our midst. We must go and feed the hungry. We must go and offer healing to the sick and those who suffer. We must go and seek out those who are lonely. The needs are great!

There is no doubt that each of us are being called by God, today, right this moment, to participate as we can, in what God is blessing us within our mission field. So Brothers and Sisters, with that sense of urgency I ask that you listen to what God is calling you to do! Imagine what we can do! Don't wait get started and let's go!

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

"If you want to understand today, you have to search yesterday"

-Pearl S. Buck, Noble Prize Winner and Daughter of American Missionaries in China

"For history does not long entrust the care of freedom to the weak or the timid... A people that values its privileges above its principles soon loses both."

-President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Inauguration Speech, January 20, 1953

The highlight of our work this year was hosting a workshop on how to research, manage, write and publish a local church history, which we sponsored last September in Madison and Glendora. Marie Amerson led two identical workshops at The United Methodist Archives and History Center in Madison and at the Chews United Methodist Church in Glendora. There were twenty-nine registrants for the Madison workshop and eleven registrants for the Glendora workshop. The group was comprised primarily of United Methodists with a few Lutheran and Unitarian representatives attending as well. Besides drawing from the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference, there were also United Methodist representatives from the Eastern Pennsylvania. Each workshop contained four sessions, which lasted for almost five hours of instruction time. All of the participants expressed great satisfaction with the workshop. Amerson agreed to privately coach any of the participants as they work on their future histories. Prior to the workshop CAH published an article in the Relay on how writing a church history benefits and unites a congregation for future outreach. Archives and History is currently preparing another five articles for the Relay on the present themes for vital congregations.

It is important to honor those churches and institutions which shaped our present through the vital work of their past deeds of ministry. In 2015, there were three such places recognized as historic sites because events and witness that shaped the direction our annual conference in different ways. They are Flanders United Methodist Church, Port Elizabeth United Methodist Church and The Neighborhood Center in Camden. Upon recognition as such by the General Commission on Archives and History, each place received an historic site plaque which the chair and vice chair presented at separate celebrations.

Another way of honoring local churches is through Robert B. Steelman Methodist History Award for best local church history submission on a yearly basis. The Commission on Archives and History honors the hard work of local churches who reach back to document their past ministries as a way understanding who they are as a contemporary congregation that looks forward to future successful ministry. The submitted history immediately becomes an outreach tool to their community as way of reintroducing the church to potential visitors and members. This year's winner, United Methodist Church of Pearl River, Pearl River, New York, did exactly that with their storied gift to the larger understanding of what it means to be United Methodist. The submission gives the reader a useful overview of Pearl River's 250 years of active ministry within the community. The church's 68 page history also illustrates their faithfulness to live and preach the Good News while lifting up their godly heritage both as a Methodist congregation and those individuals who stepped forward to lead during their respective lifetimes. The reminiscences towards the end are a nice addition as Pearl River continues to live their story for many years to come.

Walt Jones, our archivist, reports that he has have spent hundreds of hours researching 16 baptisms, 4 marriages, 11 genealogies and 31 other information requests. Ancestry.com is still processing the 38 boxes of closed church digital records we sent them in October, 2014. The final project produced 721,231 records in the form of 99,264 images. Walt also promoted the idea of placing a Christian flag on the graves of ministers as an important project for those churches that have attached cemeteries or in other cemeteries. Closed church records archives this year include Gladstone, Barnegat, Gloucester, Highland Park, Bridgeton churches Central and West Portal. This year's acquisitions are the pastoral record book for Rev. Lawrence Atkinson; six boxes of charge conference reports from the Northern Shore District; several boxes of old relays from Whiting UMC; twelve four inch binders of the Bradley Beach history and old records from the Blairstown UMC.

Resourcing the history of our annual conference and beyond came in the form 1 of digitizing previous historical publications of the former Northern New Jersey Historical Society that are now available on our GNJ web pages. Titles include: The Civil War Diaries of James B. Faulks and The Personal Diaries of John Summerfield Coit; The Diaries of Stephen S. Day, 1895-1934; The Journals of the Reverend Thomas Morrell, Methodist Patriot and Preacher, 1747-1813; The Maverick Strain: Dissent and Reform in the United Methodist Tradition, On the Trail of Francis Asbury, Untrod Paths, A Forgotten Chaplain of the Civil War: Commander John L. Lenhart; One Hundred Twenty-Five Years of Methodism; Skeletons in Our Closets: Unique, Amusing, and Human Incidents from the Life of Our Churches; The Story of Our Ethnic Churches; Visiting the Past, Present and Future: A Tour of Methodism in Northern New Jersey.

We remained active in our jurisdiction CAH connection through attending the annual meeting in Connecticut and by having Don DeGroat serve as a member on NEJCAH's Executive Committee. The same is true with our close connection with the General Commission on Archives and History, who rents us shelving to properly store the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference archives. We also offer professional assistance in all phases of archival practices. Our archivist served as one of the test contributors to GCAH's revamped on-line catalog of United Methodist annual conferences' holdings for public searching.

Other items of note include a survey of annual conference commission on archives and history budgets in order to see where we fit in to the larger annual conference funding picture. A result of the survey revealed a mean average budget of $27,034. There were three conference budgets over $100,000 and nine conference budgets below $10,000 in the mean average calculations. Some of our members speak at local churches on the value of archives and history in a vital congregation. We help churches date and interpret their history. Another important aspect of CAH's work is supplying and subsequently advising proper records management through retention scheduling. There were times when our members helped churches with preservation of their treasures whether at our repository or how-to discussions with the local church historian.

The Boston University School of Theology (STH) walks with you on the journey of discipleship, seeking to love God and to love our neighbors with all our hearts, souls, minds, and strength. Thank you for your prayers that inspire and support the STH mission to love God, build knowledge, and equip leaders for the church and society.

Power, Privilege and Prophetic Witness is the STH theme for 2015-2017: We engaged the theme in classes, lectures, retreats, and workshops, seeking to stretch our capacities to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with our God.

Examining the intersection of theology and race: The opportunities this year included: a brilliant new documentary on North Korea; a dialogical viewing of Selma; dialogues on racism with Thandeka and Andrew Sung Park; a retreat on building race relations; circle worship; a student-led event Missing Voices, Daunting Choices: The Erasure of Black Women in Black American Movements; and events on interfaith understanding.

Caring for the Church through Leadership and Service

Serving the United Methodist Church: Students served local churches and church bodies as interns, staff, and volunteers. Faculty served with such bodies as: United Methodist Women, World Methodist Council, Ministry Study Commission, Women of Color Scholars and Mentors program, Pan Methodist Commission on Children in Poverty, and boards and agencies of the general church and annual conferences.

Empowering young Latino/a leaders: Young leaders gathered with seasoned mentors to enhance their gifts and service as Christian leaders: Hispanic Youth Leadership Initiative (HYLA) and Raices Latinas Leadership Institute.

Facilitating dialogues on church renewal: We launched a new initiative on Evangelism and Church Renewal.

Reflecting on worship: We contributed to a special issue of Worship Arts Magazine, edited and written by STH faculty, alumni/ae, and students, and published by the Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts.

Caring for the World

Offering opportunities for engaged learning: Opportunities included the Doctor of Ministry program in Transformational Leadership; an urban ministry course; travel seminars to India, the Arizona-Mexico border, Israel-Palestine, Mexico, and Turkey (Ephesus); work with leaders in Ferguson, MO; and a travel seminar for UMC clergywomen to Cuba, co-sponsored by GBHEM and STH.

Collaborating with the global church: Collaborations included sponsorship of the Dictionary of African Christian Biography; events and art exhibits on local and global ecology; and dialogues with global church leaders.

REPORTS

As we at STH seek to be faithful and to partner with you in ministry, we give thanks for your witness. Thank you too for your continuing inspiration and contributions to our shared journey.

Blessings and gratitude,
Mary Elizabeth Moore

COMMISSION ON CAMPS, CONFERENCES AND RETREATS, INC.

GOAL: GNJ Camping will become a year-round center of Christian community that, through effective use of our resources and connectionism, better serves all contingents in our shared mission of developing disciples and leaders for the future.

The Greater NJ Camping Ministries has been struggling financially for many years. In order to preserve the financial integrity of the ministry plan for the future effectively, the decision was made in 2015 and 2016 to rest the summer camps at both the Aldersgate Center and the Pinelands Center at Mt. Misery. The Pinelands Center has remained open for retreats and youth events year-round.

A new Camping Board began this past summer and has the qualities needed to discern the future of summer camping ministry and it will bring forward a report for the 2017 Annual Conference session.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, over 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as Christian leaders who put faith and love into action, transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in Atlanta provides a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century. Simply put, there is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler now offers 17 degrees: seven single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, development practice, law, public health or social work. One of our newest degrees is a retooled Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study—and apply what they learn in real time. We've also partnered with the University of Georgia's School of Social Work to create an MDiv/MSW where students learn to maximize their effectiveness by combining pastoral skills such as spiritual counseling with social work practices such as family therapy and community assessment.

Our student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. 466 students are enrolled, with 48 percent women, 34 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 29. Students represent 44 denominations, with 51 percent coming from the Methodist family. 82 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2015-2016, we awarded nearly $5.5 million in Candler scholarships, with 92 percent of MDiv students and 84 percent of all students receiving support. And our comprehensive financial literacy program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they serve— well into the future.

At the end of the 2015-2016 academic year, Candler says goodbye and Godspeed to a handful of noted faculty as they retire: Barbara Day Miller, Luke Timothy Johnson, Steve Tipton, and Bishop Woodie White. Yet even as these legends take their leave after distinguished careers of scholarship and service, we look forward to welcoming a new crop of scholar-leaders who will join us in the coming months and grow with us in the coming years. We are especially pleased to welcome Bishop Larry Goodpaster, who will join the faculty as bishop-in-residence in the fall

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. THE CENTENARY FUND AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY REPORT

The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society was established by charter granted in 1857. In 2000 the charter was amended to rename the corporation The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. The purpose of the Fund is to provide maximum income, consistent with the preservation of principal, for the support of retired clergy and surviving spouses and dependent children of deceased clergy who have served in the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference.

Since inception the Fund has received in excess of $6 million in donations, and from the earnings on these donations has provided grants to pastors and their families who have requested aid, loans to assist retired pastors obtain housing in Methodist Homes, and during the period 2004 through 2015 contributed more than $5 million toward the funding of retiree healthcare. The Fund Balance as of the end of November 2015 was $11,055,302 and the Distribution Base (amount that can be distributed without invading the principal) was $4,822,708, before deducting the 2015 contribution of $539,271 toward retiree healthcare.

To continue support for retired clergy and their families at the current level of a half million dollars per year for retiree healthcare, donations are needed from pastors and churches. Reverend Douglas Miller is the Centenary Fund's Outreach Director and is working to increase our Donation Base. The Fund's Finance Committee Chair is Keith Helsby. Other members of the Fund Board are Charles Bender Jr, Valerie Garron, Grace Pak, Steve Poloff, Jack Scharf, and David Wiley. We hope you will help us build up the Centenary Fund with your tax-free donations so that The Centenary Fund and Preachers Aid Society will be able to continue to make the substantial contributions needed in the future to fund retiree healthcare and to provide aid to retired clergy and their dependents. Thank you for your support to date.

Eleanor Hartley, Chair

CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Board continues to look at three major issues: Immigration, Prison Reform and Poverty Reduction. In the next phase of our work, we will see beyond mercy ministries and work toward including justice ministries. We also look at issues related to Affordable Housing, Peace and the Environment as well as other issues that are presented to us.

As we look to the future, we will continue to support sending two young clergy to the Young Clergy Forum sponsored by GBCS each year.

At the 2015 Annual Conference, we had a Dessert Time. This was co-sponsored by Religion and Race, Christian Unity and Interfaith Relationships and Church and Society. This is a way to share how conference agencies work together on issues. This type of collaboration will continue with these and other entities.

Immigration: Began to look at ways to work with Justice for your Neighbors (JFoN) to get our churches to work with immigrants that need legal assistance.

Prison Reform: As we move toward justice ministries, we look at supporting legislation such as the Redeem Act.

Poverty: The Board became members of the New Jersey Anti-Poverty Network. Through this entity, we are able to inform our churches about resources and training opportunities.

REPORTS

With the approval of the Poverty Reduction Resolution, the Board is beginning to organize District Reduction Poverty Committees.

Peace with Justice: We were able to give one grant to Tansboro Trinity UMC to work with children.

Affordable Housing: One of the new issues we are going to work on is affordable housing. This would relate to working with the homeless to those that are of need of affordable housing.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

In John 17:20-21, Jesus prays, not only for his disciples, but also for those, who are (literally) “trusting into me, through their word”. His petition is inclusive of both, “so that they all may be one” and also reveals that this desired unity of faith is based on and reflective of Jesus and God’s own oneness: “You are in me and I am in you; I pray that they may also be one in us.” Moreover, this unity is said to validate Jesus and his mission before the world, “so that the world may trust that You sent me.”

At least, since the Edinburgh Missionary Conference in 1910, Jesus’ prayer for unity has been central to that great “Movement” of the Holy Spirit, called “Ecumenical” (meaning “world-wide”). It has opened the eyes of Christians everywhere, to see Christ present and at work in each other, in the various churches, and in the many peoples and persons with whom they minister. As most of our commission completes their second quadrennium of service, we rejoice to bear witness to the ongoing power of this prayer, which speaks of a unity that for us as United Methodists “is not an option”, but “a gift to be received and expressed” (Discipline, 2012, #105, p. 88).

Of course, this movement toward Jesus’ vision of unity has struggled with the same challenges 1 that all of the churches are facing in these times of transition. Yet those of us engaged in this work of unity are not dismayed; rather, we would celebrate with you just a few of the signs of God’s Spirit at work ecumenically, which we have been privileged to see:

- “The Episcopal/Methodist Theology Day”, sponsored with the Episcopal Diocese of Newark, was held at Drew Seminary on September 17, 2015 (having been delayed earlier by snow). In Holy Communion and through mutual dialogue, we joyfully explored with clergy and students the “Interim Agreement on Full Communion” approved by both denominations.
- “The National Workshop on Christian Unity” – begun by Roman Catholics after Vatican 2 – has for over 50 years been a forum for ecumenical dialogue and leadership development. Several of our commissioners have shared in its discussions of emerging ecumenical issues like mission in ethically and religiously diverse cultures, interaction with newer “evangelical” churches, ongoing interreligious dialogue, and intergenerational engagement. The next workshop meets on April 18-21 in Louisville, Kentucky, with the hopeful theme, “Christian Unity: It May Be Closer than You Think”. United Methodist leadership has long played a significant role in the NWCU and, in the past decade, a workshop-affiliate known as UMEIT (United Methodist Ecumenical & Interfaith Training) has emerged under the aegis of the United Methodist Episcopacy’s Office of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships.
- United Methodists are also serving the New Jersey Council of Churches, both on its Board of Directors and in its working groups. The “Public Policy” group engages in legislative advocacy for impoverished children, prison reform, and other justice concerns. Such topics are often addressed at the NJCC’s annual “Issues and Actions” event. Its “Theology” group has in recent years held discussions at Hightstown U.M.C. on Dr. Miroslav Volf’s Allah: A Christian Response and Dr. Karen Armstrong’s Twelve Steps to A Compassionate Life. It has also sponsored seminars on “Environment Theology” led by Dr. Laurel Kerns of Drew Theological School, both at Drew University and in our Pinelands Center. On June 11, 2015, the next environmentally focused seminar will examine Pope Francis’ recent encyclical Laudato Si’ – On Our Common Home at St. George’s Roman Catholic Church, Titusville, New Jersey, under the leadership of Father Vincent Gartland.
- One of our members has also served on the “Intergenerational Think Tank” of the National Council of Churches and, through Cynthia Kent, has been involved with the World Council of Churches, to which we also have sent delegates.
- The commission has also sought at the behest of the U. M. Council of Bishops to lift up ecumenical interaction and service with other Methodist denominations, like the African Methodist Episcopal, Christian Methodist Episcopal, and African Methodist Episcopal Zion churches. We have also sent delegates to the World Methodist Council.
- Likewise, we have sought to highlight the potential of our “Full Communion Agreement with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America”, which is as yet unfulfilled.

REPORTS

- Also, over the years, we have raised up the importance of interfaith dialogue as an intrinsic part of Jesus' unity agenda. We have done so through demonstration-dialogues at our "District Days of Learning" and at "Abraham's Table" luncheons, sponsored by the Islamic based "Interfaith Dialogue Center" (now known as "Peace Islands").
- Finally, every year, we have honored at least two worthy recipients of the Bishop's "Award for Christian Unity and Interfaith Relations", often with many other candidates having to be passed over. This testifies to the extensive grassroots involvement of our congregations and pastors in local ecumenical work throughout the Greater NJ Conference.

All of this activity and more are for us signs of the Holy Spirit at work, answering 1 Jesus' prayer. As many of us complete our commission-terms, we look forward to seeing what wonders of grace lie ahead on the road to Jesus' all-inclusive unity. For, the words of Jesus' prayer go on with repetitive force, now as then: "The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me." (John 17:22-23)

CRIMINAL JUSTICE TASK FORCE

In May 2015, the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference affirmed the creation of a Criminal Justice Task Force to identify resources to help congregations engage in restorative justice initiatives that repairs the harm caused by criminal behavior to victims, perpetrators and communities. This task force worked on identifying resources on the following: promoting dialogue and positive relationships between communities of color and law enforcement; helping congregations understand how racism, mental illness and poverty impacts the criminal justice system and exploring ways to advocate for prison reform and ending mass incarceration.

The Criminal Justice Task Force submits the following recommendations:

1. Have the Board of Church and Society establish a Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry as outlined in ¶ 657 of the 2012 Book of Discipline. This committee will relate to the Board and Church and Society.
2. Identify and promote resources that would aid in the understanding of the criminal justice system. For example, the study guide for Michelle Alexander's book, The New Jim Crow could be made available in the GNJ website.
3. Display exhibits at annual conference and regional events to help people understand the issues, for example, a replicated solidarity confinement cell.
4. Encourage churches to participate in Healing Communities.

CUMAC/ECHO

CUMAC Continues Mission to Feed People and Change Lives

The Center of United Methodist Aid to the Community, known to most simply as CUMAC, is deeply grateful to the churches of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference for the consistent support that allows our ministry to grow in service. This year CUMAC proudly became the administering body of the Community Food Coalition (CFC). The CFC is a collaborative effort amongst 28 member food pantries committed to serving those in need in Passaic County and surrounding areas. It addresses hunger-related issues and manages shared food resources for Passaic County, while connecting New Jersey residents with feeding programs that best fit their needs.

The CFC was created with the understanding that hunger is a deep and pervasion issue in our community and beyond. To truly make a difference, synergistic collaboration is key. Many hands make light work, but many minds, voices and advocates make lasting change.

The addition of our newest program advances CUMAC's longstanding tradition of forward thinking and growth. That same ethos has led us on a 40 year journey from a small pantry in a borrowed United Methodist Church closet to the multi-programmatic response to hunger and poverty that CUMAC operates today. In 2015, our programs were able to reach many people needing to feel God's love through the action of his disciples.

- CUMAC's food pantry helped around 38,000 people put food on the table where otherwise they may have gone hungry. Around 2 million pounds of food were distributed.
- Two mobile pantries ensured that same help and love was extended to people living in underserved communities where barriers to food access are uniquely complex.
- Our food depot was utilized by a network of feeding programs. It provided the storage space, refrigeration, trucking and resources necessary to bolster smaller agencies and allow them to address hunger in their own communities.
- Pathways to Work offered job training and experience to dozens of people on the path to gainful employment.
- The Community Closet gave disaster relief to lessen the burden of recovery for over 120 individuals who had experienced fires, flooding and even a roof caving in, as well as quieter disasters like owning only flip flops in the middle of winter. Our thrift shop sold high quality goods at extremely affordable prices to low-income households as a means to boost self-sufficiency.
- Place of Promise provided permanent, supportive housing to around a dozen residents, assisting each individual with setting and meeting personal goals and helping them connect to critical resources on the path to meeting self-sufficiency.
- Seasonal collections provided over 3,000 children with Christmas gifts, Easter baskets and school supplies.

Through these programs, CUMAC worked ceaselessly to lift up a community truly in need of a helping hand.

Among our clients are seniors and the disabled, unable to work and struggling to keep up with rising costs of living. We are visited by the unemployed and underemployed, those who work two or three jobs but still struggle to pay rent and put food on the table. Many are looking to rebuild after long stints of homelessness. Still others turn to us to learn valuable job skills that will help lift them and their families out of poverty. Our clients include children growing up with empty bellies and struggling to thrive, often without stable housing, adequate clothing, proper school supplies or a network to help raise them up. Combined, our programs provide the material support so many need to get by. Of equal importance they provide hope and lift people's faith in the fact that they live in a world that cares about them and won't let them suffer. As God claims all people as his beloved children, we strive always to lift up the least among us.

With CUMAC's growth story comes an exciting announcement made this year. After 27 years of service, our executive director, Reverend Patricia Bruger, has announced her upcoming plans to retire in the summer of 2017. This news is being shared 18 months in advance to allow sufficient time to plan for the future of the organization. Over the next year and a half a diverse team will be reviewing CUMAC's unique strengths and needs, putting together a profile for the next executive director, undertaking an in-depth strategic plan meant to point our agency in the right direction in the upcoming years, and beginning the search for an executive director who will lead from a place of strength and growth in the years to come.

This 18 month timeframe also gives us time to celebrate the incredible accomplishments Pat has made during her tenure at CUMAC's helm. CUMAC has seen substantial growth under Pat's leadership and we look toward a future of continued accomplishment feeding people and changing lives. To ensure our doors stay open to all who needs us, our circle of compassionate disciples in Christ is ever expanding. The Greater New Jersey United Methodist Church time and again lives that inspiring adage "Do all the good you can, in all the ways you can" in their support of CUMAC. In 2015, 78 United Methodist Churches lived faith in action by sharing their gifts. This came by way of financial support, events held on our behalf and special collections of food, coats, hygiene items, book bags and other critical goods. 38 United Methodist Churches made over 110 service trips to ensure our vital work is continued. They came as bible studies, UMW and UMM groups, youth groups, summer camps, and ecumenical partnership. They brought friends and family and were instrumental to growing disciples for Christ through service. With your help, we have accomplished much work to make this world a kinder, more just place for all God's children.

We ask that you join us in celebration of all that can be accomplished when we come together to live the word of Christ. CUMAC gratefully accepts volunteers to assist with a myriad of projects that make our mission possible. We encourage groups and individuals to learn more about our work by coming for a tour or inviting a speaker to their home church. We have many informative and engaging topics prepared and a host of activities to help people of all ages grow a deeper understanding of hunger and service. Donations in all form remain critical to our mission. Please consider holding a special offering for CUMAC, designating a portion of a fundraiser to our work, or hosting a collection to help meet the need for food, clothing and other goods. CUMAC staff and volunteers are always happy to provide support, share information and help communities unite in mission to provide for the least among us.

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

A Cohering Vision: Curriculum, Community, Co-Curricular Initiatives

After much collaborative discussion, discernment, and evaluation of the current state of theological education, those of us who lead, teach, and support Drew Theological School have launched on an ambitious course. Nearly 150 years after our founding, we envision a future as bright as the best eras in our past. I am pleased to share with you here the concrete steps we have taken— and are taking— to bring this future to light.

First, our efforts have been attentive to the history of Drew, in particular its Methodist roots, its long commitment to the Church and its ministries, and draw from this wellspring for inspiration and direction. Also, we have honored our progress to achieve denominational, ethnic, gender, and racial diversity in our faculty and student body. This rich diversity has become both a hallmark of Drew and an expansion of our wellspring. Forces beyond our campus—notably, that the reasons for pursuing a theological education and expected outcomes are shifting dramatically—further press the need for us to align our vision and its supporting systems with our communal reality.

Given this imperative, we are focused on the three “C’s” of our cohering vision: redesigning our curriculum, strengthening our community of learning, and deepening training through revived co-curricular initiatives. These three aspect of a Drew Theological School education will work together to enable us to empower creative thought and courageous action to advance justice, peace, and love of God, neighbor, and the earth—as well as uniquely position us to lead evolving expressions of Christianity.

Designing distinct pathways from curriculum to vocation

To remain meaningful and offer the greatest value to our students, each of the six degree paths that we offer must be as distinct as the ministry to which it leads. For example, our Master of Arts in Ministry program, which forms students for the broadest spectrum of theologically-informed advocacy and ministry, or our DMin program, which has become the “new” terminal vocational degree, must be custom rebuilt for current and emerging student needs and outcomes. This also holds true for our Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, PhD, and, most critically, our Master of Divinity programs.

We have achieved our roadmap for curricular change through a period of intentional discernment, which included discussion with consultants, and with colleagues at peer institutions, who led a curricular formation retreats with our faculty; through the discernment and guidance of our faculty, and with the generous financial support of the Jesse Ball duPont Fund. Our next steps include a comprehensive analysis of pedagogical and technological trends in theological education, enrollment, and outcomes. Our redesigned curricular paths will be announced in the fall of 2017, concurrent with the 150th anniversary of the founding of Drew Theological School and the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Student experiences rooted in community

Despite the increase in students pursuing their education through evening classes and online enrollment, we remain committed to the on-campus experience of community. This begins with a student-centered educational experience that better attends to the scheduling needs of our students, offers broader course content and availability, and more intentionally integrates vocational or career aspirations with coursework.

The success of these efforts are inextricably linked to scholarship support. Only by removing the financial barriers for students pursuing vocations can we hope to attract and retain the most promising students and free them to learn and grow in community. Related to tuition support is the need for more affordable and modernized housing for those students who choose to live on campus. Together, scholarship 1 support and housing relief will also unburden our students from unsustainable debt.

Fostering innovation in ministry and the work of spirit-filled justice

To round out changes in our curriculum and on-campus learning experiences, we are also reviving co-curricular initiatives. The existing Center for Lifelong Learning will be recast as the new Center for Innovation and Leadership in Ministry and serve students, alumni, and others seeking to find creative and courageous approaches to revitalizing ministry. Here, programming will train pastoral leaders, in particular, for service in rapidly changing church environments, as well as position them to lead fearlessly and prophetically.

Our second co-curricular center will be an expansion of the current Communities of Shalom. This initiative will focus on action, advocacy, and social justice work in both pastoral and lay environments. Projects will range from student interns supporting the work of A Future with Hope in our home state of New Jersey, advancing social justice in non-profit settings across the country and around the world, initiatives which seek to transform and end systemic poverty, expansion of our Partnership for Religion and Education in Prisons (PREP) program, and teaching residencies at Drew for prophetic leaders.

Success so far through our One and All Campaign

As the 14th dean of Drew Theological School, I am deeply committed to continuing our long and distinguished legacy. To this end, our vision is innovative, forward-looking, and grounded in the practical needs of our students—we hope, too, that it is an inspiration to the various constituencies we serve. I fully subscribe to the inimitable words of Antonio Machado, that “we make the road by walking.” The road to this bright future we envision will be made by the dedication, determination, and generosity of those who love Drew and believe in its future.

Our vision is coming to light, in part, because of the generosity of our many alumni-donors and friends. Our One and All fundraising campaign has raised more than $12 million to date for the Theological School and has seed-funded many of our burgeoning efforts.

Also, I encourage our alumni to embrace your power of influence to help grow philanthropic support for Drew Theological School. Many of our largest gifts have come from the influence of alumni, particularly pastors who serve in our church communities.

Yes, the needs ahead are many, yet our hope is high for a bright future for Drew Theological School. The road is made by walking. Let’s walk it together.

The Reverend Dr. Javier A. Viera
Dean of the Theological School
Professor of Pastoral Theology

EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY

The Educational Society has been assisting men and women of New Jersey, called by God to full time Christian service, in their pursuit of a theological education. By providing scholarships and loans for more than one hundred and fifty years to persons preparing to serve in Christian ministry, our Annual Conference has invested in the future of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Scholarships are awarded to candidates for ordained ministry who are matriculated in an accredited theological seminary or graduate school approved by the United Methodist Church University Senate (UMCUS) and who are members of a United Methodist Church within the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference (GNJAC), or who are clergy of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference engaged in continuing education at an accredited graduate or theological school approved by UMCUS who are not eligible for Ministerial Education Funds.

Interest free loans are available to men and women preparing for full time Christian service, matriculated full or half time in an accredited college, seminary, or graduate school, including Course of Study, approved by UMCUS. Applicants must be a member of a United Methodist Church within the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference. The distribution of scholarships and loans is determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Educational Society. $3,500.00 in loans were granted in 2014. In this same year, three scholarships totaling $16,500.00 were awarded to Cynthia Lydon, Josh Mularski, and William B. Wilson Jr. The Educational Society is supported by the repayment of loans, interest earned on early endowments, the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference, and contributions from local churches and individuals. Contributions may be made through the Conference Advance # 622. It is an opportunity for the local church to affirm the ministry of pastors who have benefited from Educational Society assistance by “paying it forward” through contributions to Conference Advance #622.

Jo D. Malessa, President

REPORTS

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, as the name of the agency indicates, has two crucial ministerial functions: 1) Higher Education – supporting the United Methodist Students of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference to achieve their higher educations, especially through granting them scholarships; and 2) Campus Ministry – partnering with the campus ministers and local churches that are passionate about their campus ministries, as they tend the religious/spiritual needs/life of the students and faculty in college/university settings.

First of all, every year, the Board has a tough task of selecting/granting scholarship recipients. Due to the limited scholarship funding availability, the Board carefully and prayerfully selects the scholarship beneficiaries. In year 2015 (as was the case in the previous year), the Board was able to grant nineteen overtly qualified students from various backgrounds, locations, and studies their scholarships. The Board is working toward a way to grant more scholarships, without compromising the quantity and quality of the conference scholarships that we offer to our students, by contacting the UMM and UMW of our local churches and by creative fundraising event(The reason once again is that the Board is in agreement, refusing to turn down our U.M. students in their academic and spiritual journey in their colleges and universities settings.

Secondly, the Board has two responsibilities under the heading of Campus Ministry: 1) Partnering with and accountable for the existing campus ministries, and 2) Connecting with and assist to the starting-up campus ministries of the GNJAC.

With this regard, there are four existing campus ministries that the conference has been supporting in consistent and persistent basis. They are:

1. Centenary College
2. Rockland County Community College
3. Wesley Foundation at Princeton
4. The FeedTruck Ministry (covering Mercer County colleges).

And in 2015, the Board was able to publicize and implement seven grants to our local churches and their endeavors to doing campus ministries. They are:

1. First UMS Glassboro (Rowan University area): Tavern Theology
2. Grace Korean UMC (William Patterson University area): College Outreach
3. Monmouth Grace UMC (Monmouth University area): Race Matters
4. First UMC of Mt. Holly (Bergen County Community College area): Art with a Heart
5. Christ UMC Piscataway (Rutgers University area): Methodist Muffin Ministry
6. Princeton UMC (Princeton University area): Café Ministry
7. Christ UMC Lakewood (Georgian Court University area): Beyond the Great Divide – Bridging Opportunity

This is a strategic plan, aligned with the GNJAC mission and the 2018 objectives. The objective #2 indicates, “Start 90 new faith communities,” and objectives #5 asserts, “Increase the number of young adults in small groups from 2,820 to 3,200.”

The members of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry promise to continue our support to the U.M. colleges students and campus ministries of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference by doing ministry more innovatively, and most of all, more prayerfully. So, the Board asks you to please join in this great ministry with your care, love, and prayers!

Hyun-Bo Shim, on behalf of the Board of HE and CM members

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

The Episcopacy Committee has met regularly with our Bishop during the past year for the purpose of support, encouragement, communication of conference priorities, and to provide feedback where solicited. We have participated in an evaluation of the Bishop, discussed matters related to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, and assured that the Episcopal residence is in excellent condition. At each meeting the Bishop has issued, and we have discussed, a detailed report of his work in the conference. He has been thoroughly transparent and collegial in all of our discussions and we well know that he greatly values the shared ministry of all laity and clergy in the conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Fowler, Chairperson, Episcopacy Committee

REPORTS

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The economy of New Jersey continued improving in 2015 and the Shared Ministry collection rate was up 2%. 394 of our local churches paid 100% of their shared ministry allocation, up from 391 last year. 481 paid 100% of their billables, down from 485 last year. We are grateful to the churches of the conference for their stewardship.

As in prior years, committees, boards and agencies were prudent in their spending and the income from conference investments continued to perform well, in line with the general financial markets. Therefore overall financial results were in line with budget projections for 2015.

As a result of contributions from the Board of Trustees, the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and the Council on Finance and Administration, the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference has moved into our new building mortgage free.

For the ninth year in a row, our conference paid 100% of its general church apportionments. GNJAC was one of the 26 out of 56 conferences that paid 100%. We thank the Bishop, Cabinet and Program Staff for their leadership and we thank our local churches for their faithful stewardship and hard work, all of which make these results possible.

Other items of note from our activities this year:

1. In accord with conference legislation, and with the leadership of the Bishop and Cabinet, all of the churches receiving equitable or supplemental compensation grants paid 100% of their Disciplinary Obligations.
2. Financial training has again been provided at the District Days of Learning. Emphasis was on the various matters of interest to local churches. We are looking into ways to develop services that CFA might be able to provide to local churches, such as auditing or financial planning and budgeting.
3. Conference investments again performed well in 2015, matching the benchmarks. Our portfolio is well diversified and as a result of our investment gain trends over the last several years, the CFA continues to authorize a payout rate of 5%.
4. On line collection of the data for statistical reports continues to go well. Errors have been much reduced with the new system and local churches have been much better able to meeting reporting timetables. As an added benefit, the information needed for conference management is available nearly 6 months earlier that it had been under the old system.

The Conference Council on Finance and Administration wants to thank Bishop Schol, the Cabinet and the Program Staff for their continuing support and encouragement. We also want to thank John Cardillo, Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, and his staff for their hard work and support.

John Bishop, President
Conference Council on Finance and Administration

GENERAL COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Financial Services Committee reviewed all General Church board and agency spending plans for 2015 and approved same. The primary elements of the review are to determine that the spending plans conform to the budget approved by the 2012 General Conference, are within the forecasted receipts and that unreasonable reserves are not being accumulated. Budgets are subject to year to year adjustments required due to economic conditions. If such adjustments are required, they are prorata among all recipients.

The full GCFA Board is working with the Connectional Table to establish the proposed budget for the 2016-2020 quadrennium. Initial numbers indicate an increase of about 1% in the budgets of the general church agencies.

The Audit Committee received and extensively discussed with the external auditor the report of the audits of all general church boards and agencies. The reports on UMC General Boards and agencies audits did not disclose any unusual problems or major weaknesses in internal control. The Audit Committee also recommended asking for RFPs from firms desiring to do the audits of the General Church Agencies and recommended a change based upon lower costs.

The Committee on Legal Responsibilities has the disciplinary responsibility to protect the UMC and its mark, the Cross and Flame. It also has a fund to be used in related proceedings regarding annual conferences or local churches. This support is to be limited to matters of denominational significance.

REPORTS

During the year we reviewed several requests and did provide some funding for issues involving the defense of the trust clause and also of the rights of local churches to conduct religious services in non-traditional settings. We also denied several requests for funding.

The Committee on Legal Responsibilities participated in a number of legal briefs supporting the trust clause or its equivalent in other denominations. Many denominations are having issues with breakaway congregations that want to take their building and endowments with them as they leave the mother denomination. We have the obvious interest in that an adverse decision could affect future legal actions within the Methodist denomination.

Members of the GNJAC may be aware that GCFA and GBGM had halted all payments to the East Africa Annual Conference over which Bishop Wandabula presides. Salary and office expenses were also reduced. This is a result of long term inability to get Bishop Wandabula to provide documentation to show that his uses of the funds were appropriate. This matter was submitted to the Judicial Council which ruled that the Bishop's salary cannot be reduced from that authorized by the General Conference in 2012. The Judicial Council did not reverse any of the other actions related to program expenses and office expenses which are not being paid.

GCFA has continued adjusting to a new and smaller Board (21 vs. 41 previously). It is going well and most Board members prefer the new arrangement. I have been personally involved with an effort to have administrative services provided on a shared basis among the general boards. Quite a number of services have been integrated into a shared service among the general agencies.

John Bishop, Member
General Commission on Finance and Administration

BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The Conference Board of Global Ministries works with missionaries, our Advance Specials, Agencies, Conference staff and aligns with the strategic goals of the Conference.

Advance Specials: Each Advance Special (Advanced) is assigned to a CBGM member who is its liaison with the Board to make sure that their ministry continues, and visits with the agency where possible. Advance Specials are required to submit a reapplication each year and provide supporting documents. Two Advance Specials have been dropped from last year and one new one has been added. The list can be found in the Board's resolution. Although Conference does not fund Advance Specials directly, they are encouraged to apply directly to churches and the churches are encouraged to support them by sending funds to them through the Conference treasurer. One of the future measures of an Advance's viability will be the support it receives.

Partnerships: International Partnerships continues to be a gray areas with CBGM.

Mission Fairs: CBGM held its one Mission Fair on September 19, 2015. No future fairs are planned.

UMVIM: Kathy Ahmad led a VIM team to Haiti in January and installed over a hundred water filters.

Global Missions, Conference Secretary of (CSGM): In Greater New Jersey, the position of CSGM is also held by the Chair of the Board of Global Ministries. The CSGM works with the General Board of Global Ministries in accommodating missionaries who will be itinerating in our Conference. During 2015 Brenda and Alex Awad, Jerusalem; Rosangelica Acevedo (Robinson School in Puerto Rico); and Devorah Umipig and Ronald Julian (Japan) itinerated in Greater New Jersey. In the spring of 2016 Sun Lae Kim (Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia) and Katherine Parker (Kathmandu, Nepal) are also visiting.

Grace Rapp attended the National CSGM meeting in New York City Nov. 11 – 13 in place of Barbara who was unable to attend. This was a three-day event of worship, workshops, and the opportunity to meet with current CSGM's of the Northeast Jurisdiction. Some highlights: Thomas Kemper, Secretary General, spoke of the move to the new GBGM facility in Atlanta, Georgia with transfer of some staff to be complete by Fall 2016; the 75th Anniversary of UMCOR celebrated with slide show and a birthday cake; reports from Transformation Generation and UMCOR staff; the development of four regional offices which reinforces the slogan of GBGM "From Everywhere to Everywhere."

NATIONAL PLAN FOR HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

Vision

A diverse and inclusive church that is transforming the community and expanding God's Kingdom.

Mission

To empower Hispanic/Latino leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The National Plan for Hispanic/Latino Ministry has been supporting and strengthening Hispanic Leaders in GNJ. It has also trained leaders and created contextualized training resources. We continue developing a strong laity and clergy with resources in their own language and cultural context as part of our mission and vision of creating Vital Congregations in alignment with the Strategic Plan of the Conference. Our areas of focus are Leadership Development, Spiritual Growth, Social Concerns, Developing New Churches and Small Groups and Youth and Young Adult Ministry.

Our Strategic Plan starts by identifying active leaders within our churches and communities of faith, that are committed to learn, work in team with their pastors, other leaders, and with a genuine desire to growth in the Wesleyan theology tradition.

Programs that we have developed:

- The HNP Module I and II trainings were offered in 2015. As a result of this training we have 14 New Lay Missioners of the National Hispanic/Latino Plan in GNJ.
- We continue supporting The Walk to Emmaus in Spanish which is proving to be a highly effective resource to develop lay leadership and spiritual growth. Pastors are reporting an increased level of participation and commitment to the local church in those that have experienced Emmaus. We're also seeing an increased understanding of the concept of servant-leadership, among Hispanic/Latino laity. This year we had over 40 new pilgrims participate in the Walk to Emmaus Retreat.
- We supported IGNITE 2015. More than 75 Hispanic youth participated. As a result they are doing Rallies among our churches and engaging and worshipping God in their own way with their gifts and talents. As the result of this effort we are developing a strategy to develop and organize our Youth and Young Adults with more intentionality understanding that they are part of the present and future of the church. They meet and start organizing their Annual Retreat Niños y Jovenes para Cristo for the summer 2016 with the support and guidance of Rev. Charles Perez, Rev. Rolando Santiago, Rev. Hector A Burgos, Milagros Soto- Pillot and Jazelis Adorno-Burgos.
- Our Laity Biblical Academy - (SELAH) provides enhanced/contextualized theological education for lay leaders from a Wesleyan perspective in Spanish. The 2 year program covers topics such as Church History, Systematic Theology, UMC doctrine and polity, Worship/Preaching, Evangelism, and more. This program is making theological education available to lay leaders that otherwise would not be able to have it, do to affordability, immigration status, and/or family/job responsibilities. The academy started in September 2014, with 19 laity students, and its being facilitated by experienced clergy with a strong theological and ministry background in our denomination. We are in the second year program with a total of 22 students.
- We offer connection among our clergy families. Two annual gatherings to enjoy one another and to play dominoes, games, good food and relax. (summer and winter)
- We celebrate after the Annual conference the new appointments and ordinations from our Hispanic Clergies. Very proud of our new leaders that have decide to answer their call.
- We have three New Hispanics Ministries hosted by English/Korean speaking churches. We celebrate their vision and desire to be in ministry with the Hispanic/Latino community.

God is working in new and different ways. The Hispanic population keeps rapidly growing and we need a space to worship God and to feel his love in a lot of places in New Jersey. They are so many challenges in the Latino community. We are looking forward for more Hispanic Vital Congregations, for more Pastors willing to serve in different ways, for new churches opening the doors to serve the Hispanics/Latino Communities. God is up to something! We invite all to join us as we seek to expand the reign of God and transform the world in the love of Jesus Christ.

National Plan Hispanic/Latino Committee, on behalf of the committee

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES (CoNAM)

This Committee worked with the Conference on setting up an Act of Repentance Service at the 2014 Annual Conference. The Indigenous Welcome was given by Mr. Mark Gould, the Chief of the Lenni Lenape Tribe which is part of the Nanticoke Lenni

REPORTS

Lenape Confederation. The 2015 Indigenous Welcome was given by Rev. Roy Bundy, the pastor of St. John's UMC in Fordville. This church is designated as a Native American Methodist Church and has been in existence 175 years. We hope to see this welcome continue as a part of our Annual Conferences.

We continue to work with the Lenni Lenape Tribe by:

- Supporting their Youth Camp and assisting youth with Peg Leg Flamingo participation.
- At one of CoNAM meetings, we shared with people about a trip to the historical site of the Carlisle Indian School some of the members attending. Some of the Lenape people were interested in attending as well. On June 4, 2015, forty five (45) people went on the trip. We plan to do a trip for Conference members.
- Rev. Doug Mackey from the Upper NY Conference came to St. John's UMC as a part of his seminary course. He shared how a Native American Ministries Sunday (NAMS) training could be as he shared resources from their Act of Repentance Service. With this type of training, the CoNAM will do a training for the Conference during Regional Day of Learning conferences in 2017.
- The history of the relationship between the Tribe and St. John's UMC needs to be recorded and the Archive Center at Drew University is working with the Tribe and the church to record this history.
- St. John's UMC is a part of the eight week Bridgeton Summer Program. It was held for two weeks at each church from June 29-August 21, 2015. A total of 120 children were in attendance, with 38 attending at St. John's UMC. St. John's used an in-house Native American immersion curriculum and explored how the culture and Christianity partner together to glorify the Creator. From that program, more Tribal youth are attending church and a youth program is being established by the church.

We want to develop a working relationship with the other two Tribes in the conference, they are the Powhatan Tribe in Burlington County in Central New Jersey and the Ramapough Lunaape Tribe in the Northwest corner of New Jersey in the Hunterdon County area. We will be working the District Superintendents in those areas to look at ways to open up a dialogue.

We are aware that many Native people from the state and from other places are attending colleges in New Jersey. While they are in the state, the Committee would like to be supportive of them. We are working with the Reform Church of America on a Welcome Center at the Rutgers University in New Brunswick. As we develop a plan to work with Rutgers, we will see how this activity can be presented at other schools. The Committee continue to see how native people and issues can be included into the life and work of the Conference.

Conference Committee on Native American Ministries (CoNAM)

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Vitality. Transformational Leadership. Effectiveness.

These are some of the words to which we are drawn in today's Church. They speak to both the beauty and the urgency of ministry. And they speak with power to the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry. For ours is a work of deep discernment for the sake of the God Who Calls.

When a member of my church asks me about the work of the Board, I am always eager to tell of my awe for the diverse ways in which God calls and the diverse stories of human response. I remain enthralled with the innumerable avenues through which God beckons God's children into ministry.

Through varied people with varying gifts, God continues to share grace with the world.

In seeking to serve this God Who Calls, the Board engages in tasks that may at times look like just "processes," but are, in truth, paths that lead to deep discernment and lasting empowerment. The journey of questions and mentorship and assessments and interviews and site visits (and so much more) is a rich and powerful pilgrimage of deep listening, for the individual and for the community.

In this deep listening, it is our privilege and our responsibility to equip those who are called, in order that each may fully claim the gifts God has given, and may use them with joy.

REPORTS

In attending to the unique spiritual timbre God has given for ministry, the door is then opened for the very things we seek: vitality, effectiveness, and even transformation. We find that these words, when we hold them with care, tap into the great mystery of how God is at work in our midst.

This quadrennium has held many important changes for the Board, as reflected in previous reports. This year, in addition to our standing responsibilities, we have been tending to the need for greater staff support, to include staffing for recruitment; we have been exploring assessment tools in languages other than English, to care for our community; and we have made the transition from the Online Candidacy Application System (OCAS) to UMCARES.

We have joined with Conference leadership in envisioning the future of vibrant ministry, continued to evolve the written requirements of candidates to reflect current insights, and nurtured the individual journeys of persons under our care.

As this season comes to an end, I would offer a word of deep thanks to all the persons who serve on the Board, for their countless hours attending to matters of call and community, their willingness to wrestle with complex issues, their commitment to care for the persons responding to God's call, and above all their openness to the movement of the Spirit.

We also thank Beverly Karlovich for her indispensable administrative wisdom and care; her grace and diligence have been integral to our work. It has been a privilege and joy to serve among such faithful servant leaders. Collectively, we understand that we are responding to a sacred calling to engage in discernment, be attentive to the movement of the Spirit, and celebrate what God is doing in our midst. It is our privilege to serve the God Who Calls.

Shawn Callender Hogan
Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry

PARISH AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The members of the Parish and Community Development Committee met on September 17, 2015, and participated in the Conference's Board, Agencies and Committees Strategic Session on January 9, 2016. We have reviewed our goals and affirm our recommendation to have them be examined by the Connectional Ministries Team.

1. Find out how many of our churches would be considered local-community-churches verses mostly commuter-churches. This statistic would encourage conversations that would help us to define the very terms parish and community as they present themselves within our conference, and would be beneficial in the planning of effective clergy and laity peer group conversations and inter-congregational relationships.
2. Connectional Database for our Conference. We propose the creation of a database that would have relevant reference information for ministry and outreach by offering a central place of parish-community resources for our GNJUMC family. Our vision is that it would serve as a comprehensive connectional tool that would help us to see the richness of gifts and experience that we already have in our churches and that would encourage collaboration among our congregations. The purpose of the database would not be to simply show success stories to be duplicated. We understand that every community and church is unique, but we also know that we can learn from one another and that our ministries can be enriched by the sharing of our experiences. Therefore, we propose the following:
 - a) Creation of a Connectional Database to include data to be sent by laity and clergy and to include categories such as personal experiences, gifts and graces, areas of expertise, work experience, success stories, and failures.
 - b) That the information inputted into the database would show anonymously and would be reviewed prior to posting ideally by a lay person within our conference who has experience with statistics.
 - c) Care would be given to designing a system that allows contact with persons for additional sharing without making their personal information public.

May the work of our Conference always be led by the Spirit of God with us.

Maylis de la Fe, chairperson

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

The Greater New Jersey Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (the Board) is authorized by The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church to contribute to the support, relief, assistance and pensioning of clergy and their families, as well as other church workers and lay employees of the United Methodist Church. Working with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Board endeavors to implement and interpret national and conference policy.

REPORTS

PENSION

Pre-1982 Pension Plan

The 2016 Past Service Annuity Rate for pre-1982 annuitant payment is $646 per year of pre-1982 service. The 2017 Past Service Annuity Rate for pre-1982 annuitant payment will be $658. The pre-1982 pension program continues to be fully funded and in a strong position.

CRSP/MPP and CPP

The General Conference's pension plan, Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is a hybrid of defined benefit and defined contribution approaches which took effect in 2007. For 2016 churches pay CRSP at 12.5% of clergy plan compensation and for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) at 3% of full time clergy's plan compensation, totaling 15.5% of plan compensation. For less than full time clergy, the CPP rate is 3.4% of Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) for 3/4 time and 1/2 time, and 4.4% of DAC for optional coverage (1/4 time and leave status).

The 2012 General Conference enacted changes to the Clergy Retirement Security Program. Effective 1/1/2014 for all contributions going forward, the CRSP Defined Benefit component was reduced from 1.25% of DAC to 1.0% of DAC. Under the CRSP Defined Contribution component, contributions were reduced from 3% to 2% of clergy plan compensation and, in addition, match up to 1% of compensation if clergy contributes 1% to UMPIP. Contributions previously made will not be affected by this change and benefits paid upon retirement will be based on the previous formula for all benefits accrued prior to 1/1/2014. Any benefits accrued from that date forward is based on the new formula.

Additionally, the General Conference changed the participation requirements from all clergy under appointment to only clergy under full time appointment. Clergy appointed to less-than-full-time (3/4 and 1/2-time) are eligible based on the decision of the Annual Conference after approval of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Board has voted to include those clergy appointed to less-than-full-time (3/4 and 1/2 time) appointments in CRSP. For clergy appointed to 1/4 time appointments, a vote of the Board has made UMPIP available as a pension option for those clergy. Please contact Alexa Taylor, Benefits Services Manager, for more information on this option. These changes require Annual Conference approval.

The rates of remittance for the Clergy Retirement Security Program/Ministerial Pension Plan (CRSP/MPP) and Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) increased from last year's rates to 95.93% and 95.58% respectively. Twenty percent of churches were unable to pay these bills on time. Below is a summary of 2015 remittances:

Type	Remittances Rate	2014 Shortfall	# of Churches Paying <100%	% of Churches Paying <100 %
CRSP	95.93%	$105,461	63	13.67
CPP	95.58%	$25,906

To maintain clergypersons' participation in CRSP and CPP, the Greater New Jersey Conference fully pays delinquent church accounts using funds from the Reserve Account at the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. We are concerned that some churches are not fully meeting their obligations with the resulting decrease in the Reserve Account.

By 2015 year-end the cumulative delinquent amount for years prior to 2015 was $1,805,000 for CRSP/MPP and $385,000 for CPP - a total of $2,190,000, an increase of $43,000.

We thank those churches that maintained faithful stewardship, paying 100% of their obligation. We also appreciate the continuing efforts of our district superintendents, Alexa Taylor, Benefits Services Manager, to collect the past due balances. More than $185,000 of the 2002-2014 shortfalls was collected in 2015.

Pre-Retirement Seminars

As in years past, the Board sponsored a retirement education session held at St. Mark United Methodist Church in Hamilton on March 3, 2016. The pre-retirement seminar focuses on those anticipating retirement within five years. Fifty-five persons were scheduled to attend. Presentations by Peter Hang of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, a Social Security representative, and Barbara Gruezke, Insurance Coordinator, provided valuable guidance to assist retirement planning. Special thanks go to Donna Hough for organizing these events and to St. Mark UMC for their gracious hospitality. Thanks also to Alexa Taylor, Benefits Services Manager, and Barbara Gruezke, Insurance Coordinator for their support.

HEALTH INSURANCE

For 2016, the Board continued Active health insurance under HealthFlex, the health insurance plan sponsored by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The medical and prescription benefits changed from 2015, but still is the richest plan HealthFlex provides. The medical provider network is Blue Cross/Blue Shield PPO; the pharmacy benefits are provided through Catamaran. Beginning in 2015, the General Board no longer offers retiree health insurance. The Board implemented United HealthCare's National Medicare Advantage PPO Plan which combines the participants' Medicare A & B, supplemental coverage and Part D prescription plan.

The Board has again provided a contribution to participants' Health Reimbursement Accounts for 2016 of $1,250 for single and $2,500 for all other plan types which can be used for qualifying medical expenses (such as co-pays and deductibles). These funds do not expire and are accessed through a MasterCard branded debit card, or via a reimbursement form.

Premiums and Remittances

The following chart shows church premium rates in effect for 2016. These rates reflect a Cabinet- requested blended rate for all categories, which the Board has been moving toward for several years, so that health insurance premiums are not a factor in determining clergy appointments.

Health Insurance Premiums for 2016
Employee	$14,000
Employee & Child(ren)	$14,000
Employee & Spouse	$14,000
Employee & Family	$14,000

The Board thanks all churches that fully paid their health insurance premiums in 2015. Overall, churches paid 99% of the total $4,276,240 health insurance billings, an increase from the 2014 remittance rate of 98%. The 2015 shortfall was approximately $40,000. By 2015 year end, the amount owed from years prior to 2015 had been reduced by $224,824 and the cumulative unpaid health insurance bills had increased to $2,830,113 owed for years prior to 2015.

Churches failing to fully pay their premiums burden all churches and result in higher health insurance premiums for all. Thanks go to the Conference/BOPHB Treasurer John Cardillo, Insurance Coordinator Barbara Gruezke, and the Cabinet for their continued efforts to collect health insurance arrearages.

The Board and the Conference staff have continued their efforts to ease the continued transitions in healthcare. The Health Insurance Guidelines included in these 2016 Conference Reports and Recommendations have been updated.

Annuitant Health Care Liability

As of the end of 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board FAS 158 liability for annuitant healthcare costs in the amount of $51.6 million was posted to the Conference balance sheet. This liability is the estimated present value of the future costs of annuitant healthcare. The Annuitant Health Insurance Contingency Fund described below has been set up to address this large liability over time.

Annuitant Health Insurance Contingency Fund

In 2002-2003 the Board, recognizing the growing magnitude of annuitant healthcare costs, together with the Centenary Fund, representatives of CFA, the Cabinet and the Association of Retired Ministers and Spouses (ARMS), developed a plan for a long term Annuitant Health Insurance Contingency Fund that begins to offset the liability and ensure that retirees continue to enjoy conference-paid health insurance. The Fund was initiated by the 2003 GNJ Annual Conference and earmarked exclusively for healthcare costs for annuitants to cover higher premium costs expected in future years. The plan for the Fund involves a multi-year period during which excess pre-1982 retirement funds would be used to pay CRSP defined-benefit requirements, and comparable funds from churches would be used to create a permanent retiree health fund. This is a critical initiative since it is clear that the Conference cannot continue to fund retiree health insurance on a cash basis out of the Conference Budget.

As of December 31, 2015, the Annuitant Health Insurance Contingency Fund held a balance of $8,985,134 after transferring $467,618 to the Annuitant Health Insurance Account to avoid a negative balance in that account at year-end. In 2015 approximately $3,055,204 came into the Contingency Fund (representing the 2% clergy and staff salary contributions toward the cost of health insurance) plus the Centenary Fund's annual contribution (in excess of $300,000, separate from their $100,000 contribution directly to the Annuitant Health Insurance Account).

The Board Itself

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits endeavors to serve the Conference and the needs of those in ministry. There continues to be much to accomplish, especially in the challenging field of health insurance. Christ strengthens us to meet these challenges and we pray for the Holy Spirit to guide and inspire our actions.

PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE PROGRAM OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

2016 Insurance Renewal:

The 2016 insurance renewal process resulted in a $129,721 premium increase or 3% versus the 2015 costs. This includes a re-inspection of all conference properties which were completed by 12/31/15. In 2011, Hurricane Irene damages, and a total fire loss, contributed to a 189% loss ratio for the property insurance. There were also adverse claim developments for the workers' compensation coverage resulting in a 110% loss ratio for that line of business. In 2012, Super Storm Sandy damages resulted in a Conference loss ratio of 129%. In addition, there were several significant workers' compensation claims for the 2012 - 2013 policy term. The Conference has been with Mercer Insurance Company for most of its coverage since 2004, and has an overall loss ratio of 80%. The Board of Trustees believes the long term relationship with Mercer, and Sovereign's negotiations on our behalf, allowed the Conference to avoid a steep premium increase or an outright non-renewal of insurance. In 2013, the wind damage deductible was increased from $1,000 to $5,000 for 98 churches that fall into the insurers wind hazard zone. Most carriers are now imposing percentage deductibles for wind zones, such as 3% of insured values, so the deductible increase is the better option for the Conference. In the event of a wind loss, the Board of Trustees intends to cover the increased wind damage deductible for affected churches from its surplus funds. The insurer continues to cover up to 25% more than the declared property value of any church, providing a level of protection from unexpectedly high damage reconstruction costs. Mercer has re-inspected and re-appraised all Conference owned properties.

Workers' Compensation:

The Workers' Compensation coverage is with Church Mutual Insurance Company effective December 1, 2013. Workers' Compensation premiums were increased from $418,052 to $629,426 due to a statewide rate increase in New Jersey, adverse claims development, and an experience modification factor increase.

Automobile Insurance:

The Board of Trustees continues to make available a voluntary automobile insurance program for church-owned vehicles. The 2016 premium cost is just under 1% than in 2015. Each church has access to this insurance program and pays the premium cost for any vehicle insured.

Claims Experience:

As previously noted, the Conference loss ratio was very unfavorable for the 2011, 2012 and 2013 policy years due to several large loss events. The Board of Trustees believes Mercer Insurance understands well the nature of the GNJAC loss exposures and reacted in good faith with the 2016 renewal after those three consecutive unprofitable years. However, if losses continue in this fashion they could negatively impact the overall cost of insurance; our current three year loss ratio with Mercer is 82%.

Large Losses:

The unfavorable loss experience of those three years were driven by large losses each year. In 2011 the Conference sustained nearly $900,000 in Hurricane Irene claims from 66 churches and a fire loss totaling over $2 million. Super storm Sandy losses in 2012 totaled $1.8 million from damages to 134 churches. In 2013 $4.2 million in losses from two workers' compensation claims were sustained.

REPORTS

Parity Implementation:

The Parity Implementation Plan approved at the 2007 Annual Conference session continues to be implemented according to the original plan. In 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and again for 2016, the Board of Trustees has funded parity relief from Board of Trustee's fund balances.

Surplus:

The Board of Trustees endeavors to complete each policy year with a positive fund balance. The accumulated surplus is used to cover uncollectible premiums, fund cash flow in order to pay insurers timely, pay deductible differentials, and fund parity relief. Surplus is also potentially needed to offset future rate increases and uninsured/underinsured defense costs and losses as prescribed by the Cabinet.

The Board of Trustees believes that it is crucial to maintain the surplus position given the adverse claim experience of the past three years. The Board anticipates no addition to the surplus position in 2016.

Summary:

The Board of Trustees encourages each church to take advantage of the assistance available through Sovereign Insurance (800-222-4478), the Conference insurance program's broker. The Conference insurance program does not include flood insurance. We remind churches, particularly those located in a flood zone, of the need to purchase flood insurance; Sovereign Insurance is prepared to help with that process.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

"To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice." Proverbs 21:3

At outset, I would like to thank the members of the Greater New Jersey Commission of Religion and Race (GNJCORR) and the members of the GNJ CORR Monitoring /Advisory Team for their work and valuable contributions to this ministry. GNJ CORR is called to engage in activities consistent with role of the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR). "GCORR is the core agency within the United Methodist Church tasked with empowering the Church to pursue racial equity and cultural competency to build a stronger, more vibrant UMC." Similarly, GNJ CORR is charged with this same task in the Greater New Jersey Conference (GNJ). By promoting full and equal participation of the racial and ethnic constituency in the total life and mission of the church, GNJ CORR seeks to empower clergy and laity to develop transformational leaders and vital congregations.

In 2015, GNJ CORR continued with the goals of 1. Providing resources and training; and 2. Supporting and providing programs of cultural competency, racial justice and reconciliation. Specifically, the 2015 activities were as follow:

Resources and training

- GNJ CORR is working to develop collaborative solutions for presenting "The Conversation About Race" for clergy and laity. We entered a conversation with Drew Theological School to have "The Conversation About Race" hosted at Drew thereby allowing seminarians and other members of the Drew Community to benefit from "The Conversation About Race".
- GNJ CORR is supportive of Bishop Schol's development of the 10-year Cultural Competency Plan, as well as the Bishop's plan for repentance and reconciliation for the African Americans who remained in the United Methodist Church. We encourage building a foundation of information and education about the historical, legal, financial, religious and socio-political context of race, racism and racialized systems of oppression and exclusion. Acknowledging that we do not live in a post-racial or colorblind America, repentance and reconciliation is necessary to build a community of faith that works diligently towards the dismantling of racism in GNJ, the United Methodist Church and in this country, thereby allowing all of God's children access and equity.
- GNJ CORR worked with The Board of Church and Society and the Commission on Christian Unity and Interfaith Relationships to sponsor a dessert event in which Katey Zeh, Project Director, Healthy Families, Healthy Planet of the General Board of Church and Society was the keynote speaker. She addressed the topic of "Building Multicultural, Ecumenical Partnerships for Global Health"

Supporting and providing programs of cultural competency, racial justice and reconciliation

REPORTS

- GNJ CORR works collaboratively with the General Board of Church and Society (GBCS) in the area of Fighting Mass Incarceration. In addition to advocacy, GNJ provides Healing Communities Restorative Justice training for individuals and congregations interested in working with people who are leaving prison. As a follow-up to the 2015 Healing Communities training, GNJ CORR trained an additional twenty-four people including three people who were trained as Healing Communities' trainers: The Reverends Lourdes Magalhaes, Denise M. Wooten-Troutman and Vanessa M. Wilson. The Reverend Drs. Sonia King and Brian Jackson from the Baltimore Washington Conference conducted the training. The training equipped members of congregations with to work with "returning citizens", those people who are returning from incarceration. The training was sponsored by GNJ CORR, GBCS, The National Religious Campaign Against Torture (NRCAT) and Rutgers University School of Law that provided the training site. GNJ CORR continues to engage in legislative advocacy along with other agencies and organizations in this area.
- Rev. Wilson represented GNJ CORR at Senator Lesniak's Roundtable discussion concerning solitary confinement.

GNJ CORR looks forward to continuing to serve GNJ through training, consultation, research and advocacy to empower clergy and laity to be able to be an effective witness for Christ in a diverse world.

Respectfully submitted,

The Reverend Vanessa M. Wilson, J.D.

COMMISSION FOR THE SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCH

This Commission was approved by the GNJ Annual Conference and organized in 2015. Responsibility of the Commission is to be in harmony with the Conference mission and Strategic Plan. The Commission will focus on helping the small membership church to realize its full potential through providing resources, support and encouragement to become vital congregations. The goal of the Commission is to focus on equipping, developing and strengthening clergy and laity to become effective leaders. In order to meet this goal, the following objectives have been established:

- a) To define and determine the demographics what is a small membership church with regard to size, and location urban, suburban, rural; Is the congregation older? Declining? Stable?
- b) To advocate and support small membership churches throughout the Conference by providing resources and people that will assist churches to grow as vital congregations
- c) To help small churches determine mission objectives that will help them to connect and serve their communities.
- d) To center on worship as one of the markers of a vital congregation.
- e) To provide opportunities for training, coaching and educating the leadership of the church.
- f) To find funding that can be used to help meet the goals and objectives.

Small Membership Commission is an important ministry of the Annual Conference. As all churches' mission is to make disciples. A small membership congregation is more than numbers, although size does count. The Commission will assist small churches to pursue their mission, vision and any challenges they may have in becoming vital congregations.

In His Grip,

Millie Grey, Chair

COMMISSION FOR THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN (COSROW)

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people (1Timothy 4:9-10a)

COSROW, is the Annual Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women, that is made up of women and men, laity and clergy who are dedicated to advocate the full and equal participation and equipping of women as transformational leaders in the total life of the church to make a difference in the vitality of our conference and its local churches. The mission of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women is to challenge The United Methodist Church at all levels to work for full and equal participation of women in the total life of the denomination, including ordination of women, equal access to policy-making and recognition that Jesus Christ calls men and women alike to salvation, liberation, discipleship and service in church and society. It is with great joy that I have been able to serve continually with dedicated team members throughout this past year. COSROW in the Greater New Jersey Conference carried out its purpose through the following projects: (1) Helena Alter Davission Award: We developed a new award and awarded Rev. Dr. Jusun Kwak as its first recipient at the 2015 Annual Conference. We are honored to award Rev. Patricia L. L. Bruger in 2016 to affirm her courageous and transformational leadership. (2) Leadership Development: Four clergy members attended Do No Harm Leadership Training “Best Practices for Health, Accountability and Wholeness.” (3) Sexual Ethics Training/Workshop on Thursday, April 14: Its goals are to raise awareness of sexual ethics and issues, prevent sexual abuse, promote healthy boundaries, and bring about justice and healing. (4) Response Team training: Seven clergy members received training to support others in moving forward in healing and to provide education to help others understand the nature of sexual misconduct by a faith leader. (5) Display Table at the Annual Conference to promote our ministry and provide resources for our mission goals. Lastly, I would like to give thanks to our members for their faithful service: Sonia Cancel, Maxine Harris, Gilbert Morris, Diane Pacione, Iraida Ruiz De Porras, Marcia Roebuck, Yoomi Yi, Evan Rohrs-Dodge, and Beth Caulfield, who is a Conference liaison.

Michelle Ryoo, Chair

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Officers of the Board are: Chairperson – Rev. Clifford Still; Vice-Chairperson – Rev. James Ryoo; Secretary – MaryBeth Scherer. The following Trustees serve as liaisons to the properties for which the Board is responsible: Ed Bowen, Vicci Hahn, Rev. Hosuk Chung, Judy Hopkins, Jack Green, Rev. Peter Broomall, Rev. David Lehmkuhl, Rev. Rupert Hall, Tracy Estes.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance/care of the following properties: the Episcopal residence, nine District parsonages, the previous Palisades District parsonage situated in Harrington Park, NJ, the building in Paterson, NJ, as well as the Conference Office building. Additionally, they oversee the actions needed to be taken in reference to churches and parsonages that have been closed, representative of formal action taken at prior Annual Conferences. Seven cemeteries are also under the care of Trustees.

Some items of note as a result of Trustee action taken during the 2016 Conference Year:

- In response to action taken at the 2013 Annual Conference, the Trustees have begun construction of the new Conference office building on the two acre lot in Neptune, NJ. Expected date of occupancy is early 2016. The present Conference office is listed for sale and is under contract with a tentative closing date of 3/31/16.

The Trustees are privileged to work with, and receive the cooperation of, many individuals and groups throughout the Conference. The counsel which is offered to the Board from Conference Chancellors Lynn Catterson, Esq. and Sanford Brown, Esq. is invaluable. John Cardillo, Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, serves as Treasurer of the Board and Alexa Taylor, Benefits Services Manager, serves as staff liaison to the Board. As a result of their guidance and expertise in reference to overall financial resources of the GNJAC and specifically the funds which the Board oversees, the Trustees are better equipped to prioritize and responsibly address the needs of the various properties. Likewise, the work of the Board has been enhanced this year with the presence of The Rev. Wayne Plumstead as Cabinet liaison. His dedication, leadership and interest in the matters of the Trustees, particularly as they interface with the Conference in general, is very much appreciated. The Conference Trustees are also grateful for the opportunity to work more closely with Bishop Schol and the Cabinet during the course of this Conference year.

UNITED METHODIST HOMES OF NEW JERSEY

Since the United Methodist Homes of New Jersey (UMHNJ) board of directors approved the Strategic Plan 2013 - 2017, we have done much and published this progress in the last two annual reports. The theme for our fiscal year 2015 annual report, Share the Magic of UMH, continues to chart that journey.

With Alliance Rehab, Bristol Glen and The Shores at Wesley Manor implemented SeniorFITness, a venture which supports a longstanding priority — improving resident function, quality-of-life and independence. Led by professional exercise physiologists, the multidisciplinary program, designed to be both fun and functional for older adults, improves strength, balance, mobility and mental well-being through a wide assortment of activities. As residents age, improving balance is one of the keys to preventing falls.

A significant step toward the Strategic Plan's expansion of Home and Community Based Services occurred in June 2015 with the launching of The Arms Café at Wesleyan Arms. They have partnered with Home Helpers of Monmouth County and the Visiting Nurse Association of Central Jersey to promote living and learning for the area's older adults. PineRidge of Montclair's resource hub and meeting place, Senior Space, successfully continues to offer weekly social interaction, physical exercise and lifelong learning at the Montclair Public Library.

As both hubs engage into and with their local communities, the varied calendars include: chair yoga or Zumba®, art, technology, reading and book club discussions, meeting new friends, walking groups, finding information, enjoying the company of others, and more. Resource coordinators offer information about elder care to individuals and their families. This allows access to important resources to successfully age in place at home: meals, home care, tele-health, and chore, social and transportation connections.

Our full-service communities continue to transition from a medical model in healthcare to household models, creating environments where residents can live fulfilling, meaningful and self-directed lives. The Shores at Wesley Manor has developed three neighborhoods of approximately 20 residents each. These establish a person-centered model of caring for residents, giving them greater control over their daily routines. We invested almost two years bringing key stakeholders together to learn about and create the model. Conceptual plans of similar scope are in the works for Collingswood, followed by Bristol Glen and then Pitman.

REPORTS

As planned and in harmony with Service Expansion, The Shores at Wesley Manor opened six hospice-dedicated apartments in April 2015. Located in a private assisted living neighborhood, each one-bedroom apartment has been custom designed for individuals facing terminal illness that no longer responds to curative treatment. The expertise of the multi-disciplinary hospice team includes advanced, traditional and alternative therapies; 24-hour nursing oversight; medication management; certified caregivers; emotional and spiritual support; personal services; and palliative care for symptom management and pain control. Welcoming gathering spaces for families and friends complement a nurturing atmosphere.

We refreshed our mission, vision and values statements and celebrated Commissioning Services for our executive directors and housing administrators. This focus on our Wesleyan Christian values segued into Missioning Services for all associates at each community. They honored associates and their call by God to a ministry of caregiving and affirmed the important impact associates make using their unique gifts and embracing our core values of compassion, respect, stewardship and service. Additionally, Spiritual Care Teams and local Mission Teams have been formed to develop creative ideas for celebrating the Homes' mission and values in the future.

United Methodist Homes concluded fiscal year 2015 with an overall increase in net 1 assets. We completed a refinancing of debt in October which reduced the amount of interest expense that UMHNJ must pay on our outstanding debt and this resulted in a large decrease in interest expense in 2015. Therefore, through this positive stewardship, we are realizing savings and able to retain more of our cash for other ministry purposes. This promotes goals under the Strategic Plan's mandate to Strengthen the Financial Position of the Ministry.

Through the analysis of hospital discharge documentation, all of the full-service communities have created a specialty clinical niche within their respective healthcare centers. Bristol Glen offers a pulmonary specialty while The Shores focuses on cardiac rehabilitation. This initiative has effectively aligned us with several hospitals for stronger referrals and consistency of clinical care as people move from hospital to home.

As accountable care organizations and bundled payments have surfaced as key strategies of the federal government to control the cost and quality of healthcare, our ability to reduce hospital readmission rates and track key clinical performance metrics have proved invaluable. This is critically important for our future and will distinguish UMHNJ in the marketplace. We continue conversations with several accountable care organizations and major insurance companies.

To advance the Strategic Plan's mandate to strengthen the Organizational Human Capital, considerable time has been devoted to developing foundational human resources policies and best associate relations practices, including the Fair Treatment Process. Consistent with those outcomes, we issued an Associate Resource Guide. The recruitment, hiring and on-boarding of new talent now aligns with the organizational values. Also, within human resources and aligned with Integrating the UMHNJ Mission into the Fabric of the Ministry, we are assimilating our values into the organizational job descriptions and reinventing the performance evaluation process. In order to make decisions consistent with our organizational values, we are creating a Wesleyan decision-making model.

Share the Magic of UMH, a daylong event filled with magic, music, information and inspiration, occurred in May 2015. The day held some very serious purposes: bringing together associates who work in eleven unique locations; affirming and acknowledging organization-wide, local site, and individual accomplishments; giving a status report on the Homes; viewing videos featuring the compassionate relationships between associates and residents; and inspiring and motivating staff. Four associates received awards as determined by nominations through an interdisciplinary Awards Committee.

United Methodist Homes of New Jersey is united by our commitment to a noble mission and common purpose. Collectively, we have moved our mission and agenda forward with your help. We do this work for the love of people and for the ways in which our efforts improve the human condition. We do it for our love of Newton, East Orange, Montclair, Neptune, Plainfield, Red Bank, Ocean Grove, Ocean City, Collingswood, and Pitman. And we do it for the love of residents who have entrusted their housing and care needs to us for over 108 years.

While much work remains toward the Strategic Plan's initiatives, we will continue to embrace omnipresent change and grow. We thank you for your many demonstrations of love, energy, passion, support, and faithfulness, especially to the Fellowship Fund, the cornerstone of our charitable mission. God bless you and the role you play facilitating United Methodist Homes' abundant life.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Men – according to the General Commission of Methodist Men in Nashville we are struggling. Fewer churches are renewing their charters or becoming chartered for the first time. Thank you for those churches that have been and continue to be chartered.

Reasons given for not chartering from our own churches are:

- $80.00 annual fee is too high
- What are we getting for being chartered
- Our men's group has folded
- Pastor does not support the men
- Only have age 60 and above attending our men's group

Ok, enough about reasons why are churches are not participating with the General Commission of Methodist Men.

- $80.00 is not a lot of money – look how much you spend on sporting events, eating out, movies, coffee, etc. - what do we get - personal enjoyment or full from eating
- Please look at the UMM General Commission web site www.gcumm.org to see what your $80.00 supports.

If your men's group has folded why not consider meeting quarterly with another church or two. There are many churches like yours that have a desire to have men get together, but are small in numbers. Try it. In Matthew 18:20 we read "For where 2 or more are gathered in My name, there am I in the midst of them".

Pastors' not supporting the men of your church is only an excuse. Pray about it and talk to the Pastor why he or she does not support United Methodist Men. Be strong and gather together in the name of Jesus Christ for fellowship, devotion, prayer, sharing and missions.

Younger men not coming to church men's events is certainly an issue. Our young men today are so stretched with work, their families, sports, etc. These men do not want to sit through a meeting. How can we get them involved in men's ministry? This is your challenge. This is our challenge. Please forward to me walkerrn@comcast.net if your church is reaching out to this age group.

Getting together for a conference men's gathering has been difficult. Men do not want to travel far from home for a men's event. Our conference has now grouped our 9 districts into 3 regions. In 2016 & 2017 there will be regional gatherings for the United Methodist Men, Having 3 gatherings travel time will be less and participation should be greater.

Men let us continue to witness for Christ and to tell others what God has done for us. We do not need a formal setting or a soap box to do this. Opportunities to do this can arise any time if we are alert to them.

In Luke we read "Good people do good things because of the good in their hearts". Please send me what good things are occurring with the men in your church so they can be shared with other churches.

Thank you for what you are doing in your local church, community, family, district and conference.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The United Methodist Women continue to fight for the rights of women, children and youth. We practice Faith, Hope and Love in action. This includes our support for social actions causes. We continue to help women who are victims of domestic violence, and those forced into human trafficking. We fight for the rights of women and children being held in our immigration detention centers and the need for legal representation to keep families together.

REPORTS

We continue to acknowledge racial justice issues. Many of us traveled to Blackstone, VA , where nine conferences attended a Charter for Racial Justice seminar. We discussed issues concerning the United Methodist Women. Our delegates for General Conference and our Bishop received information expressing our concerns for racial justice. A committee was created to become involved with our state legislators to work with the United Methodist Women and its social action issues.

The United Methodist Women have concerns about those affected by mass incarceration and provide support for those victims who are returning back into society. We also are fighting for providing equal pay for women and supporting the working poor. This includes petitioning major food chains and restaurants to practice fair labor laws for migrant workers and their families.

A campaign was launched with The League of Women's Voters to register our youth, and seniors in assisted living facilities. It is important to document addresses changes for absentee ballots and provide the opportunity to vote during the upcoming presidential elections.

Environmental justices are another form of support to save our environment with its climate changes. This is one of the studies being presented this year at Mission "U." Our 2015 UMW spring meetings addressed some of these issues. We had a program on "Going Green" and " Living after Super Storm Sandy." We learned how to prepare our own natural cleaning products such as all-purpose cleaner, furniture polish and laundry soap. Then we discussed how NJ disposed of the trash accumulated from the homes destroyed by Sandy. This included cleaning up the debris from beaches and the back bays from the flooding. Our other environmental event included "Saving the Bees." Our bees are being destroyed by the use of GMO's. This is the use of genetically altered seeds which affect the bees and destroy their hives. Bees are an important part of our food chain in pollinating our crops and fruit trees.

2015 brought awareness to our sisters of different cultures and race. Our Korean and Hispanic language coordinator and Conference presidents gathered in Nashville, TN for " VOICES," a seminar presented by UMW National. We discussed topics on how to be more inclusive with our Korean and Hispanic sisters. Also we discussed choosing your delegates for General Conference and to keep the decisions in prayer.

Mission "U" / Cooperative School of Christian Mission theme for 2015 was "In Christ a new creation!" 2 Corinthians 5:17b. This again included three- day weekend studies at Georgian Court University, Lakewood, NJ. Saturday included a one- day school experience. The study themes were Created for Happiness, Latin America: People and Faith, The Church and People with Disabilities. The Conference study session was The Church, Policing and The New Jim Crow. Classes were provided in Korean and Spanish for our Korean and Hispanic United Methodist Women. We also included programs for our children and youth. This year our worship services were held in Korean and Spanish with translation in English. This was a new experience and was well received. Our love offering supported The Amistad After School Program. Our ingathering included collecting can goods for the Food Bank of New Jersey.

Our fall meeting involved speakers Deaconess Molly Vickery and Rev. Vanessa Wilson who brought us information and biblical support in Maternal Child Health issues. Music was provided by Grace Pugh -Hubbard. Our ingathering collected 124 layette kits and extra supplies with funding for shipping and handling were sent to The Northfield Hub for UMCOR distribution.

The Greater New Jersey United Methodist Women sent representatives to United Nations Seminar supporting twenty years of addressing women's issues around the world. Our ladies spent time discussing racial justice issues. Also they addressed the abuse of women and promoting improving self -esteem and education for women with our global missionaries.

Several of our women also attended the United Methodist Women National Seminar in Chicago, IL. The theme was Interrupting Indifference: Jesus Justice and Joy. The National Seminar equipped and empowered its participants to engage leaders for social justice by practicing skills and tools to respond to current social issues.

Through the participation in the global ministries for the church the United Methodist Women continue to practice Faith, Hope and Love in Action.

Blessings,
Marilyn Powell

Joan W. Bort

January 15, 2016

Mrs. Joan W. Bort, wife to Rev. David J. Bort, passed away on January 15th, 2016 at the age of 85. Joan was a graduate of Roxbury High School in Succasunna, NJ (1947) and Trenton State Teachers College (1951). In 1953 at Lake Hopatcong United Methodist Church, she met her husband of 61 years, Rev. David J. Bort and began a lifelong partnership in education and worship. They had two children, David and Susan.

Self-taught on the piano at a very young age, Joan had a love of music that never faded. Her passion for music and teaching young children blended to make her a beloved and inspiring teacher who introduced countless children to singing, piano and other instruments for many generations in New Jersey and Vermont. She was musical director at Zion Episcopal Church Preschool in Manchester Vermont for 15 years. She played the organ for many years both at West Arlington and Sandgate United Methodist Churches in Vermont, her beautiful voice leading the congregation's even while at the organ. She particularly loved organizing and helping children to sing Easter and Christmas music at her churches. She was involved in numerous community choral groups and special performances such as Carmina Burana with VSO and St. James' annual Messiah.

Joan enjoyed traveling and was fortunate to have visited the Holy Land, Kenya, Egypt, the Caribbean, much of Europe and the entire US. Visiting the beaches of the Normandy landings and meeting Bishop Desmond Tutu were some of the highlights of her travels.

Joan's dedication and partnership to her husband and his ministry cannot be overstated. She was the ultimate partner working not only at the organ but behind the scenes as well. Their shared ambition for giving of themselves for the greater good of community was always evident. The world will miss Joan's generous and joyous spirit.

Joan is survived by her loving husband David; son David; daughter Susan; son-in-law Chuck; sister Jean Martin (George); nephews Gary Martin (Bill) and Douglas Martin (Martha); niece Pamela Schumacher (David); grandchildren Julienne and Jaxton, and numerous cousins, grandnieces and grandnephews.

Francis M. Coyle

Riverside, formerly Maple Shade

His life and sermons were guided by the Holy Spirit, and though he was just as comfortable to operate behind the scenes, Frank was foremost in everyone's heart. He led the flock at the first United Methodist Church in Riverside until 2008 and was a pastor for many other churches in the area for over 20 years. Earlier years found him teaching in Maple Shade and working as a guidance counselor and assistant principal at Burlington County Vocational School. He was also a member of the American Legion Post #146 in Riverside. Frank enjoyed long car rides and watching the Phillies and Eagles. He coached Riverside PAL softball; he may have had a losing record, but everyone had a blast. Frank served our nation during WWII; he enlisted in the Navy at the age of 17 and had to stay stateside for a year before shipping out to Okinawa.

His teaching job in Maple Shade earned him more than a paycheck. It's there that he'd meet a young Congetta Capparell. They'd marry, settle in his childhood home in Riverside and be blessed by three children: Allison King (Andrew), Beth Ann Goodwin (Tony) and Matthew. Though he may have been a softly when it came to discipline, he laid the foundation for their faith. He is also survived by his granddaughter, Alyssa. He loved watching her soccer games and always enjoyed sharing a little of his wisdom and stories with her.

Come celebrate 88 great years Thursday 5 to 7 p.m. and Friday 10 to 11 a.m. at Sweeney Funeral Home, Riverside where there will be a service at 11. Interment Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the First United Methodist Church in Riverside.

Reginald C. Crute

June 29, 1940 – August 22, 2015

Reginald Clarence Crute (pronounced Crootay) was born on June 29, 1940 in New York City to the late Ruth (Comer) and Frederick Crute. Reginald grew up in Harlem and the Bronx. He attended Harren High School and served his country in the Air Force as a radio-radar maintenance technician.

A “Jack of all trades”, Reginald worked as a heating equipment repairman and had several side businesses based on his curiosity of how things worked, electronics, and technology. He met Raymond Rudisill while working at the New York City Transit Authority and they fast became friends because of their common interest in electronics and technology. Ray and Reginald would be found on any given weekend attending computer shows and “plotting to take over the world.”

In 1984, Reginald met his future wife, Hillary Johnson, while stuck in traffic. She was driving a blue Dodge Diplomat and Reginald mistakenly thought she was an undercover detective. They were married September 11, 1989.

MEMOIRS

Reginald was a faithful servant of God, and his life spoke volumes about the kind of person he is. His faith in God was on display at all times in the faithful way he cared for and served others. He enjoyed helping others and mostly did it anonymously. He would walk in another person's shoes and wasn't afraid to extend himself to meet a need.

Reginald retired from the New York City Transit Authority in 1995, but continued to work. He was last employed by Local 817 "Theatrical Teamsters." When he turned 70, they were required by law to begin paying him retirement, but he continued to work at the job he loved: driving. Despite being diagnosed with prostate cancer, Reginald continued to work up to the end of 2015. He was never bothered by the cancer and lived life to the fullest. He enjoyed driving, visiting new places, helping others, and building computers.

Reginald entered his eternal rest on Saturday, August 22, 2015, surrounded by his wife, Hillary, his aunt, Rebecca, oldest son, Chauncey, younger son, Kevin, his sister from another mother, Marizza, and his brother from another mother, Ray.

In addition to those present, Reginald leaves behind his brother, Frederick Crute ("DJ Red Alert"), oldest daughter, Crystal, younger daughter, Jennifer, and 6 grandchildren: Trey, Devin, Traesi, Brittany, Kamal, and Jordan, daughter in law, Tanya, and son in law, Jerome, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Reginald touched the lives of many and will be missed by all who knew him.

Rev. George and Maxine Schlesinger entered into eternal life on August 4, 2015; within nine hours of each other. An extraordinary couple whose love for each other, their family, and serving God, was evident in everything they did. George served his country in the United States Marine Corp during World War II, and after being discharged, one fateful night while at a local roller skating rink; he convinced Maxine to allow him to drive her home. This was the beginning of their incredible relationship...

When George and Maxine answered their "calling" to enter into full time Christian Service, George was working at Piper Aircraft Assembly Plant in Loch Haven, Pennsylvania. He was quoted in the local newspaper stating "God called me off the assembly line". He began his studies at Lycoming College, completing his four year degree in three years, while serving a three point charge at Oval, Oriole and Antes Forte, Pennsylvania along with raising a family. Upon graduation and being ordained a Deacon in the Methodist Church; he transferred to the Northern New Jersey Conference serving Park Church, Elizabeth while attending Drew University Theological Seminary; where Maxine earned her PTH, Putting Husband Through degree. Upon graduation, George was ordained an Elder in the Methodist Church.

They went to serve the following appointments; Mifflinburg, Pennsylvania, Edison, Westfield and Springfield, New Jersey and retiring from Pearson Memorial United Methodist Church, Hamilton, New Jersey.

George always had a deep and abiding interest in Evangelism, having served as District Secretary of Evangelism as well as on Health and Welfare Conference Committees. His chief interest in the Christian Ministry was of a pastoral nature, believing it to be the chief work of a good shepherd. He was also active in the Habitat for Humanity Organization. Upon retirement, they traveled through the country with the WBCCI, and Airstream Travel Club, enjoying the company of their grandsons on their summer excursions.

Survived by, Ivy (Robert) Kirn daughter; Christopher (Anastasia) Lytle, Jason (Lisa) Lytle, Nicholas (Valentina) Lytle, grandsons; Milana Lytle, Jake, Luke, Alexis Lytle, great grandchildren. Guy (Gayle) Schlesinger, son; Abigail (Christopher) Vandergrift, Courtney Baccile, granddaughters, Whittaker Vandergrift, Anna, Julia Baccile, Sadie Schlesinger, great grandchildren.

September 24, 1919 – March 3, 2016

She was born in Beemerville, NJ on September 24, 1919, the daughter of John and Edna (Beemer) Post. She was raised in the family community surrounding Sussex, NJ. She graduated from Rider College with a degree in Business Education and taught at Revere, PA and Franklin, NJ. On June 25, 1945, she married the Rev. Frank C. Shannon. As the wife of a Methodist minister, she provided countless hours of support to their congregations in New Jersey (Mt. Herman, Clinton, Roseland, Belleville, Haledon), and Port Jervis, NY. She energized a "School of Missions" in each church. While in Port Jervis, she pioneered the Annual Plant Sale and the "Lord's" Auction as fundraisers for the church.

Her final church home was the Sussex United Methodist Church. Ruth was a life-long proponent of education, always encouraging her children to read, and explore their intellectual and artistic interests. Playing the piano, flower arranging, photography and cake decorating were some of her favorite activities. For many years following retirement, Ruth and Frank spent the cold months in Florida and the warm months in northern New Jersey. Family times at Lake Pohang were especially cherished.

Robert Drew Simpson

October 16, 1924 – August 6, 1915

The Reverend Dr. Robert Drew Simpson was appointed Senior Pastor to the Chatham Methodist Church in 1965. Prior to his ministry in Chatham he was the Senior Pastor to the Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church from 1946-1960 where he started after he graduated, summa cum laude, with a B.A. in religion from Drew University, where he led the congregation in constructing their first church building.

As a devoted scholar, Bob received his Bachelor of Divinity from Drew Theological Seminary, magna cum laude and continued graduate studies at Union Theological Seminary and Columbia University. He returned to Drew University to complete a Ph.D. degree in Christian History in 1954. In 1960 he moved to Nutley, New Jersey, and again led his congregation in church building at the Vincent United Methodist Church. In 1965, he began his 25 year ministry at the Chatham United Methodist Church. His Chatham congregation named him Pastor Emeritus upon his retirement in 1990, and named their Christian building for Bob and his wife Megan. Members of the congregation created two scholarships at Drew Theological School to honor the Simpsons: the Robert Drew Simpson Scholarship, and the Dr. Robert Drew Simpson and Dr. Megan Demarest Simpson Scholarship.

Members of the congregation created two scholarships at Drew Theological School to honor the Simpsons: the Robert Drew Simpson Scholarship, and the Dr. Robert Drew Simpson and Dr. Megan Demarest Simpson Scholarship.

Bob who was born in Port Jervis, New York to Edna Drake and Edward Simpson, attended Drew University where he met and later married Megan Demarest Simpson in June of 1946. Bob did not initially favor Drew's admission of women in the '40's. He spoke out against coeducation, only to meet and fall in love with Megan Demarest (C'46) the next semester, as a new college coed. They were married for 68 years and have three children, six grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren, leaving a legacy of love and devotion. Bob's joy and love for his family, his grandchildren, and his great grandchildren were still very evident as he and his family celebrated his 90th birthday a year ago.

As a descendant of Daniel Drew, the founder of Drew University, Bob served there as Trustee from 1977-1997, where he was chair and vice chair of the Student, Campus Life and Honorary Degree committees. He was an Adjunct Professor at Drew Seminary in the area of Pastoral Ministry. He also served on the Advancement and Executive Committees of the Theological School Alumni Association and remained an honorary member of the Executive Board. In 1994 he was the recipient of the Drew Theological School Alumni Distinguished Service Award. After his retirement he was an archivist in the Methodist Archives at Drew for fourteen years.

Dr. Simpson's published works from Freeborn Garrettson, American Methodist Pioneer (1954); The Life and Journals of the Reverend Freeborn Garrettson (1984); Camp Tabor (1995); The Civil War Letters of John Zephaniah Drake (1997); If Saddlebags Could Talk (1998); which he co-authored with Dr. Fred Maser; and Minding God's Business: The Stories of Women in Mission in the United Methodist Church (2003) which he co-authored with Dr. Megan Demarest Simpson. Dr. Simpson is the author of numerous articles on Methodist History. He was also the president of the Archival and Historical Society of the Northern New Jersey Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Bob's re-enactment programs of early church preachers, "Circuit Riders", brought him and his audience's great pleasure. Dressed in original preacher's attire, including sword and saddle bags, he enjoyed educating congregations about the history of the early Methodist church pioneers. Bob's hobby and passion for researching family history has left a complete account for his own future

James R. West

November 4, 1940 – May 6, 2015

On November 4, 1940 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a fragile baby boy was born 10 weeks premature to John & Betty West. With a lot of nurturing and love, James Ronald West not only survived, but he began to thrive.

When his father returned from the war, their family settled in Camden, New Jersey where Jim spent much of his childhood. Growing up, Jim excelled in school and in all he did, and was active in his church. In fact, he and Shirley were members of the same congregation though it would be several years before they began dating. On October 14, 1967 they were married.

During the ensuing years, they were blessed with two wonderful sons and his career as an analytical chemist with Rohm & Haas began to flourish. Jim and his young family moved to Delran in December 1978 – the same town where his parents and siblings relocated to after leaving Camden years before.

Jim and Shirley began attending Delran United Methodist Church in 1981 where the family is still active today. As with most things in his life, Jim quickly became fully immersed in the church where he sang in the choir, played the hand bells, served on many committees, and represented the church as a lay leader at Conference for three consecutive four-year terms.

His one last wish was to return to church and worship one final time. Unfortunately, he isn't here in body but surely is in spirit.

MEMOIRS

He was a wonderful, caring son to John and Betty; brother to Carol and Roger; husband to Shirley; father to Duane and Todd; father-in-law to Stacey; and most recently Grandpop to little Arthur.

He is survived by, Shirley West, wife; Roger West, brother; Carol Bacon, sister; Duane West, son; Todd West, son; Stacey Bach, daughter in law; Arthur West, grandson.

We miss him dearly however are relieved that his suffering is gone. We are comforted to know that he is looking down on everyone right now, ringing hand bells and joining a heavenly choir to sing "How Great Thou Art."

Doris L. Williams

November 5, 1949 – June 6, 2015

Doris Williams' journey toward ministry began with the seed of faith planted by in her by her mother and grandmother and by her childhood years at the Jerusalem Holiness Church in Reidsville, N.C. Her spiritual growth was nurtured by the abundant experiences of God's grace and healing in her life and the lives of those around her. Her inspiration for sharing the gospel was cultivated by her time at Howard University School of Divinity in Washington D.C. where she earned a Master's degree in religious education.

Doris Williams went on to serve as Dean of Women at Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C. and subsequently as Dean of Women at Paine College in Augusta, Ga. where she met her future husband, the late Dr. Vernon Williams. They eventually moved to Newark, N.J. and became active members of Trinity United Methodist Church in Newark, N.J., where over the course of more than 25 years, Doris served as liturgist, lay leader, Sunday school teacher and youth leader. In addition, Doris Williams held several professional positions where she had opportunity to minister to others and serve the greater Newark, N.J. community.

In her sixties, Doris felt the call to ordained ministry. She attended Drew University, earned her Masters of Divinity and was ordained an elder in the Northern N.J. Conference of the United Methodist Church. Rev. Doris L. Williams served as pastor of the Dunellen United Methodist Church, Fairmont UMC Church, Gladstone UMC and East Millstone UMC. After her retirement from full time ministry, she served as an assistant pastor at the Bridgewater United Methodist Church and as a chaplain at Somerset Medical Center and the Hagedorn Psychiatric hospital.

Throughout her ministry, Rev. Doris L. Williams felt particularly called to pray for and minister to the sick. She is fondly remembered by so many, whose lives she touched during her lifetime on earth.

CLERGY/LAITY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, ABUSE AND HARASSMENT POLICY FOR THE GREATER NEW JERSEY ANNUAL CONFERENCE (Approved at the 2009 Annual Conference)

All references to the Book of Discipline are in the 2008 edition. Paragraph numbers are for easy reference and may change with future editions of The Book of Discipline. Unless there are substantive changes to the content of the Book of Discipline, the Policy will be updated to reflect the current Book of Discipline as editorial changes without the need to re-approve the Policy. Future name changes of Greater NJ Annual Conference will also be updated as editorial changes.

I. Context

For the purpose of this policy, we will use “clergy” or “clergyperson” to refer to all ordained, commissioned, consecrated, licensed local pastor, supply pastor and Certified Lay Minister.

II. Purpose

Clergy are in a position of great trust, power and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While most clergy remain faithful to their vows and their covenant with God and the church, there are clergy who sometimes violate the trust given them. Sexual misconduct is one grave violation of this trust. We also acknowledge that laypersons can engage in acts of sexual misconduct, abuse and/or harassment. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by all clergy and laity who engage in sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or sexual harassment. (See Section IV for definitions)

Incidents of sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or harassment have been reported in United Methodist Churches, agencies, and institutions. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for addressing grievances in these matters. The intent of this document is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Annual Conference, and to the local churches contained therein regarding clergy/lay sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or harassment.

It is our hope, as the people of Christ that this policy will help serve to guard against inappropriate behavior and be a guide for our community of faith as we seek to handle grievances should sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or harassment occur.

III. Theological Foundation

All persons are created by God. In the Genesis stories, as in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, it is affirmed that we are created in the image and likeness of God. God values human life, intending all women, men, and children to have worth and dignity in all relationships with God and others. God calls us into covenant with each other as children of God and as the body of Christ. The scriptures remind us that Jesus was sent into this world that we might experience whole relationships with each other and God. “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” (Galatians 3: 28 RSV)

We affirm that our human bodies are good gifts from God and our sexuality is an integral part of our humanity. Healthy sexuality, and appropriate expressions of it, are derived from the goodness of the gift. As children of God, we are holy in Christ and created equal. Where one is injured, physically, emotionally or spiritually, all are rendered less than God’s intended wholeness. Sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or harassment is an exploitation of power and abuse of position that uses sexuality as an excuse and distorts the relationships and blessedness of relationships and the upbuilding which God desires for humanity. It is sinful behavior.

One who repents for sinful behavior is promised forgiveness. However, discipline should be distinguished from forgiveness. A clergyperson guilty of sexual misconduct needs and may receive forgiveness and be offered avenues for redemption and change. Forgiveness, however, does not excuse one from responsibility to the community and accountability for the brokenness caused by one’s behavior. The church must still take steps to protect the people of God.

IV. Definitions

Sexual Misconduct

It is sexual misconduct when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader or other position of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, or volunteer within the ministerial relationship. (1996 Book of Resolutions, pp. 128-132, 2008 Book of Resolutions p.134)

Examples of ministerial relationships:

- Pastor/member of church
- Supervisor/church employee
- Youth pastor/youth
- Sunday School teacher/student
- Pastor/student intern
- Pastoral counselor/counseled

Examples of sexualized behavior or sexual contact:

- Displaying sexually suggestive visuals
- Making sexual comments or innuendos about one's own or another person's body
- Touching another person's body, hair, or clothing
- Touching or rubbing oneself sexually in the presence of another person
- Kissing; fondling; sexual intercourse

This understanding is equally applicable in the context of ministries in which there are no "parishioners" but there is a community which acknowledges the authority of the clergyperson or lay worker as a spiritual leader or other ministries in which the ministering person serves a community much wider than the membership of the local congregation.

At the core of this definition of sexual misconduct is the abuse of power and trust that occurs when a ministering person initiates or allows sexual behavior with someone who is in a relationship of trust and/or dependence. Sexual misconduct breaks a sacred trust. Any such sexual misconduct is a violation by the ministering person who then bears the responsibility for his/her behavior.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is any unwanted sexual advance or demand, either verbal or physical that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender. (1996 Book of Discipline ¶161.1, p.101, 2008 Book of Discipline ¶161.1, p.104)

Suggested guidelines for determining hostile environment:

- Is the behavior sexual in nature or gender specific?
- Is the behavior unwelcome?
- Is the behavior severe or pervasive enough so that it creates an environment which interferes with one's ability to work, get an education, or participate in ministry?

Sexual harassment also includes the development or attempted development of a sexual or romantic relationship between a clergyperson or lay worker and a person with whom he/she has a ministerial relationship, when that is an unwanted or inappropriate relationship.

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse is a sexual invasion of the body by force. Sexual abuse may be: rape, sexual assault, incest, indecent exposure, statutory rape, indecent assault, and aggravated indecent assault. Sexual abuse is also an internal assault, a deliberate violation of emotional integrity, and a hostile and degrading act of violence.

Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence Policy

MISCELLANEOUS

It is not enemies who taunt me—I could bear that: It is not adversaries who deal insolently with me—I could hide from them. But it is you, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend, with whom I keep pleasant company. Psalm 55: 12-14a NRSV.

The Psalmist captures the feeling of many victims of domestic violence: the pain of being betrayed and injured by a loved one.

What is Domestic Violence?

Any abusive, violent, coercive, forceful, or threatening act or word inflicted by one member of a family or household on another can constitute domestic violence.

The United Methodist Church affirms the sacredness of all persons and their right to safety, nurture and care. It names domestic violence and sexual abuse as sin and pledges to work for their eradication. 2008 Book of Resolution, p.59. Thus, we recognize domestic violence as an immoral act and a chargeable offense for both clergy and laity. 2008 Book of Discipline, ¶ 2702.1 and ¶ 2702.3

We celebrate God's gift of intimacy, the image of God in each person, the inherent right of each person to health, wholeness, and safety, and we commit ourselves to working toward the elimination of domestic violence.

V. Standards for Clergy Conduct

- A. Clergy related to the Annual Conference are always accountable for the ways they respond to persons who ask their ministerial assistance and over whom they have authority. Any breach of this ministerial relationship, ministerial responsibility, and ministerial authority is abusive and unethical.
- B. Clergy often relate to persons who are fragile and vulnerable, and therefore must exercise special care:
 - 1. That clergy are psychologically, emotionally, and spiritually healthy.
 - 2. That there has been proper and adequate preparation and education as well as adequate continuing education for providing appropriate help for those under their care.
 - 3. That they seek counsel, advice, and supervision.
 - 4.
- C. Clergy sexual misconduct, abuse, and/or harassment places an unfair and unavoidable burden on the victim of such conduct. It is in the best interest of the entire church to inform the laity concerning appropriate standards of ministerial conduct.
- D. Clergy self-discipline requires self-awareness and takes for a standard of ethics those implied and described in the vows of ordination and consecration. (1996, Book of Discipline, ¶301-¶365) Personal integrity and mature professional conduct are a part of every ministerial relationship. This prohibits any sexual behavior with a parishioner, colleague, staff, or client entrusted to his or her sacred care.
- E. All clergy have the responsibility for developing healthy and ethical relationships with other persons. Married clergy have covenanted to nurture and maintain a faithful marital relationship. The covenant also reminds single clergy that dating relationships must maintain full attention to sexual conduct as understood in Christian teaching and the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. (1996 Book of Discipline, ¶65)
- F. When clergy are providing professional pastoral counseling to persons in their church or community, it is understood that they shall keep appropriate standards of professional behavior and boundaries in that relationship. It is also recommended that clergy seek supervision for their counseling by a certified counselor supervisor to ensure that proper counseling relationships are maintained.

VI. Standards for the Conduct of Laity

Within the United Methodist connection, lay persons are also called to a standard of conduct which stands against sexual misconduct, abuse and/or harassment as outlined in 2008 Book of Discipline ¶2702.3. Laity have the responsibility for not creating hostile environments as a result of sexual harassment, abuse and/or sexual misconduct against clergypersons or other laity. (Book of Discipline ¶ 605.8)

VII. Honoring Perceptions of Reality

MISCELLANEOUS

We understand that intentions and perceptions are not always the same. It is our policy to treat seriously a person's perception of the truth of their experience if/when sexual harassment, abuse, and/or misconduct are reported.

VIII. Confidentiality

The primary purpose of this policy is to encourage and support victims of sexual harassment, abuse, and/or misconduct to report such incidents, by providing a process that protects them from intimidation and preserves their dignity. We recognize that there also may be occasions when persons are falsely charged with sexual harassment, abuse and/or misconduct. In either case, it is of the utmost importance that confidentiality be assured for both the victim and the accused, and that advocates, church officials and others who may be involved in the process take every reasonable and legal precaution to honor the issue of confidentiality.

Some instances of sexual harassment can be resolved easily and informally between parties. In all other instances, misconduct of a sexual nature or abuse within the local church should be reported to a Contact Person for sexual harassment and abuse. If the conduct involves a clergy person, the complainant may consider filing a written complaint and/or speaking with a District Superintendent.

IX. Compassionate Advocates

The Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church provides the following support system to assist any individual who has a concern about an issue of sexual misconduct, harassment, or abuse with the church.

Listed at the end of this document are Compassionate Advocates trained by the Annual Conference and who will provide immediate support and direction for persons who feel that they have been sexually abused or harassed. Compassionate Advocates will explain policy and procedure and will provide confidential guidance throughout the process and respect confidentiality. Compassionate Advocates will be available for the complainant, the accused and the church.

We urge all related institutions/agencies in the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference to identify and train Compassionate Advocates to serve within their organization.

X. Process

The Greater New Jersey Annual Conference will adhere to the following steps when an accusation of sexual misconduct, harassment or abuse is brought to the attention of a District Superintendent:

1. A letter shall be provided to both the complainant and the accused at the time they first contact or are contacted by the District Superintendent. These letters are included in this policy as Appendix A.
2. Limit all media responses on behalf of the Church/Conference to the Bishop or the Bishop's designate.
3. If the complainant chooses to file a written complaint, the process will proceed as indicated in the 1996 Book of Discipline, section XIV ¶1358, 2008 Book of Discipline section XV ¶ 361.
4. A complainant has the option of following church policy and discipline when bringing a complaint of sexual misconduct against a pastor. They also have the option of seeking legal advice and filing charges.
5. Any incidence of sexual abuse in which the victim is a minor is a crime and must be handled appropriately. Anyone within the church who becomes aware of a child abuse issue is morally—for clergy, legally required—obligated to take steps necessary in the attempt to prevent further harm to the child. If an incident of child abuse occurs involving a church employee or volunteer within the church building or at any church activity, or if a minor brings forth a complaint of sexual abuse it must be reported to the local authorities.

The Greater New Jersey Annual Conference recognizes that accusations of misconduct of a sexual nature can be harmful to the whole congregation. The Greater New Jersey Annual Conference will provide support to the church affected by these accusations by providing guidance from the Leadership Advocacy Team and counsel in the form of a response team.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Conference's 2014 financial statements, and our report dated May 14, 2015, expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

GREATER NEW JERSEY ANNUAL CONFERENCE
OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO THE UNCONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2015

1. Organization:

Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) is an integral part of the General Conference of the United Methodist Church. Each member church in the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference supports the operating budget and, in addition, makes contributions or grants to the Conference's and General Conference's missions and programs. Investment revenue and program revenue also support the activities of the Conference.

The Conference is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

(a) Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Conference have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables and other liabilities.

(b) Net Assets

The net assets of the Conference and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets include all resources which are not subject to donor imposed restrictions of a more specific nature than those which only obligate the Conference to utilize funds in furtherance of its mission.

Temporarily restricted net assets carry specific, donor-imposed restrictions on the expenditure or other use of contributed funds. Temporary restrictions may expire either because certain actions are taken by the Conference which fulfill the restrictions or because of the passage of time. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Permanently restricted net assets are those that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions which will never lapse, thus requiring that the funds be permanently retained. Generally, the donors of these funds permit the organization to use all or part of the income earned on related investments, and the net capital appreciation thereon, for general or specific purposes.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities and reported amounts of revenues and expenses in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

NOTES TO THE UNCONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies: (continued)

(d) Prior-Year Summarized Comparative Information

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Conference's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, from which the summarized information was derived.

(e) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statement of Cash Flows, the Conference considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

(f) Investments

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at fair values based on quoted prices in active markets (national security exchanges) for identical assets, with gains and losses included in the statement of activities. Donated investments are reflected as contributions at their fair values at date of receipt.

(g) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable.

(h) Firm Pledges

Firm pledges are recognized as income in the year for which the pledge is made. Pledges that are expected to be received within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Pledges that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of their estimated future cash flows. The discounts on those amounts are computed using risk-free interest rates applicable to the year in which the pledges are received. Amortization of the discount is included in contribution revenue. The Conference uses the allowance method to determine uncollectible receivables. An allowance for uncollectible pledges is estimated based upon management's judgment and includes factors such as prior collection history.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies: (continued)

(i) Land, Buildings and Equipment

Depreciable assets over $5,000 are recorded at cost at date of acquisition or fair value at date of donation in the case of gifts. Depreciation is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	25 - 40 years
Equipment, furniture and fixtures	4 - 10 years

(j) Post-retirement Benefits

The Conference has adopted FASB ASC 715, Compensation – Retirement Benefits which requires that the funded status of defined benefit pensions and other postretirement benefit plans be fully recognized in the statement of financial position.

(k) Reclassification

Certain accounts in the prior-year financial statements have been reclassified for comparative purposes to conform to the presentation of the current-year financial statements.

3. Pledges Receivable:

All pledged commitments have been made for the Mission Campaign. Pledges are expected to be received as follows:

	2015	2014

5. Fair Value Measurements:

The Conference reports its fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy defined by generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

5. Fair Value Measurements: (continued)

The three levels as of the fair value hierarchy under GAAP are:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability;

Level 3 – Prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable (that is, inputs supported by little or no market activity)

Fair values of assets measured at December 31, 2015 are as follows:

	Totals	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)

5. Fair Value Measurements: (continued)

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Equity securities and real estate investment trust: valuations are obtained from real-time quotes for transactions in active exchange markets involving identical assets (Level 1).

Fixed income: value based on a modeled bid evaluation pricing estimate for comparable instruments (Level 2).

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts: the Conference considers the measurement of its beneficial interest in the trusts to be a Level 3 measurement within the fair value hierarchy because even though that measurement is based on the unadjusted fair values of the trust assets reported by the trustee, the Conference will never receive those assets or have the ability to direct the trustee to redeem them (Level 3).

	Level 3
Fair value at the beginning of the year	$ 254,542
Contribution of beneficial interest in a perpetual trust	113,705
Unrealized loss	(17,713)
Total fair value at the end of the year	$ 350,534

6. Property and Equipment:

Details of property and equipment are as follows:

The Conference holds title to properties, with the intent to sell, that are no longer being used by the local churches. No value has been included for these properties on the Conference's statement of financial position since there is no cost basis related to these properties that have been incurred by the Conference. The appraised value of these properties does not generally reflect the actual amount that can be reasonably expected from their sale.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Conference adopted the Clergy Retirement Security Program which had been established by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church. This plan supersedes and replaces the provisions of the prior plans. The church contribution rate under the Clergy Retirement Security Program is 12.50% of the active participant's plan compensation for a plan year. The 2015 church contribution rates under the Comprehensive Protection Plan are 3% for full-time clergy, 3.4% for less-than-full-time (3/4 and 1/2 time), and 4.4% for optional coverage (1/4 time or leave status.)

Under the provisions of the plans, the Conference is required to maintain an amount in its Deposit Account sufficient to provide for the monthly transfer of the church contributions on behalf of its active participants.

11. Defined Contribution Plan:

Effective January 1, 1975, the Conference adopted a contributory pension plan for lay employees, covering all full-time employees electing to participate. Under this plan the Conference will contribute 6% of each participant's annual salary, and the participants will contribute an additional 3% of all past earnings of eligible employees.

12. Post-Retirement Benefit Obligation:

The Conference's post-retirement health care benefit plan provides health insurance coverage to employees with 20 years of service who retire directly from active service at or after the age of 62. Married employees eligible for the plan will also have coverage for their spouse. Upon an eligible retiree's death, spousal coverage continues for the spouse's lifetime.

15. Endowment:

The Conference's endowment consists of approximately 14 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Council on Finance and Administration to function as endowments. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Council on Finance and Administration to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Relevant Law

The Council on Finance and Administration of the Conference has interpreted the New Jersey State's Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets are classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the organization in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) The purposes of the organization and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of the organization
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

The Conference has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the organization must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Council on Finance and Administration, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of the S&P 500 index while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Conference expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 6.5 percent annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investments returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Conference targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy

The Conference has a policy of appropriating for expenditure 5% of the average fair value of each respective endowment. The Organization expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment funds to grow at a minimal average rate of 5% annually. This is consistent with the Organization's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

17. Income Taxes:

The Conference is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and application state law.

The accounting standards on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes address the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Conference may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Conference and various position related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from a tax position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year 2015 and 2014.

The Conference is not required to file a federal form 990 because it is an integrated auxiliary of a church. Therefore, the Conference has voluntarily elected not to file a federal form 990 since its inception and for that reason; the statute of limitations has not started to expire for IRS examination of income tax issues.

18. Related Parties:

The Conference provides administrative services to various related organizations. The payments received and in-kind services provided in 2015 are as follows:

A Future With Hope	$ 104,907
The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society	6,865
Total administrative fees	$ 111,772

18. Related Parties: (continued)

Due to the reorganization of the Greater NJ United Methodist Camping Ministries, the Conference waived its administrative fees from that program for 2015.

The Centenary Fund provides annual support to a Conference's program which serves the needs of retired clergy, widows and dependent children of deceased clergy. The amount received in 2015 is $513,591.

The Conference collects contributions from local churches and individuals which are designated for A Future with Hope and The Centenary Fund. The amounts remitted to related organization in 2015 are as follows:

A Future With Hope	$ 478,292
The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society	7,723
	$ 486,015

At December 31, 2015, the Conference had the following related party accounts receivable and payable:

Accounts receivable:

Greater NJ United Methodist Camping Ministries	60,000
	$ 60,000

Accounts payable:

A Future With Hope	$ 227,970
UMC - Imagine No Malaria	61,067
	$ 289,037

19. Environmental Remediation Loss Contingency

The Conference has been notified that a church property has an underground oil tank that has leaked into the surrounding area. Although a loss is probable, it is not possible to reasonably estimate the amount of any obligation for remediation that would be material to the Organization's financial statements at December 31, 2015.

20. Subsequent Events:

In preparing these financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through May 7, 2016, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Fund) which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of activity and cash flows, for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Fund's 2014 financial statements, and our report April 7, 2015, expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2015

1. Organization, Contributions and Benefits:

The Centenary Fund and Preachers' Aid Society of the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Fund) was founded to serve the needs of retired clergy, widows and dependent children of deceased clergy. The Fund is exempt from income tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Summary of significant Accounting Policies:

The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader.

(a) Accrual Basis Financial Statements

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis and conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and in accordance with the principles of not-for-profit accounting.

(b) Net Assets

The net assets of the Fund and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets include all resources which are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions of a more specific nature than those which only obligate the Fund to utilize funds in furtherance of its mission.
- Temporarily restricted net assets carry specific, donor-imposed restrictions on the expenditure or other use of contributed funds. Temporary restrictions may expire either because certain actions are taken by the Fund which fulfill the restrictions or because of the passage of time. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.
- Permanently restricted net assets are those that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions which will never lapse, thus requiring that the funds be permanently retained. Generally, the donors of these funds permit the organization to use all or part of the income earned on related investments, and the net capital appreciation thereon, for general or specific purposes.

(c) Prior-Year summarized Comparative Information

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total, but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the organization's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, from which the summarized information was derived.

2. Summary of significant Accounting Policies: (continued)

(d) Contributions

Contributions are recorded as revenue upon receipt of cash or unconditional promises to give (pledges). Contributions are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor.

(e) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes checking, savings and money market accounts. Certificates of deposit with maturity of three months or less when purchased are considered to be cash equivalents. Money market funds held by brokers for investment purposes are classified as investments.

(f) Investments and Investment Income

Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at fair value based on quoted prices in active markets (national securities exchanges) for identical assets, with gains and losses included in the statement of activities. Donated investments are reflected as contributions at their fair value at date of receipt.

(i) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from their estimates.

3. Investments:

The components of investment gains and losses for the year ended December 31, 2015 is as follows:

Realized gains	$ 220,965
Unrealized losses	(514,629)
	$ (293,664)

4. Fair Value Measurements

The Fund reports its fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy defined by generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements).

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under GAAP are:

- Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability;
- Level 3 Prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable (that is, inputs supported by little or no market activity).

5. Bristol Glen Deposit:

In a prior year, the Fund has provided a refundable capital deposit in the Bristol Glen retirement home for one retired clergy. During the year ended December 31, 2015, the deposit was returned to the Fund.

6. Unrestricted Net Assets:

(a) Donation Base

Donation base net assets represent the cumulative balance of gifts made to the Fund designated for long-term investment.

(b) Distribution Fund:

Distribution fund net assets represent the cumulative investment return net of the Fund's expenses. Distribution fund net assets are expendable for the Fund's charitable purpose.

7. Related Parties:

Administrative services are provided by the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

8. Cash Flow Information:

No liabilities for income taxes or interest expense were incurred or paid for the year ended December 31, 2015.

9. Income Taxes:

The Fund is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law.

The accounting standards on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes address the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the fund may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Fund and various position related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from a tax position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year 2015 and 2014.

The Fund has not filed IRS Form 990 in recent years since its inception because it is exempt from filing as an integrated auxiliary of a church. Therefore, the statute of limitations has not started to expire for IRS examination of income tax issues.

Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

Greater New Jersey Annual Conference

This funding plan incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the conference's obligations and funding of the benefits provided to clergy and laity, as noted below.

It is understood by the signees that defined benefit plan liabilities (Pre-82, MPP and CRSP-DB) continue until the last benefit is paid to participants and their surviving spouses irrespective of the funding level of the plan. That is, even if the assets in the plan are larger than the liabilities in the plan, the conference still has a liability (obligation) and potential future contribution due to the plan.

Section B. Active Participants - Claims Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) - Self Funded - Non HealthFlex Only

Note: This section is not applicable to conferences who have insured plans or are currently in HealthFlex.

The following obligations are referenced in FASB ASC 965 - Plan Accounting - Health and Welfare Benefit Plans.

Claims IBNR represents the estimated ultimate cost of settling the claims pending as of the end of year. The estimate should be at net present value based on a % of total claims paid for the year. As a point of reference, an IBNR estimate could reasonably be expected to be in the 10% - 15% range of total claims.

For example, if your plan terminated on 1/1/16, premiums would stop being collected from churches and/or clergy, but claims would continue to need to be paid to service providers for participants who began treatment prior to year end.
